KURT WEILL

STREET SCENE

chappell music company A POLYGRAM COMPANY

Distributed by HAL LEONARD PUBLISHING CORPORATION
Winona, MN 55987 Milwaukee, WI 53213

HL 00312405
ISBN 0-88188-052-3

STREET SCENE

An American Opera

(BASED ON ELMER RICE'S PLAY)

Music by

KURT WEILL

Book by

ELMER RICE

Lyrics by

LANGSTON HUGHES

Price $30.00

CHAPPELL MUSIC COMPANY

Applications for performance of this work, whether legitimate, stock, amateur, or foreign, should be addressed to:
RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN LIBRARY 598 Madison Avenue
New York, NY 10022

"Street Scene" was presented at the Adelphi Theatre in New York on January 9, 1947, by Dwight Deere Wiman and The Playwrights' Company, under the direction of Charles Friedman and the musical direction of Maurice Abravanel, with scenery by Jo Mielziner and with the following cast:

ABRAHAM KAPLAN	Tenor	Irving Kaufman
GRETA FIORENTINO	High Soprano	Helen Arden
CARL OLSEN	Bass	Wilson Smith
EMMA JONES	Mezzo	Hope Emerson
OLGA OLSEN	Contr'alto	Ellen Repp
SHIRLEY KAPLAN		Norma Chambers
HENRY DAVIS	High Bariton	Creighton Thompson
WILLIE MAURRANT	Child	Peter Griffith
ANNA MAURRANT	Dramatic Soprano	Polyna Stoska
SAM KAPLAN	Tenor	Brian Sullivan
DANIEL BUCHANAN	Tenor-Buffo	Remo Lota
FRANK MAURRANT	Bass-Bariton	Norman Cordon
GEORGE JONES	Bariton	David E. Thomas
STEVE SANKEY		Lauren Gilbert
LIPPO FIORENTINO	Tenor	Sydney Rainer
JENNIE HILDEBRAND	Mezzo	Beverly Janis
2nd GRADUATE	Soprano	Zosia Gruchala
3rd GRADUATE	Mezzo	Marion Covey
Mrs. HILDEBRAND	Mezzo	Elen Lane
CHARLIE HILDEBRAND	Child	Bennett Burrill
MARY HILDEBRAND	Child	Juliana Gallagher
GRACE DAVIS	Child	Helen Ferguson
ROSE MAURRANT	Lyric Soprano	Anne Jeffreys
HARRY EASTER	Light Bariton	Don Saxon
MAE JONES	Dancer (singing)	Sheila Bond
DICK McGANN	Dancer (singing)	Danny Daniels
VINCENT JONES		Robert Pierson
Dr. WILSON		Edwin G. O'Connor
OFFICER MURPHY		Norman Thomson
CITY MARSHALL		Randolphe Symonette
FRED CULLEN		Paul Lilly
FIRST NURSEMAID	Soprano	Peggy Turnley
SECOND NURSEMAID	Mezzo	Ellen Carleen

POLICEMEN, MILKMAN, OLD CLOTHES MAN, MUSIC PUPIL, INTERNE, AMBULANCE DRIVER, MARRIED COUPLE, PASSERSBY, NEIGHBORS, CHILDREN Etc. — Ensemble

The action takes place on a sidewalk in New York City

ACT I

An evening in June

ACT II

SCENE 1: The following morning.

SCENE 2: Afternoon of the same day.

Orchestration:

1 Flute, 1 Oboe, 2 Clarinettes, 1 Bass Clarinette, 1 Bassoon, 2 Horns, 2 Trumpets, 2 Trombones, Harp, Piano, Percussion.

Strings (1st and 2nd Violins, Violas, Violoncello, Basses).

INDEX OF SONGS:

AIN'T IT AWFUL, THE HEAT? (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) 6
I GOT A MARBLE AND A STAR (Blues) 24
GET A LOAD OF THAT (Gossip Trio) (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) 30
WHEN A WOMAN HAS A BABY. (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) 37
SOMEHOW I NEVER COULD BELIEVE (Aria) 49
ICE CREAM SEXTET (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) 71
LET THINGS BE LIKE THEY ALWAYS WAS (Aria) 92
WRAPPED IN A RIBBON AND TIED IN A BOW (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice). 101 LONELY HOUSE 115
WOULDN'T YOU LIKE TO BE ON BROADWAY (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) .. 121
WHAT GOOD WOULD THE MOON BE? 128
MOON FACED, STARRY EYED 139
REMEMBER THAT I CARE (Duet) 155
CATCH ME IF YOU CAN (Childrens game) (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) ... 180
THERE'LL BE TROUBLE (Trio) (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) 195
A BOY LIKE YOU 207
WE'LL GO AWAY TOGETHER (Duet) 212
THE WOMAN WHO LIVED UP THERE (Ensemble) 226
LULLABY (Lyrics by Elmer Rice) 244
I LOVED HER TOO (Ensemble) (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) 253
DON'T FORGET THE LILAC BUSH (Duet) (Lyrics by Langston Hughes and Elmer Rice) 262

Piano Score edited by William Tarrasch

To the Memory of My Brother Hans Weill

Introduction and Opening Ensemble

No. 1

Music by Kurt Weill

Copyright © 1948 by Kurt Weill, Elmer Rice and Langston Hughes. Copyright Renewed.
Chappell & Co., Inc. and TRO-Hampshire House Publishing Corp., Publishers and Owners of Publication and Allied Rights for the U.S.A. only.
Chappell & Co., Inc., Publisher and Owner of Publications and Allied Rights for all other countries of the Western Hemisphere.
International Copyright Secured ALL RIGHTS RESERVED Printed in the U.S.A.
Unauthorized copying, arranging, adapting, recording or public performance is an infringement of copyright.
Infringers are liable under the law.

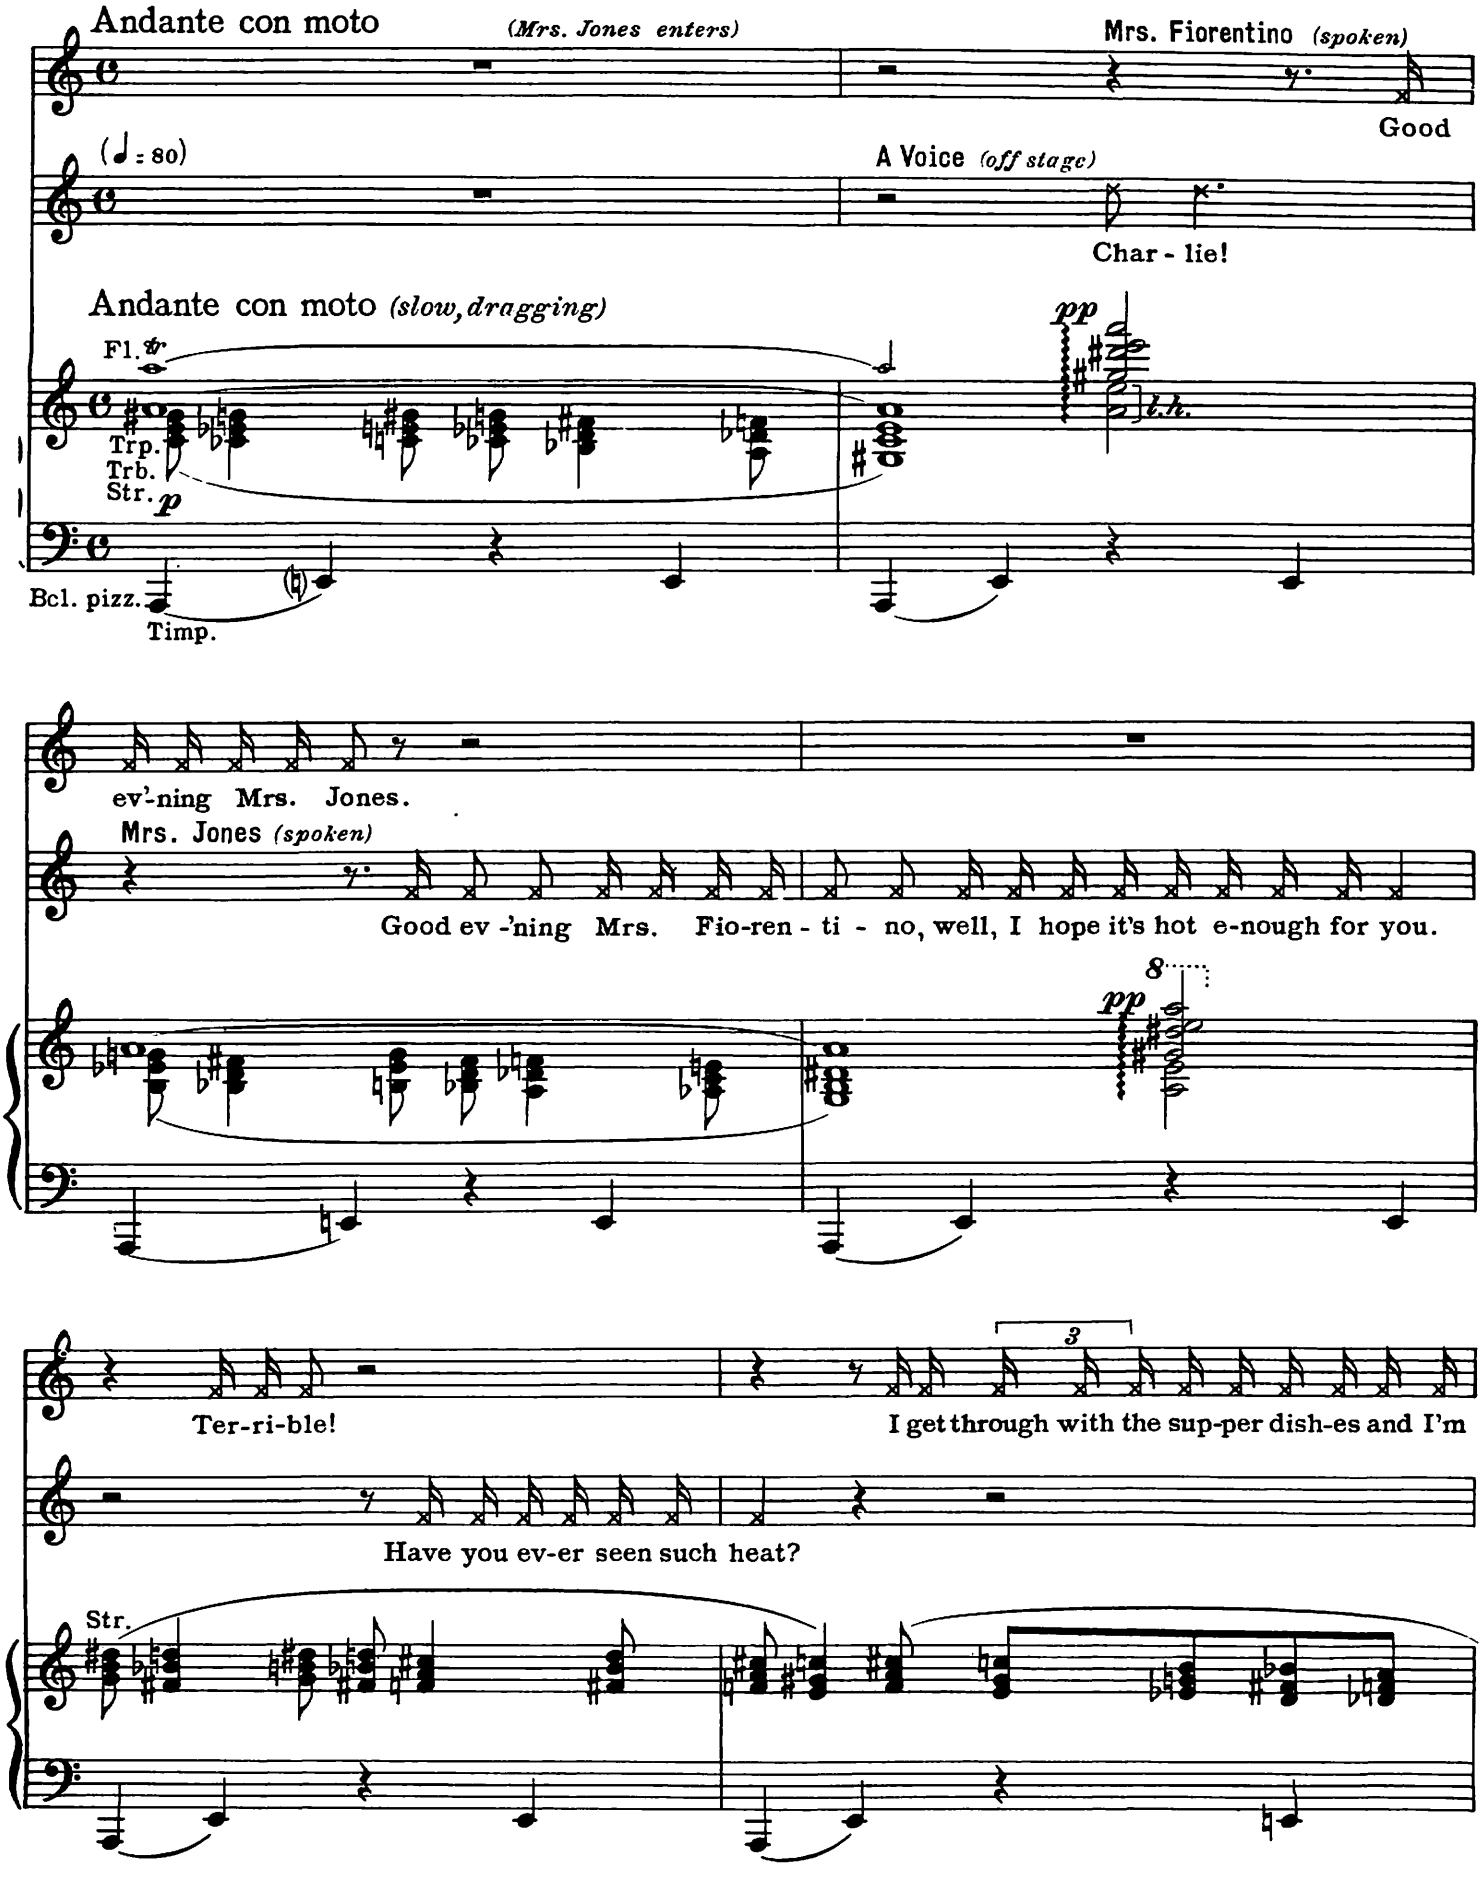

+ Fl. Ob.
2 Vl.
Cl.
Trp.
Trb.
mf
f
f

f
f molto cresc.
ff Corni
Cl.
ff

Vl.
9 8 8 ff
Piano
ff
8
3
3
3
3
3 3 *) or Piano and drums in the pit.

Andante con moto
(Mrs. Jones enters)
Mrs. Fiorentino (spoken)
Good (♩ = 80)
A Voice (off stage)
Char - lie!
Andante con moto (slow, dragging)
Fl.
Trp.
Trb.
Str.
p
pp
l.h.
Bcl. pizz.
Timp.
ev'-ning Mrs. Jones.
Mrs. Jones (spoken)
Good ev -'ning Mrs. Fio-ren - ti - no, well, I hope it's hot e-nough for you.
8
pp
3 Ter-ri-ble!
I get through with the sup-per dish-es and I'm
Have you ev-er seen such heat?
Str.

Mrs. F.
p wet from head to foot.
So I
Ain't a dry stitch on me nei - ther.
Hrp.
pp Trp.
Trb.
poco più
joost take off my cor - set and let my - self spread.
Mrs. J.
I
Str.
Hrp.
l.h.
l.h.
Ob.
p
The
think I'll take a nice hot bath be - fore I go to bed.
8
Fl.
Cl.

Mrs. F.
trou - ble with a bath is that when you get done,— You're
Mrs. J.
Ob.
Cl.
Vla. Vc.
mf a tempo
just a - bout as hot a - gain as when you be - gun.— Ain't it
mf
Ain't it
Ob.
Trp.
mf
aw-ful the heat, ain't it aw - ful, Don't know what I'm gon - na aw-ful the heat, ain't it aw - ful, Don't know what I'm gon - na
1. Trb.
2 Trb.
3
pizz.

mf
do.
Gott, I'm sweat - in'!
do.
My dog's Vl.
mf
Vl.
Cb.
fret - tin',
I'm a soak - in' wet all through.
Trp.
f
Don't know what I'm gon - na
f
Don't know what I'm gon - na
W. W.
f

Mrs. O: Good evening
Mrs. Olsen: I tink is more
do.
(Mrs. Olsen enters)
Mrs. F. & J: Good evening, Mrs. Olsen
do.
Trp.
Cor.
p cooler in de cellar.
Mrs. F
Allegro non troppo
A heat like this I don't re - mem-ber
Mrs. J.
We'll all be wish - in' for Allegro non troppo
Cl. Fg. pizz.
p r.h.
Mrs.F.
mf
They
this in De-cem-ber.
Mrs. O
My ba - by is cry - in', cry - in' all day.
arco

Mrs.F.
feel the heat more as we do I say.
Mrs.J.
And my dog Queen - ie is +Fg.
p
just drag-gin' roun', her tail ain't wag - gin', just hang - in' down.
Mrs.O.
My
Mrs. J.
My kids used to near - ly chew ba - by gets teet'; it hurt her gums.
1 Vl.

stringendo
Mrs.F. f
The heat's got me, I'm feel - in' la - zy.
off their thumbs.
(A colored woman walks across) mp
+ Trp. ff Mrs.F.
Ooh!
Ain't it
f ff Mrs.J.
Ooh!
Ain't it
ff Mrs.O.
Ooh!
Ain't it
Negro Woman:
Law - dy, Mer - cy, I'm near - ly cra - zy!
cresc.
Trp.
Trb.
Tempo I
(Mr. Olsen comes up from cellar) aw - ful the heat! Ain't it aw - ful! Don't_ know what I'm gon - na
aw - ful the heat! Ain't it aw - ful! Don't know what I'm gon - na aw - ful the heat! Ain't it aw - ful! Don't know what I'm gon - na Tempo I
8 Vl.
Vla.
p 3

do.
Mrs. J.
do.
Damn mos - qui - to!
Mr. Olsen:
do.
Oh the heat, oh!
Cl.
Str.
Mrs. O.
I'm a sweat - in' through and through.
mf
f Mrs. F.
(Shirley appears at window)
Shirley:
Good evening.
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do.
f Mrs. J.
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do.
f Mrs. O.
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do.
Cl.
Trp.
Trb.
p
dim.

The Women: Good evening.

Shirley: Papa, here's your tea. Haven't you finished your paper yet? It makes it so hot with the lights on.

Allegro agitato

Kaplan: All right. Put it out. There is anahoo notting to read in des bourgeois papers.

Str.

fp

Cl.

Fg.-Cl.

Kaplan: f

Oi de

f moi - ders!

Oi de moi - ders!

1.Cl.

2.Cl.

p

B.Cl.

fz

p

Kaplan
+ Ob.
Oi de moi - ders in de kep - i - tal - ist pa - pers.
Trp.
mf
Fg.
Man kills his soul - mate and throws her in de
Cl.
gut - ter.
Ten year old daugh - ter
Trb. gliss.
(f) Cl.

burns up her mut - ter.
Not - ting but Picc.
Ob.
(f) o - pium for de work - ing
kless.
Cl.
+ Vl.
Oi de moi-ders in de kep - i - tal - ist press.
W. W. sfz
p Brass
Str.
Cl.
Fg.
p
Mrs. Jones (talking to Mrs. F.)
And there she stood without a stitch on.
Kaplan
f
And the sken-dals!
Str.
f Dr.

Kaplan
Oi de sken - dals! Oi de Cor.
sf sf sken - dals in de kep - i - tal - ist pa - pers.
mf
Fl.
Cor. p
pizz.
Girl picks up sail - or boy and dopes him while he's tight.
Bos - ton play - boy los - es Trp.
Trb.
(f) Vla. Fl.

Kaplan
trou - sers in a night club fight. Peo - ple want bread and they give them this to fress!
1 Vl.
p Cl.
Fg.
Str.
f Oi de sken - dals in de kep - i - tal - ist
f

Tempo I (poco meno mosso)
2 Salvation Army Girls (crossing the stage slowly)
f
Ain't it aw - ful the heat, ain't it aw - ful, don't
Mrs. Fiorentino
Ain't it aw - ful, don't
Mrs. Jones
Ain't it aw - ful, don't
Mrs. Olsen
Ain't it aw - ful, don't Kaplan
press.
Oi de moi-ders!
Mr. Olsen
Ain't it aw - ful, don't Tempo I (poco meno mosso)
W.W. col canto

2 girls
know what I'm gon - na do.
Mrs. F.
know what I'm gon - na do.
Mrs. J.
know what I'm gon - na do.
Mrs. O.
know what I'm gon - na do.
Kaplan
mf
Oi! On a scorch - er_ this is Mr. O.
know what I'm gon - na do.
p espr.
Vc.
Bcl.

2 girls
On - ly hope I live it through, _
Mrs. F.
mf
On - ly hope I live it through, _
Mrs. J.
mf
On - ly hope I live it through, _
Mrs. O.
mf
On - ly hope I live it through, _
Kaplan
tor - ture.
Oi de sken-dals!
Mr. O.
mf
On - ly hope I live it through. _
3 mf
pizz.
Vl. Vla.

2 girls
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do,
Mrs. F.
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do,
Mrs. J.
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do,
Mrs. O
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do,
Kaplan
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do,
Mr. O.
Don't know what I'm gon - na
do,

2 girls
don't know what I'm gon - na_ do. (going off) Ph!
Mrs. F.
don't know what I'm gon - na_ do. Ach!
Mrs. J.
don't know what I'm gon - na_ do. Ph!
Mrs. O.
don't know what I'm gon - na_ do. Och!
Kaplan
don't know what I'm gon - na_ do. Oi!
Mr. O.
don't know what I'm gon - na_ do. Ph!
W. W.
Corni
f 3 sfz
attacca

Blues

No. 2

Andante con moto (♩ = 72)
Henry (comes up from the cellar, carrying a garbage can) Guitar Solo
p Piano
Hp.
Vc. Solo pizz.
Henry
p
I got a mar - ble and a star And the Cl.
p
mf
star is in my pock-et too. Got a mar - ble and a Ob.
mf star_ The star is in my pock-et too. If you'll Cl.

Trp.
Mrs. J: Henry, what about that kitchen faucet of mine?
Henry: I'll get to it first thing in the morning.
be real good_ I'll show that star to you.
Cl.
p Str.
p
I got a ha - lo and a hat_ But my Trp.
p

mf
Cl.
ha - lo I don't wear. Got a ha - lo and a 1 Vl.
mf
Vc.
hat My ha - lo I don't wear. I'm gon-na Trp.
Trb.
p (He exits to cellar)
save that ha - lo un - til I get up there.
Tutti
p
pp Attacc

Scene and Trio

No. 3

Mrs. Maurrant: (at window)
What do you want, Willie?
Willie:
Gimme a dime, will ya? I wanna Fl.
Fg.
get a cone.
Mrs. M: Good evening.
Cl.
The Women:
Good evening
Mrs. Maurrant.
Mrs. M: How many cones did you have today, already?
Willie: I'm hot! All
Cl.
pp
Str.
de other guys is having cones. Come on, gimme a dime.
Mrs. M: Well, it's the last one.
Mrs. Jones: You certainly don't talk very nice to your mother. I'd like to Fl.
Hrp.
Vc.

Meno mosso

hear one of mine talking that way to me. Mrs. M: All right, catch it, Willie. And don't come home too late.

Cl. Corni Cl.

(Willie exits) Mrs. F: Why don't you come down and be sociable Mrs. Maurrant? Mrs. M: I'm keeping some supper warm for my husband. Well, maybe I will for just a minute. (A Girl's voice off stage)

Str. p

Come in, come in wher-

(A Boy's voice)

Come

Tranquillo

W.W. p Hrp. Str.

ev - er you are!

in, come in wher - ev - er you are.

Mrs. F: She has her troubles with dot Willie.

Mrs. J: I guess it don't bother her much. She's got her mind on other things.

Mrs. O: He vas comin' again today to see her.

Mrs. J: Who—Sankey?

Allegro agitato (♩= 108)
Mrs. F:
Are you sure, Mrs. Olsen?
Mrs. O:
I seen him. I vas sitting on de stoop.
r. h.
1 Vl. Cl.
2 Vl. Vla.
l. h.
Mrs. F: Dot's terrible!
W. W.
Mrs. J: Get a load of this!
Mrs. Jones:
You would-n't think a mar-ried wo-man with a grown up daugh-ter
Would be fool - ing round with men like she had - n't ought - a.

Mrs. F:
What-cha think of that, What-cha think of that?
Mrs. O:
What-cha think of that, What-cha think of that?
Fl. Ob.
Trp.
Mrs. O:
Two times already dis week I see him here.
Mrs. J.
I seen that man me-
W.W.
l.h.
Cl.
Cor.
pizz.
self last week. He had the gall to stop and speak! He was com-in' out as Str.
l.h.

I came in. Good morn - ing, says he, put-ting on a grin. Good Fl.
Ob.
Cl.
Brass
(l.h.)
pizz.
morn-ing, says I, look-ing him in the eye, As me and my dog passed him
Mrs. F:
Ain't he got a nerve!
Ain't he got a nerve!
+ Cl. right on by.
Mrs. J: Ain't he got a nerve! I
Mrs. O:
Ain't he got a nerve! I Vc.
B.Cl.

Mrs. F: (shrieking)
f
Mrs. J: said to my - self: Now what a dis - grace! And Mrs. O:
f said to my - self: Now what a dis - grace! And Vl.
f both of 'em are mar - ried too. A both of 'em are mar - ried too. A wo - man ought to know her place and wo - man ought to know her place and

act like de - cent wo - men do.
act like de - cent wo - men do.
1 Trp.
1 Vc.
f Ain't she got no shame?
p Ain't she got no shame?
f Ain't she got no shame?
p Ain't she got no shame?
mf
p Ain't she got no shame?
+ Vl.
Ain't she got no shame?
A
Ain't she got no shame?
Cor.

wo - man ought to know her place and act like de - cent
A wo - man like that one a wo - man wo - men do! ts ts ts ts ts! ts ts ts ts ts!
like that! ts ts ts ts ts! ts ts ts ts ts!
Hrp. 5
p
Get a load of that.
f
Get a load of that.
f
Get a load of that.
f sf

Mrs. Jones:
Be careful! She's comin!
(Mrs. Maurrant enters from the house.)

Mrs. Maurrant:
Goodness, ain't it hot!

Mrs. Jones:
I feel like a wet dish-rag.

Mrs. Maurrant:
I would have liked to go to the Park concert tonight, if Rose had got home in time. My husband don't care for music. But Rose is more like me— just crazy about it.

Mrs. Jones:
Ain't she home yet?

Mrs. Maurrant:
No, I think maybe she had to work overtime.

Mrs. Jones:
Well, all mine ever comes home for is to sleep.

Mrs. Fiorentino:
The young girls nowadays—!

Mrs. Olsen:
My sister was writin' me in Schweden is same ting.

Mrs. Jones:
It ain't only the young ones either.
(The Olsen baby is heard crying in the cellar)

Olsen: (From the cellar)
Ol-ga!
(A man in a dinner jacket crosses from left to right)

Mrs. Olsen:
I betcha' the baby she's cryin' again.
(She exits to the cellar)

Mrs. Jones:
What them foreigners don't know about bringin' up babies—

Mrs. Fiorentino:
Foreigners know joost as much as other people, Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Jones:
Oh, I'm not talkin' about the Joimans. You Joimans is different— more like the Irish. What I mean is all them squareheads an' Polacks an'— (Sam enters from the house with books under his arm)

Sam:
Good evening.

Mrs. Fiorentino:
Goot evening.

Mrs. Jones:
Evenin'.

Mrs. Maurrant:
Hello, Sam.

Sam:
Hello, Mrs. Maurrant (Hesitantly) Is Rose upstairs?

Mrs. Maurrant:
Why no, she's not home from work yet.

Sam: (Disappointed)
Oh! It's just that I thought she might want to walk around to the library with me.

Mrs. Maurrant:
Goodness, Sam, are you off to the library again?

Sam:
Well, I've finished these, so I've got to get myself something to read.

Mrs. Maurrant:
I used to love reading, too, but lately— well, I just seem to have got out of the habit.

Sam: (Earnestly)
I wouldn't know how to get along without reading. It means more to me, than food or sleep or anything. I've read at least one book every day, since I was ten.
(Breaking off, self-consciously)
Well, if you'll excuse me, I've got to go, or the library will be closing. (He starts left and exits)

Mrs. Maurrant:
I'll tell Rose you were asking for her.

Sam:
Thank you. (exits)

Mrs. Maurrant: (To the others)
He's such a nice boy— so quiet and gentle.

Mrs. Jones:
Well, he certainly can't have much on his mind, if he's got time for all that readin'!

Mrs. Maurrant:
Oh, I think it's wonderful to have something like that, to put your heart and soul into. Rose says he's just about the brightest boy she ever met and that she's sure some day he'll . . . .
(Buchanan enters with bag of oranges, from stage right)

Buchanan:
Good evening, ladies.

The Women:
Oh, good evening, Mr. Buchanan.

Buchanan:
Well, I hope it's hot enough for you?

Mrs. Maurrant:
How's your wife feeling in this weather?

Buchanan:
She don't complain about the weather. But she's afraid to go out of the house. Thinks maybe she would'nt get back in time, in case— you know.

Mrs. Jones:
I was the same way, with my Vincent. But with Mae, I was up and out till the very last minute.

Mrs. Fiorentino:
Mr. Buchanan, do you think she would like some nice minestrone, good Italian vegetable soup?

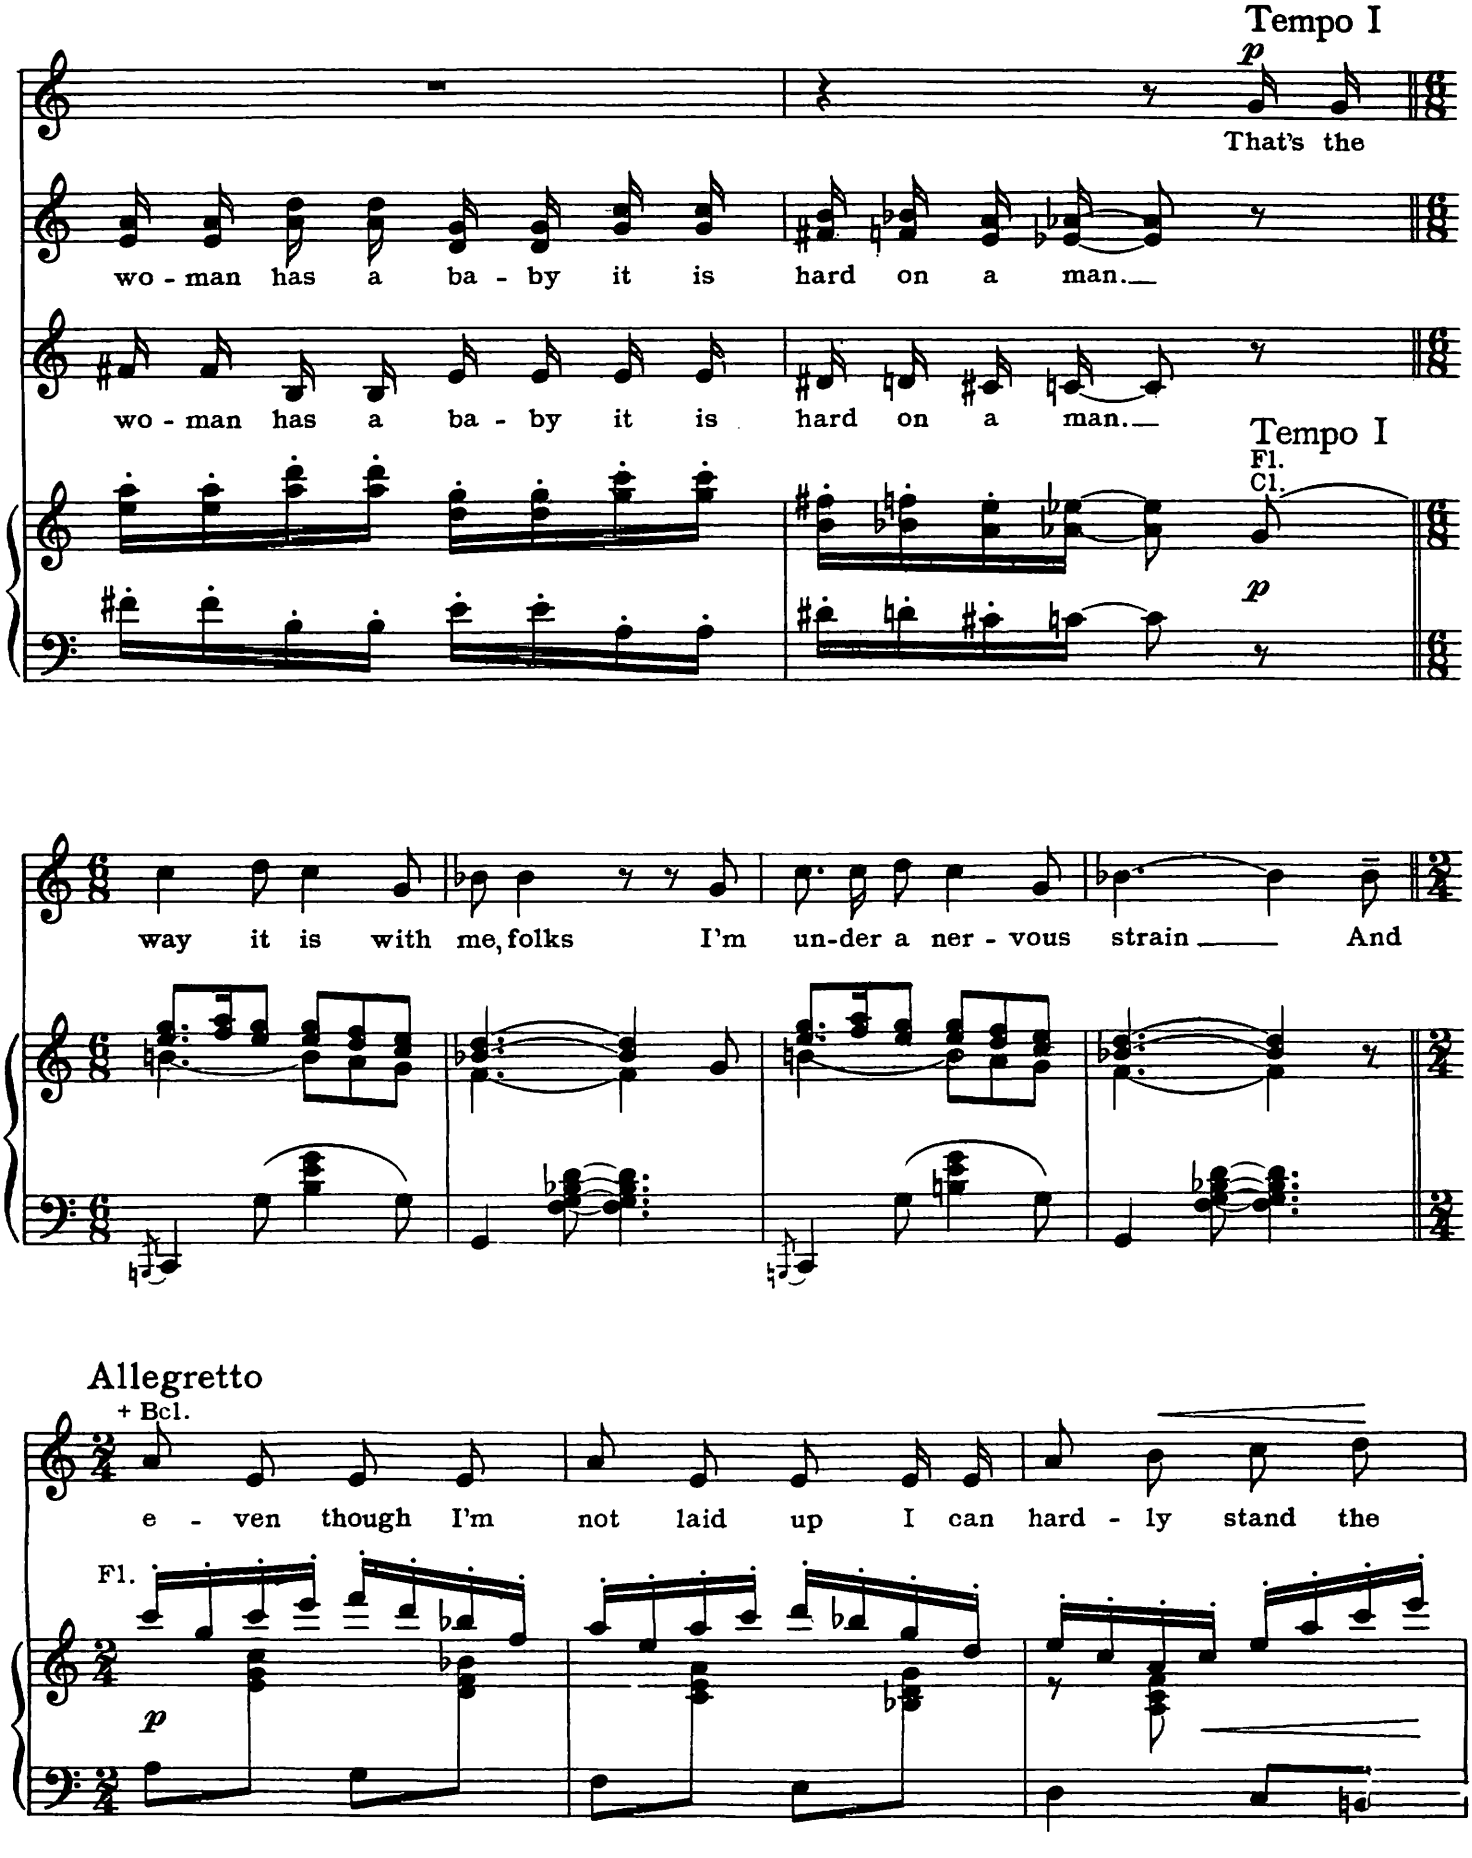

Buchanan:
Much obliged, Mrs. Fiorentino, but she can't seem to keep anything on her stomach. That's why I ran out to get her an orange. I'm sort of jittery, I guess. I'll sure be glad when we get this over with.

Mrs. Jones:
Honest, the way the men carry on, you'd think it was them that was havin' the baby.

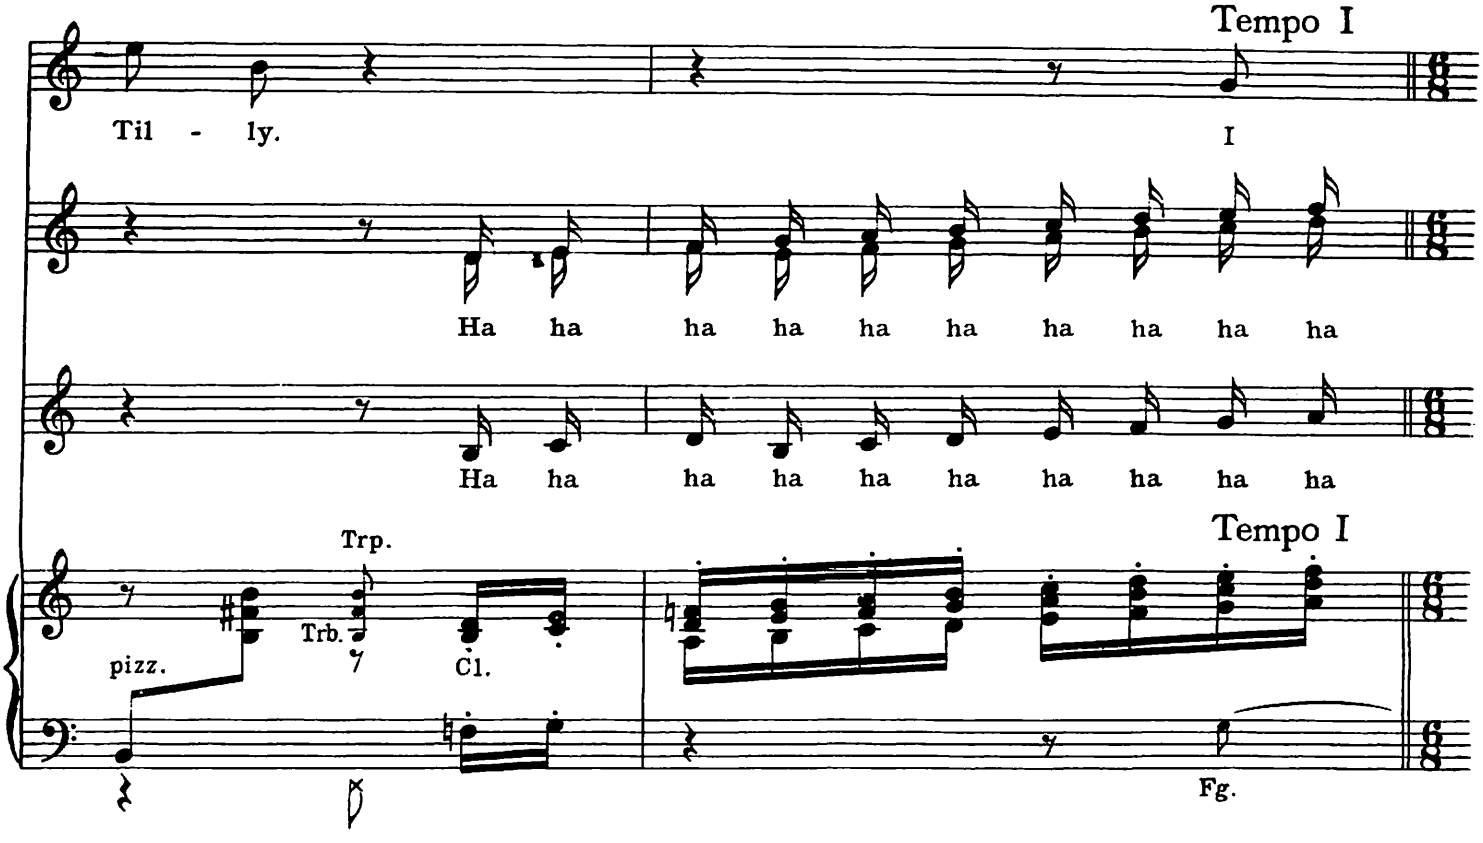

Arietta

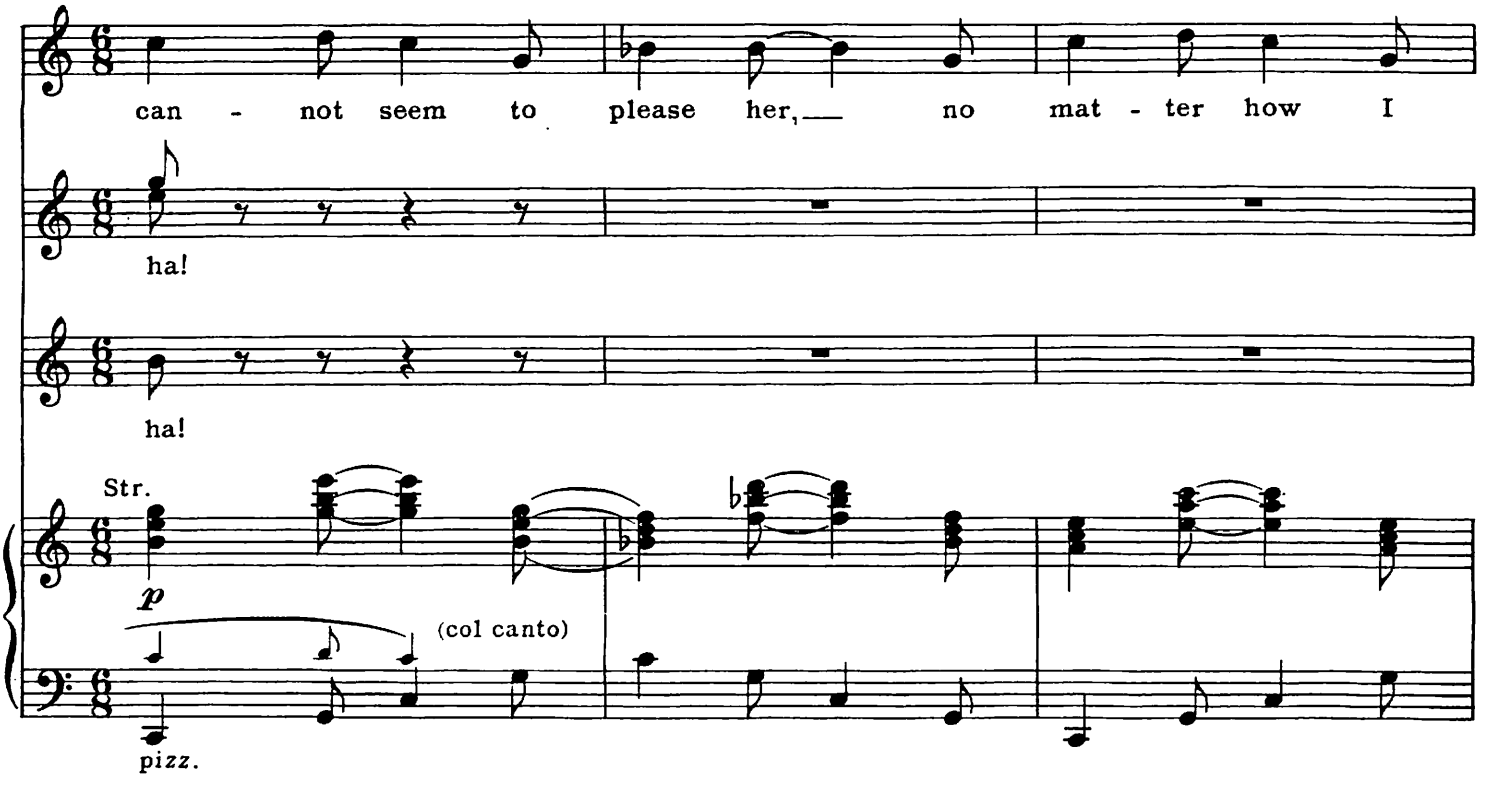

No. 4

Andantino
Buchanan:
Well, in a way, I think it's harder for the man.
(The women laugh)
Buchanan:
No, I mean it.
When a Cel.
Hrp.
Fl.
Cl.
p Str.
Fg.
pizz.
poco rit.
wo - man has a ba - by___ As - sum - ing that she can___ She Ob.
Fl.
Cl.
poco rit.
Allegretto
should-n't o - ver look the fact, It's aw - ful hard on a man.
Mrs. F.
f
Mrs. M.
When a
f
Mrs. J.
When a Allegretto
Str.
p 8 mf

Tempo I
p That's the wo - man has a ba - by it is hard on a man.
wo - man has a ba - by it is hard on a man.
Tempo I
Fl.
Cl.
p way it is with me, folks I'm un-der a ner - vous strain And Allegretto
+ Bcl.
e - ven though I'm not laid up I can hard - ly stand the Fl.
p mf + Fl.

pain.
She Mrs.F: f
Mrs.M: The poor fel-low, the poor fel-low, he can hard-ly stand the pain.
Mrs.J: f
The poor fel-low, the poor fel-low, he can hard-ly stand the pain.
f tells me all her fears and near-ly drives me sil-ly, She poco espr.
Str.
p thinks the ba-by's eyes will cross and he'll look like Cous-in Fl.
Fg.

Tempo I Til - ly.
I
Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
Tempo I
Trp.
Trb.
pizz.
Cl.
Fg.

can - not seem to please her, no mat - ter how I ha!
ha!
Str.
p (col canto)
pizz.

try She wants soft - shell crabs at Christ - mas and Piu mosso
f oy - sters in Ju - ly.
p
Of course I'm just a be -
W. W. f pizz.
p Vc.
Cb.
gin - ner, that's why I'm in this state. I guess I'll be much calm - er when we get to num - ber + Cl.

dim.
poco rit.
f
p eight!
Ah It's
Mrs. F:
Mrs. M:
Ah - ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
Mrs. J:
Ah - ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha
Cor.

Tempo I ea - sy for a moth-er to pro - duce a Mike or pp
Ah
Ah Tempo I
p

Mrs. Jones:

Well, I'm glad it's her and not me that has to go through it.

Mrs: Maurrant:

Oh, I don't know. Some - times, when I look back, I think that was the happiest time of my life. It's a wonderful thing to be young like that and...

Scene and Aria

No. 5

Sostenuto (Maurrant enters)

Mrs. J: Oh, good evening, Mr. Maurrant.
Mrs. F: Good evening, Mr. Maurrant.

Maurrant: Evenin'. Some honey of a day!

B.Cl.

Mrs. M.: Have you been working all this while, Frank?
Maurrant: I'll say. Dress - rehearsin' with lights— in this weather. An' tomorra I gotta go to New Haven with the rest of the crew for the try-out.

poco espr.

Vla.

Mrs. M p (parlando)

Oh, you're go-ing to New Ha - ven to-mor-row?

Maurrant: (Spoken)

Yeah, what a-bout it?

Brass

Vl.

Timp.

Mrs. M.

Why, noth - ing.

Mrs. M:
Oh, I've got some cabbage and potatoes on the stove for you.

Maurrant:
All I want is a good wash. Anybody upstairs?

Str.

Cor.

Moderato assai

Mrs. M.: No, Willie's off playing. And I guess Rose is working overtime.

Maurrant: I never heard of nobody working nights in a real estate office.

Mrs. M.: Well, the office

pizz.
Timp.

Trp.
Trb.

is closed to-morrow on account of Mr. Gordon's funeral. He was the head of the firm.

L'istesso tempo

Maurrant: Never mind all that.

Maurrant:

p

She should-n't be stay-ing out nights with - out us know-ing where she

Fg.

p

Mrs. M.

Well, she did - n't say a word a-bout not com-ing home, But...

is!

Vl.
Vla.

p

Vc.

Maurrant:
That's what I'm say-ing, ain't it? It's a moth-er's place to know what her daugh-ter's
mf
Mrs. Fiorentino
mf
Things are diff - 'rent now - a - days from what they do - ing.
Str.
p Brass
Timp.
Allegro agitato
used to be.
f
Not in my fam-i - ly,
Allegro agitato
appassionato
Vl.
Cor.
mf
Trb.

they're not goin' to be no diff-'rent, Not as long as

Hrp.

Cor.

Dr.

Come out

(turns and goes into the house)

I got some-thing to say.

W.W. feroce
Brass

Left hand

Jones: (enters from the house, passing Maurrant) Hello, Mr. Maurrant!

Children's voices (off stage)

Come

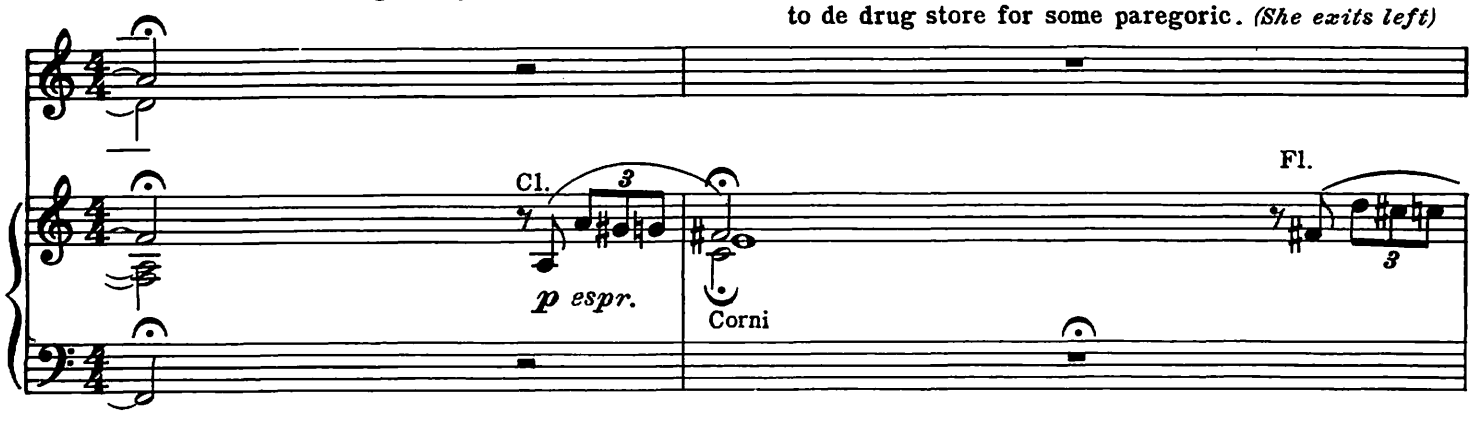

Vc. Cb.

in, come in wher - ev - er you are.

Come in, come in wher - ev - er you are.

Jones: Good evening, ladies.
Mrs. M: Good evening, Mr. Jones.

Mrs. Olsen: (comes up from cellar) De baby's teet' hurt her. I'm yoost going to de drug store for some paregoric. (She exits left)

Mrs. Jones: What that kid needs is a good spankin', 'stead of being spoiled with paregoric.

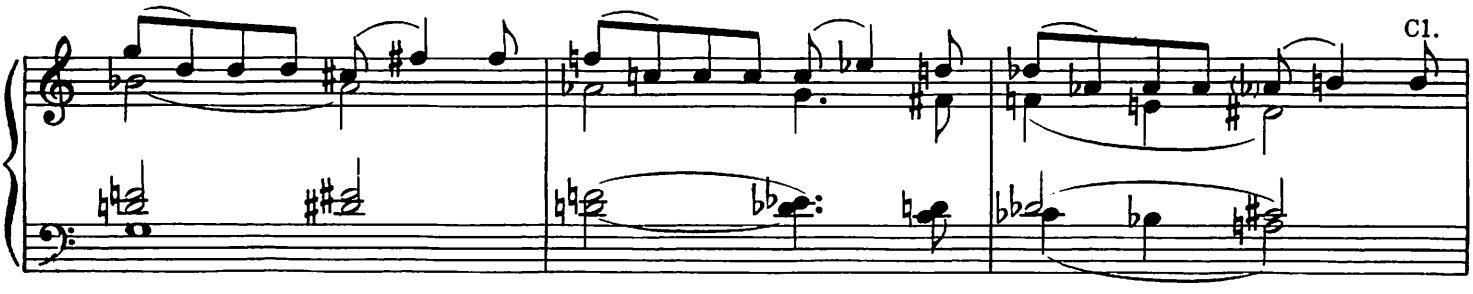

Jones: Aw, you're just feelin' the heat. Guess your husband is too, Mrs. Maurrant.

Mrs. M: Well, he's been working till just now.
Mrs. J: Men are all alike. They're all easy to get along with, so long as everythin's goin' the way they want it to. But once it don't— good night!

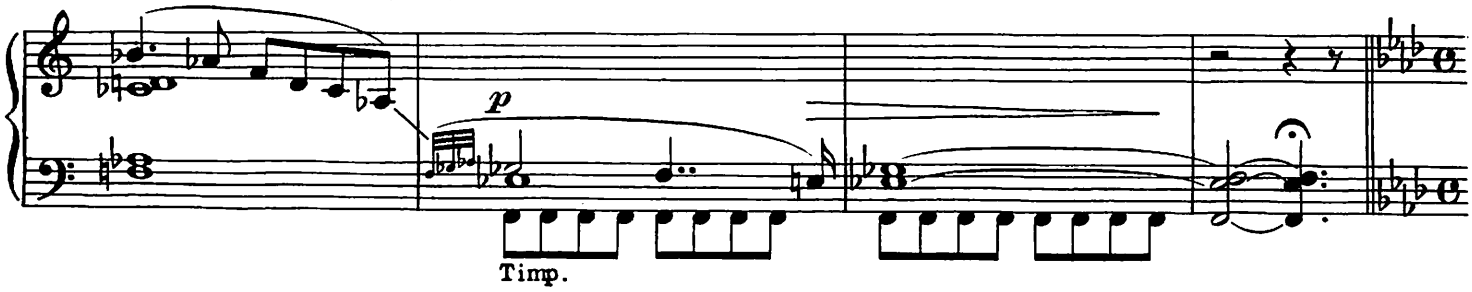

Mrs. M.: I guess it's just the same with the women.

Mrs. J.: Well,

the way I look at it, you get married for better or worse, an' if it turns to be worse, why all you can do is make the best of it.

Mrs. M.: I think the trouble is people don't make allowances.

Mrs. M: After all, we're all human, and we can't just go along by ourselves all the time.

Andante molto espressivo (♩= 69) with great feeling and warmth

dolce espr.

rit.

Ob.

p

l.h.

Str.

Some-how I nev - er could be -

Fl.

Vl.

Cor.

p

Str.

W.W.

Hrp.

move Stage L of WIFE

lieve that life was meant to be all dull and gray.

walking away

XL

Cl.

1.Trp.

(allargando)

f

Some-how I al-ways will be - lieve

dim.

There'll be a bright-er

mf

dim.

Poco più mosso

dolce espr.

p day. Folks should try to find a way to get a - long to-geth-er, A way to

1.Cl.

2.Cl.

+ Ob.

p

B.Cl.

con passione make the world a sing - ing hap - py place, Full of Str.
Cel.
+ W. W.
l.h.
Cor.
Vc.
2.Trb.
Ch. laugh-ter and kind words, and friend - li - ness on ev - 'ry - bod - y's poco rall.
Timp.
Tempo I face. But some-how in the world that I grew up in the streets were (slowly)
Cl.
Vla.
Vc.
Fg.
dolente dark with mis-'ry and dis - tress. The end-less dai - ly grind was too Vl.
Cl.
Hp.
Fl.
Cl.

much for them. It took a - way all hope of hap - pi - Allegretto grazioso (♩= 80) ness. When I was a girl, I re-mem-ber, I used to Fl.
Str.
Cor.
pizz.
Harp.
dolce
dream a-bout a par-ty dress to wear. But I nev - er had a par-ty dress Vl.
+ Trp. Trb.
Poco meno mosso
And I guess my dreams got lost some where _ _ no-bod-y seemed to care.
Hrp.
Corni
Trb.

a tempo
But when I grew up I said,"I'll make it!" For I be-Fl.Vl.
p
p lieved there'd be a luck-y star a - bove me. In the fair - y tales I read, the Str.
Cl.
B.Cl.
Fg.
accel.
cresc.
maid-en al-ways said: "I know I'll find a fair - y prince to Str.
Cl.
Fl.Ob.
Cl.
Trp.
Trb.
Agitato(♩= 126)
f love me."
W.W.
Brass
f Str.
Cymb.
Trp.
mf
3

Quincy Jones

+ Ob. p

So I went wan-d'ring down the pave-ments of New

p

f

York

p

And through the sub-way's

Trp.

mf

p roar-ing tun-nels un-der - ground,

8

cresc.

ff

Hop - ing I'd_ dis-cov-er some won-der-ful

Trp. W. W.

Trb.

mp

ff

lov - er.
molto stringendo
f Str.
Vc.
Trb. Cb.
p freely, simply Frank was the one that I
Cor.
Tempo di Allegretto (warmly) found.
Oh, on the day that we were Vl. con sord.
dolce
Cl.
Cel.
1.Cor.
Ob.
p
B. Cl.
2.Cor.
Hp. Vla.
Fg.
Cor. Vc.
pp
mar - ried I took a flow - er from my bou - quet And I Fl.
pp

rall.
pressed it in a book and put the book a way.
Ob.
slow Vc. Solo Tempo Io
p (doloroso)
Some-times now I go and take a look, the flow - er's
Vc.
p Str.
dry, the per - fume's gone, the pet - als all turned grey.
l.h.
Cor.
l.h.
Trb.
ff
Oh dream of love! Should Vl.
Vla.
Hrp.
f molto cresc.
fffp
l.h.

poco rall.
p
love turn out that way?
Should love turn out that
pp Allegretto
p (freely)
way?
But then the ba-bies came.
Fl.
Cl.
p Hp.
Ob.
pizz.
col canto
Their lit-tle arms made a ring-a-round-a ro-sy-a-bout me,
1 Vl.
Str.
Cl.
Hp.
1.Cor.
Fg.
Yet as they grew old-er, they, too, seemed to grow a-way Un-
Vl.
Vla.
pp
Vc.

til e-ven Wil-lie, my lit-tle boy Wil-lie seems he can get a - long with-
Fl.
2. Vl.
Vla.
Cl.
Cor.
Lento, quasi misterioso (♩ = 62)
pp out me. I don't know it looks like something aw-ful hap-pens In the Hp.
Cor.
pp
pizz.
kitch - ens where wo-men wash their dish - es. Days turn to months—months turn to years,
p (simile)
pp
The greas-y soap-suds drown our wish-es.
+ Trp. molto cresc. e string.

ff
Più mosso
There's got to be a lit - tle hap - pi - ness some-ff
mf
Str. appassionato
f
where some hand to touch
Str.
Cor.
f
1.Trp.
that's warm and kind! And there must be two smil - ing eyes some - where dim.
Ob.
1.Vl.
mf
dim.

p
rit.
that will smile back in - to mine.
Ob.
Cl.
p rit.
Timp.
Tempo I
p
I nev-er could be - lieve that life was meant to Str.
W.W.
Hrp.
pp
(Timp.)
be all dull and grey. I al-ways will be - lieve there'll be a bright-er Str.
Corni fp
f
day!
f
ff

Scene and Quartet

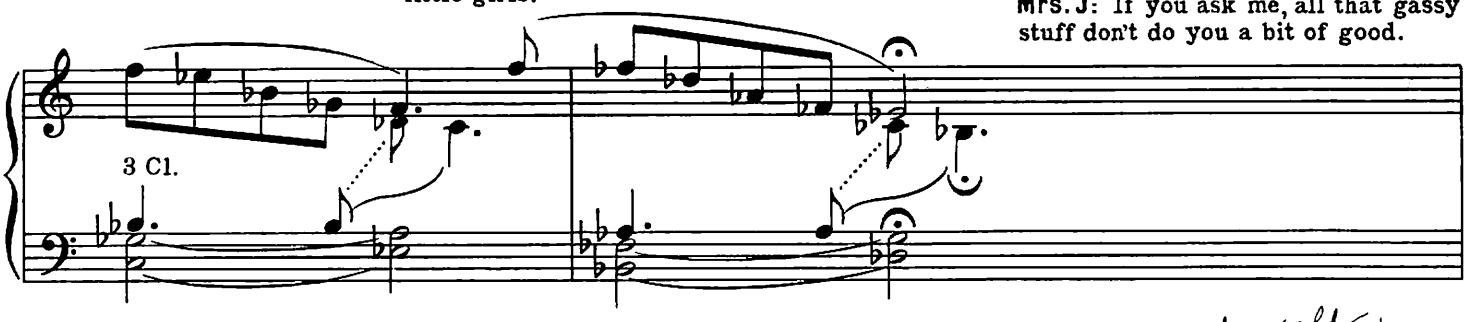

No. 6

Sankey: Yes. Yes, I have_ two little girls.

Sankey: Well, I told my wife I'd go down to the drug store to get her some nice, cold ginger-ale.
Mrs. J: If you ask me, all that gassy stuff don't do you a bit of good.

3 Cl.

(Maurrant leaves window)
Sankey: I guess you're right at that.

Still, it cools you off. Well, good night, folks. See you all again. (Exits Olsen enters from cellar)

follow off SL

Jones: What's that bird's name? Sankey?
Mrs. J: Yeah, Mr. Sankey.

1.Vl. p

Str.

Mrs. M: He's the collector for the milk company.
A Voice: (off stage) Charlie!

Mrs. M. I wonder what's become of Willie.

SL beside of SR

Fl.

pp Hrp.

l.h.

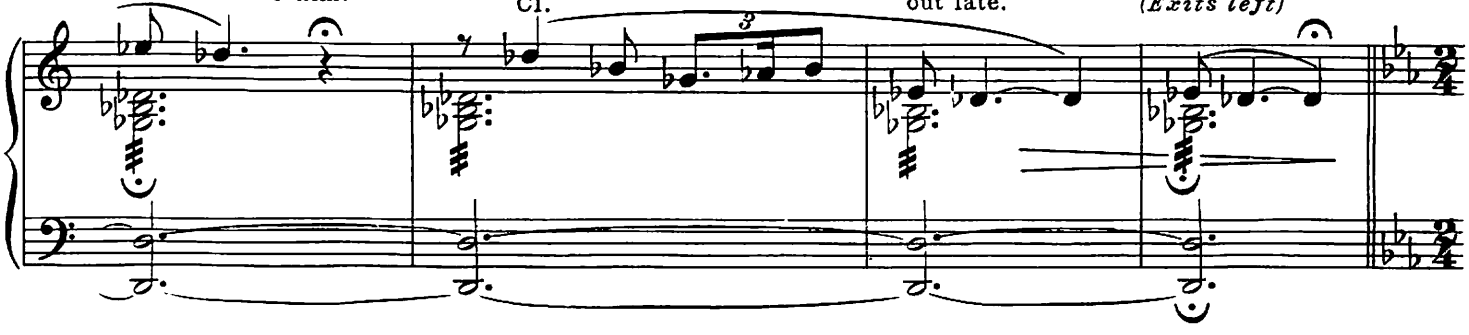

Mrs. M: I think I'd better walk down to the corner and look for him.

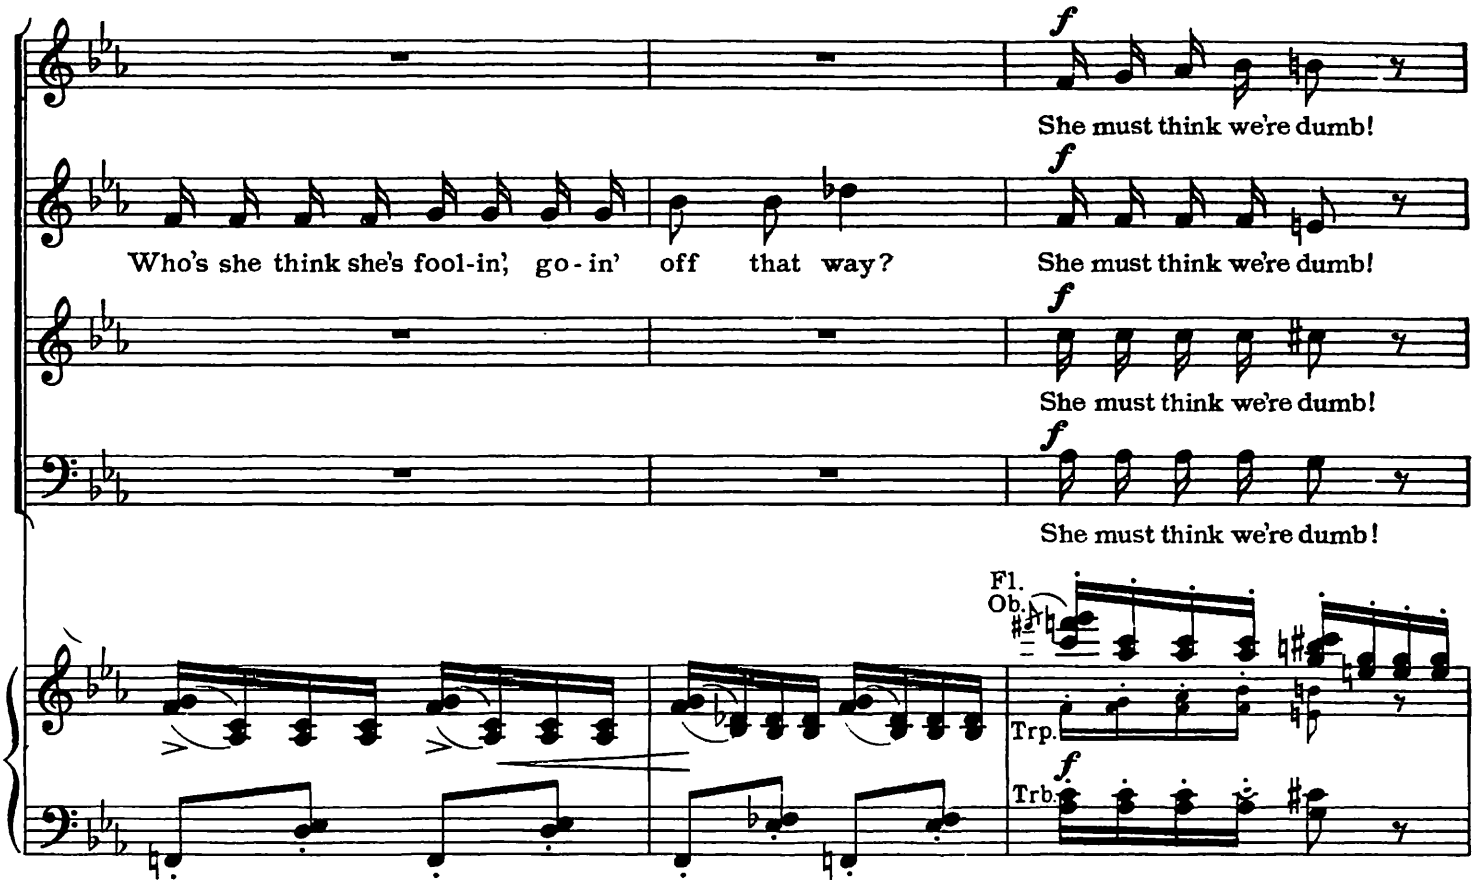

Cl.

My husband don't like it if he stays out late.

(Exits left)

Allegro agitato (♩= 108)
Mrs. F.
f
Get a load of that!
Mrs. J.
f
Get a load of that!
Jones
f Get a load of Olsen
Allegro agitato
W. W. pizz.
f Cor.
pizz.
Fg. Dr.
p
Look-in' out for Wil-lie! did - ja hear her say?
that!
f
Get a load of that!
1.Cl.
arco
p

f
She must think we're dumb!
Who's she think she's fool-in', go-in' off that way?
Fl.
Ob.
Trp.
Trb.

Mrs. F.
And what about him and his drug store?
She must think we're dumb!
mf (mockingly)
He just strolled by for some Cl.
Fl.
Str.
pp Trp.
p gin - ger ale!

"Good ev - 'ning, folks!" like GO TO WIFE DOWN STAGE L.
Boy, ain't that a whale of a tale!
mf
l.h.
p
Do you think may - be Maur - rant might know?
f
on the ra - di - o.
Well,
p
f

men don't seem to have an - y eyes And the hus-band is al - ways the last to get wise.
(shrieking) Wait till he finds out! I'd hate to be in Wait till he finds out! I'd hate to be in Wait till he finds out! I'd hate to be in Wait till he finds out! I'd hate to be in
W. W. pizz.
Trp.
Trb.
col canto
Vc
B. Cl.
Fg.

San - key's shoes when some - bod - y tells Maur - rant the news. No
San - key's shoes when some - bod - y tells Maur - rant the news. No
San - key's shoes when some - bod - y tells Maur - rant the news. No San - key's shoes when some - bod - y tells Maur - rant the news. No
f man who's a man will stand for that and live with a wife who's an man who's a man will stand for that and live with a wife who's an man who's a man will stand for that and live with a wife who's an man who's a man will stand for that and live with a wife who's an

ff
p subito
al - ley cat!
Bet - cha life on that!
Bet - cha life on that!
Trp.
Trb.
l.h. mf
f Bet - cha life on that!
No man who's a man will Bet - cha life on that!
It's aw - ful!
Fl.Ob.
Cl.
Trp.
Str.

Join others SR

dim.

stand for that and live with a wife who's an al - ley cat.

dim.

stand for that and live with a wife who's an al - ley cat.

dim.

stand for that and live with a wife who's an al - ley cat.

dim.

It's dread-ful! A wo - man like that!

Fl.
Hp.

dim.

p

Tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch!

p

Tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch!

p

Tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch!

p

Tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch tch!

p

f

Moderato assai (♩= 76)

Olsen: (spoken)
Some day her hoosband is killing him.

Mrs. F:
Dot would be terrible.

Jones:
He's liable to at that.

Cor.

fpp

p B.Cl.

Timp.

You know he has a wicked look in his eye, dat baby has.

Mrs. J:
Well, it's no more than he deserves, the little rabbitt.

(Mrs. Olsen hurries on.)

2 Cl.
Vla.

mf

+ pizz.
Corni
Trb.

sfz

Mrs. O:
Vat ~~do you think,~~ I yoost seen them together, him and her.

Mrs. J:
What did I tell you?

sfz

Mrs. F:
Vare did you see them?

Mrs. O:

p

Yoost next door in the en-trance to de vare-house. Dey were stand-in' right

Vl.

Hrp.
Trp.
Trb.

fp (misterioso)

Maurrant:
Oh.

Mrs. J:
They need a lot of looking after, when they're that age.

Lippo: (offstage)
Hello Margherita!

Mrs. J: (Seeing Lippo off left)
Well,will you look at your hubby, Mrs. F. He's sure got his hands full. Be careful you don't drop any.
(Lippo enters with ice-cream cones and violin)

Lippo:
Who wantsa da ice-cream cone? Nice fresha ice-cream cone.

Mrs. J:
Here, gimme your violin.

Lippo:
Tank you, Messes Jones. 'Ere's for you a nice fresha ice-cream cone.

Mrs. J:
Why thank you, Mr. F. Careful you don't drop any.

Lippo: (As Mrs. Olsen comes up from the cellar)
An' Mr. Olsen, one for you. An' one for de missus.

Olsen:
Much oblige.

Mrs. O:
Tanks, Mr. Fiorentino.

Lippo:
Messes Fiorentino, 'ere's for you a nice, fresha ice-cream-cone.

Mrs. F:
It makes me too fat. (Henry enters from cellar)

Lippo:
Oh no! Five, ten poun' more, nobody can tell da deef!

Ice-Cream Sextet

No. 7

Mrs. F.
The ice - cream cone!
Mrs. O. The ice - cream cone!
Lippo
cone!
And
Jones
The ice - cream cone!
Olsen
The ice - cream cone!
Fl.
Vl. Cl.
ev - - - er since I lick my Vc.

Lippo tongue on eet
Fl.
Vl.
Cl.
f
Trp.
I can - not leave eet a - Fl
l.h.
p Cl.
Mrs. O.
mf
Ah, the ice - cream
lone.
Olsen
mf
Ah, the ice - cream cone.
mf
Trp.
Trb.
Ob.

Mrs. F.
cone.
Ah the ice-cream cone.
Lippo
f
As long
Jones
Turn 2-face out hold cone up.
Ah the ice-cream cone!
Fl.
Cl.
mf
Vc.
Fg.
Lippo
as I stay in da A - mer - i - ca
I nev - - er get Ob.

Mrs. J.
Hah, you're a sketch!
tired of da ice - cream cone.
Trp.
Trb.
Eet's won - der - ful!
Vl.
Cor.
f
Mrs. J.
And all for a dime!
Eet's mar - vel - ous!
As good as an - y king could get on his
1. Vl.
2. Vl.

Mrs. F.
Mrs. O.
Hats off to the ice-cream throne.
Henry
Jones
Olsen
Hats off to the ice-cream
Hats off to the ice-cream
Trp. (l.h.)
cone!
Three cheers for the ice-cream cone.
Lippo
I
cone!
Three cheers for the ice-cream cone.
cone!
Three cheers for the ice-cream cone.
Cl.

f
Ice - cream!
Ice - cream!
I dream ice - dream
ice - cream!
I scream
ice - cream!
go CS drop ice cream drop it here
Vl.
Cl.
Vl.
l.h.
Cor.
B.Cl.
cream,
I scream
ice - cream,
I'm nuts
a - bout ice - ice-cream,
I scream
ice-cream,
I'm nuts
a - bout ice -
l.h.

Poco meno mosso
mf
poco rit.
p cream, I dream ice-cream, I dream ice-cream Lippo p
When I
mf
p cream, I dream ice-cream, I dream ice-cream
p cream, I'm nuts a-bout ice-cream I'm nuts a-bout ice-cream.
Poco meno mosso
Ob.
p Cl.
B. Cl.
Fg.
Timp.
Str.
pp Andante cantabile (♩ = 66)
Lippo
go in-to the drug-store, Ah, eet is da won-der-ful spot! Dere you p Str. Cor.
Get SC don't block at. or steps find da mar-ble foun-tain, With a bill-o-fare cold and hot. There doc - tor, sail - or or work - er can sit on a lit - tle round seat - a And Cl.

Str.
p Ob.
Cl.
buy from the so - da jerk - er a mil - lion good things to eat - a. When I
p Cl.
Str.
Ob.
Fl.
Mrs. F.
p
When I go in-to the drug-store, ah, it is a love-ly spot, Dere you find da mar - ble
Mrs. O.
p
When I go in - to the drug - - store,
Lippo
p go in - to the drug - store, ah, eet is da won-der-ful spot; Dere you Jones
p
When I go in-to the drug-store, ah, it is a love-ly
Olsen
p
When I go in-to the drug - - store,
p
pizz.

Mrs.F.
foun - tain, Ah
f
Mrs.O.
When I go in-to the drug-store, ah, it is a love-ly spot, a love-ly spot, a love-ly
Lippo find da mar - ble foun - tain with a bill - o - fare cold and Jones spot, There you find the mar-ble foun-tain with a bill - o - fare cold and Olsen
ah, it is the most wonderful spot, there you find the marble fountain, and dishes cold and poco più mosso
p
You can get chick-en hash!
spot.
Chick - en - hash!
hot. You can get chick-en - hash!
You can get po - ta - to - hot.
Chick - en - hash!
hot.
Chick - en - hash!
W. W.
Piano
Str.

You can get po- ta - to - mash!
You can get sum-mer squash!
po - ta - to - mash!
Sum - mer squash!
mash!
You can get sum-mer squash.
po - ta - to - mash!
Sum - mer squash!
po - ta - to - mash!
Sum - mer squash!
Mrs. J: But I want succotash!
Lippo: Okay!
Mrs. F. f ben ritmato
Baked beans, chop su - ey,—
Mrs. O. f
Baked beans, chop su - ey,— Lippo f
Baked beans, chop su - ey,— Henry f
Baked beans, chop su - ey,—
Jones f
Baked beans, chop su - ey,— Olsen f
Baked beans, chop su - ey,—
Trp.
Cor. ff
Trb.
ben ritmato
f

Lem - on pie goo - ey, Choc-'late cake and pot - ted steak and
Lem. - on pie goo - ey, Choc-'late cake and pot - ted steak and Lem - on pie goo - ey, Choc-'late cake and pot - ted steak and Lem - on pie goo - ey, Choc-'late cake and pot - ted steak and Lem - on pie goo - ey, Choc-'late cake and pot - ted steak and Lem - on pie goo - ey, Choc-'late cake and pot - ted steak and stringendo poco a poco
corn - a flake and milk - a - shake and mar - ma - lake e - nough to make your corn - a flake and milk - a - shake and mar - ma - lake e - nough to make your corn - a flake and milk - a - shake and mar - ma - lake e - nough to make your corn - a flake and milk - a - shake and mar - ma - lake e - nough to make your corn - a flake and milk - a - shake and mar - ma - lake e - nough to make your corn - a flake and milk - a - shake and mar - ma - lake e - nough to make your stringendo poco a poco

Meno mosso (quasi maestoso)

Mrs. F. bel - ly ache! But of all the drug store, But of all the drug-store.

Mrs. O. bel - ly ache! But of all the drug store, But of all the drug-store.

Lippo bel - ly ache! But of all the drug store, But of all the drug-store. Of Henry bel - ly ache! But of all the drug store, But of all the drug-store.

Jones bel - ly ache! But of all the drug store, But of all the drug-store.

Olsen bel - ly ache! But of all the drug store, But of all the drug-store.

Meno mosso (quasi maestoso)

Allegro scherzando (♩: 144)

Of all the drug - store ice -

Of all the drug - store ice -

all the drug - store ice - cream is the Queen

Of all the drug - store ice -

Of all the drug - store ice -

Allegro scherzando

Cl.

Vl.

Cl.

Mrs. F.
f
cream is the Queen!
Ah
cream is the Queen!
cream is the Queen!
cream is the Queen!
Vl.
mf
va-nil-la!
p Mrs. O.
Ah va-nil-la!
p Jones
Ah
va-nil-la!
f Cor.
Trp.
Cl.
Fl. Ob.
p p Lippo

Ah tor - to - ni!
Henry And choc - o - late!
Jones And co - coa-nut!
p Olsen
Ah spu - mo - ni!
Pine -
Cor.
Trp.
Cl.
Fl.
Ob.
Vl.
Mrs. F.
Mrs. O.
Straw - ber - ry, ma-ple wal-nut!
Lippo
f
Da gift of da gods to da
Straw - ber - ry, ma-ple wal-nut!
ap-ple and pe-can! Straw - ber - ry, ma-ple wal-nut!
W. W. mf
Vl.
p Brass

Mrs. O.
Fudge
man.
Henry
And the ba-nan-a splits?
mf
And how a-bout the so-das?
Vl. Cl.
p
Mrs. J.
Nut Mondae!
Mrs. F.
sun-dae!
Mrs. O.
The whipped cream spec-ial two bits, Ah
Lippo
The whipped cream spec-ial two bits, Ah
Henry
f
Hal - le - lu - jah!
The whipped cream spec-ial two bits, Ah

f
When I
Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal-le - lu-jah and Ho-san-na when it comes to ba-nan-a!
cresc.
Con brio
Mrs. F. f
Hal-le - lu-jah! Hal-le-lu-jah Ho-san-a! Hal-le - lu - jah! Hal-le-lu-jah Ho-san-a!
Mrs. O. f
Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah!
Lippo
go in - to the drug-store Where da mar - ble foun - tains gleam, There I 3
Henry
f Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-
Jones f
Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah!
Olsen
f
Hal - le-lu - jah! Hal - le - lu - jah!
Con brio
mf
3

Hal-le - lu - jah! Hal-le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah!
Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal-le-lu-jah! Hal-le-lu-jah!
sit, a roy - al king - a, And eat some more ice-cream, some more icelu-jah! Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le - lu - jah for ice - cream! Hal-le-Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - - le - lu - jah!
Hal - le - lu - jah! Hal-le - lu - jah for ice-cream! Hal-le-
Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le-lu-jah! Hal - le- lu-jah! Hal - le - lu-jah!
Hal-le-lu-jah! Hal-le-lu-jah! Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le - lu-jah!
cream! And more ice cream Ah lu - jah for ice cream! Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le - lu-jah!
Hal - le - lu - jah! Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - lelu - jah for ice cream! Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le - lu-jah! Hal - le-
f

Mrs. F.
Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le -
Mrs. O.
Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le -
Lippo
Hal - le - lu - jah and Ho - san - ah,
Henry
Hal - le - lu - jah and Ho - san - ah,
Jones
lu - jah! Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le -
Olsen
lu - jah! Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah for ice
lu - jah for ice
Hal - le - lu - jah
Hal - le - lu - jah
lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah

ff
cream ice - cream!
cream ice - cream!
for ice - cream!
for ice - cream!
for ice - cream!
for ice - cream!
ritardando
a tempo
ff
8

Mrs. J:
Here's your wife, now, Mr. Maurrant.
(Mrs. Maurrant enters from left)

Lippo:
'Allo Messes Maurrant. Why you don't come to da Park concerto?

Mrs. M:
Well, I was waiting for Rose, but she didn't get home. Is she home yet, Frank?

Maurrant:
No, she ain't. Where you been all this while?

Mrs. M:
Why, I've been out looking for Willie.

Maurrant:
I'll give him a good fannin' when I get hold of him.

Mrs. M:
Oh, don't whip him, Frank, please don't. All boys are wild like that when they're that age.

Maurrant:
That's all accordin' to how they're handled. And if you can't make him behave, I will—if I have to beat the daylights out of him to do it.

Kaplan: (Before Mrs. Maurrant can answer)
Mr. Maurrant let me ask you, please, a question.

Maurrant:
Yeah!

Kaplan:
Do you think by beatings, you can make in a child improvements?

Maurrant:
Who's askin' you?

Kaplan:
Excuse me! I'm asking you. By beatings you can get maybe submission, but not a change in kerecter. If you treat somebody like an animal, he will act like an animal.

Mrs. J: (To Mrs. Fiorentino)
He's in again.

Mrs. F:
Yes.

Maurrant: (To Kaplan)
How about mindin' you' own business?

Kaplan:
Dis is a fondemental question which is de business of everyone who is interested in human progress.

Shirley: (Appearing at window)
Papa, it's time to go to bed.

Kaplan:
Let me alone, Shoiley! (To Maurrant) Because you have power over your child you think it gives you the right to impose upon him by force your own standards of morality.

Maurrant:
Lay off that stuff, I'm tellin' you. I'm runnin' my own family, the way I want to run it.

Kaplan:
Dis is what I'm trying to explain to you. It is this philosophy w'ich results in imperialism and war and de exploitation of the verkers by the kepitalist klesses. It is the basis of our whole rotten social and economic system. . . .

Maurrant:
To hell wit' all that radical hooey! I been a working man all my life an' I got no kick against the system.

Olsen:
We're plenty rich, dis country.

Jones:
You said ~~something~~ IT

Kaplan:
Sure, de reech is planty reech. But upstairs a woman wit three children can't pay de rent and our bourgeois laws gives to the landlord de right to toin her in de street.

Maurrant:
And if you was to divide up all the money in de country, in six months it would be right back where it is now.

Mrs. F:
Yes, dot's right, Mr. Maurrant.

Jones:
You said it.

Kaplan:
Who is talking about deviding money? We must hev a new conception of society, based upon human need, not human greed, and dis will require maybe a revolution.

Maurrant:
Yeah! Well we don't want no revolution in dis country, see? (There is a general chorus of assent)

Mrs. J:
I know all about that stuff! Teachin' kids there ain' no Gawd and that their grandfathers was monkeys.

Jones:
Atheism. Like they got in Russia, huh?

Kaplan:
All dis is bourgeois propaganda to take the minds of de verkers from de kless struggle.

Maurrant:
All right, we heard enough. You better lay off with that Red talk, or you're liable to get your head busted open.

Mrs. M:
Frank . . . .

Shirley:
Papa!

Kaplan:
Oll right! I should argue wit a roughneck ignoramus.

Maurrant:
Who's an ignoramus? Why you Goddam . . . .
(He makes a break for Kaplan)

Mrs. M:
Frank!

Jones:
Hey! Wait a minute!

Maurrant:
Lemme go!

Shirley:
You ought to be ashamed to talk that way to an old man.

Maurrant:
All right, lemme go! I ain't gonna do nothin'. (They release him; Shirley and Kaplan leave window, Shirley closes window)
But I'm tellin' you it's time we put a stop to that kind of talk and to the kind of things going on nowadays.

Aria

No. 8

Maurrant:
It's time we got back to the way things used to be.
Moderato (dark, menacing) (𝅗𝅥 = 88)
p ff
p Maurrant p
Let things be like they al-ways was, That's good e-nough for me. Let things a-mf
3 Cl.
mf gain be safe and sound, The way they used to Più mosso (♩= 108)

mf
be.
What's go-ing on?
Why is it so 3 Vl. Cor. Cl.
f mf
f string bad?
If you ask me, the world is mf (wildly) go - ing mad!
f martellato
a tempo
p
Look at these new fan-gled i - deas go-ing round, fp
Vc.
B Cl.
Fg. marcato
mf

Free love, di - vorce, and birth con-trol.
mf
Young girls smok - ing ci-gar-ettes, Their dress - es up a-round their necks, And cresc. poco a poco
men com - ing in, break-ing up de - cent peo - ples
mf homes. But it ain't gon-na be that way a-round sfz
p

cresc.
here, You hear? You
Vl.
mf
cresc.
hear? If an - y - one in my house
f Vl.
Più largo wants that kind of stuff, Oh no! Oh p a tempo no! My kids are gon - na be brought up Vl. Cl.
espr.
p right! Not run-ning the streets as if they're wild all

mf
night. In the old days they did - n't car - ry Fl.
Ob.
mf string. molto on that way, And I'm tell - ing you they ain't gon - na
f do it to - day! With cresc poco a poco

(wildly) me that stuff will nev - er go! In Trp.
Vl.
(ff)
my house I run the show!
mf molto cresc.
Meno mosso (♩: 88)
8 ff
p Let things be like they al - ways
p

Maurrant:
And I tell you it's time something was done, to put the fear of God into people.

Mrs. Fiorentino:
Goot for you, Mr. Maurrant.

Lippo:
Sure t'ing.

Olsen:
Yust the same vit me.

Jones:
You're damn right.

Maurrant:
You bet I'm right! An' if all these lousy foreigners that are running around loose don't like it, why the hell don't they go back where they came from?

Mrs. Fiorentino:
It's nothing wrong to be a foreigner, Mr. Maurrant. Many good people are foreigners.

Lippo:
Sure! Looka Eetalians. Looka Christoforo Colombo! Esa firs' man discov' America--es Eetalian, jussa like me.

Maurrant:
I'm not sayin' anythin' about that ----

Olsen:
Firs' man is Lief Ericson.

Lippo:
Wassa dat?

Olsen:
Firs' man is Lief Ericson.

Lippo:
No! No! Colombo! Christoforo Colomb'-- eesa firs' man discov' America -- ever'body knowa dat!

(Off stage left the voices of the children are heard)

Scene and Ensemble

No. 9

*This is Eva L. Bennett's original school song of Julia Richman High School in New York.

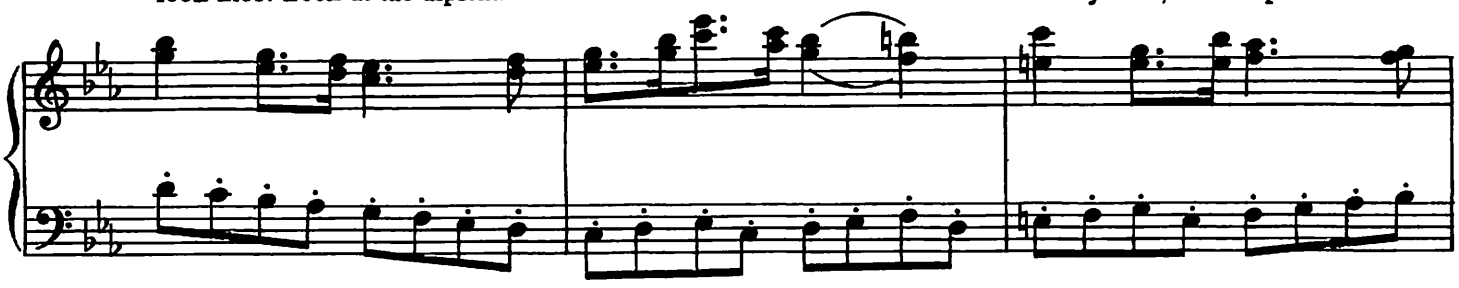

Jenny, Mrs. Hildebrand and children enter

Neighbors ad lib.: Hello! Hello Jenny! Hello girls! My but you look nice! Look at the diplomas!

Children ad lib.: Good evening! Hello everybody!

Mrs. H: What do you think, folks? Jenny won a . . .

Jenny: Oh, Ma . . . please!

Mrs. H: Why, you ought to be proud of it. Just think, she won the art prize and a scholarship at the art school.

Neighbors (ad lib.) She did? What do you know? How wonderful! Good girl, Jenny!

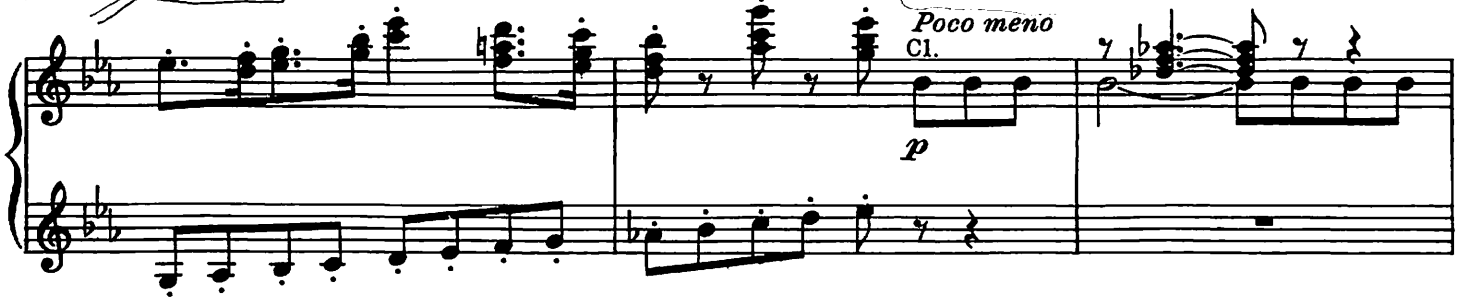

Jenny: Oh no, I can't, Ma.

Neighbors: Oh come on. Sure you can. Go ahead and tell us. Come on Jenny!

Poco meno

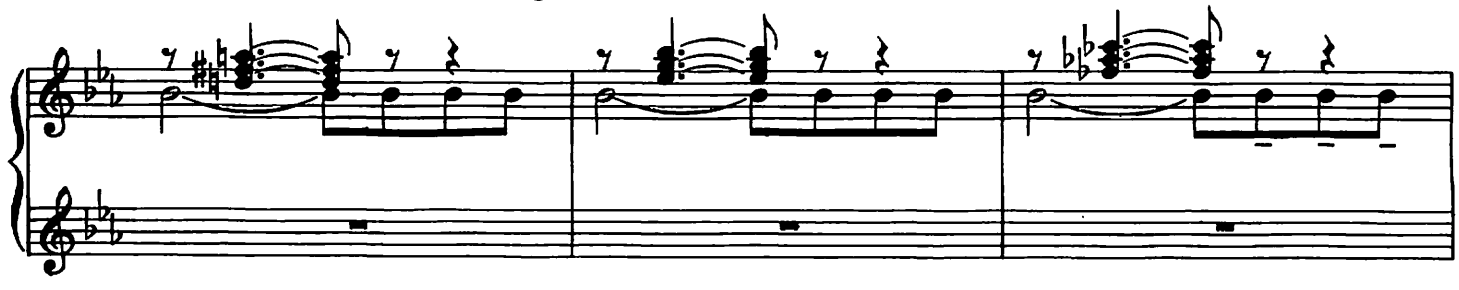

Cl.

p

Mrs. H: Go on. There's nothing to be bashful about.

Jenny: Well I . . .

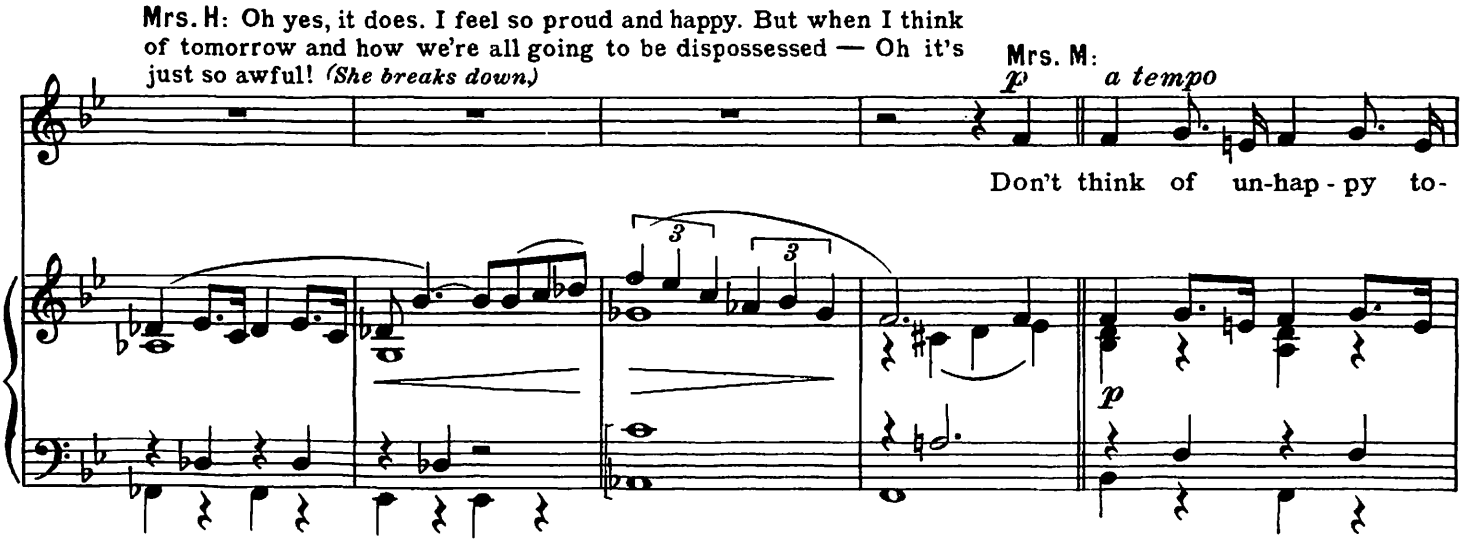

Jenny:
Moderato assai
Dear - est friends and neigh-bors, why should I feel this way? I
p don't know why I want to cry, It's been such a won - der - ful
poco rit.
Allegro non troppo day! We sat in our snow - y white dress - es, and
p Vl. col canto
Vc.
Str.
pp
then it was my turn to go. "Your di - plo - ma!" they said, and I took it, Wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a bow. I felt like it must feel in heav - en. What great - er joy was there to

p know? Then my moth - er gave me all these flow - ers, Wrapped in a
mf
rib - bon and tied in a bow. Hap - py me! Could it Hrp.
mf

be what I dared to hope_ in my heart . . . That
W. W.
I was the best in the schol-ar-ship test of the "Gil - li - han School of Applied Com-mer-cial Art"? I could hard - ly be-lieve when I heard it,___ "On
Mrs. H.
p
Charlie and Mary (lifting the trophy)
you we most proud - ly be - stow This here an - nu - al Gil - li - han

Jenny
tro - phy!" Wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a bow.
Mrs. F:
Mrs. M:
Good for you! Good for you! And for
Mrs. O:
Mrs. J:
Good for you! Good for you! And for Lippo
Henry
Good for you! Good for you! And for
Jones
Good for you! Good for you! And for
Olsen
Good for you! Good for you! And for you, and for you, and you too!

you, and for you, and you too!
Lippo:
Dot's fine Meesses Hildebran'. Makes you feel O. K. I betcha.
you, and for you, and you too!
you, and for you, and you too!
you, and for you, and you too!
poco meno
p

Mrs. H: Oh yes, it does. I feel so proud and happy. But when I think of tomorrow and how we're all going to be dispossessed — Oh it's just so awful! (She breaks down.)
Mrs. M: p
a tempo
Don't think of un-hap-py to-3 3
p mor - row. A bright - er day's com - ing, I know. And I'm W.W.

All sure you will find more good for - tune, Wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a Lippo
Jenny
bow. I'll bet Jen-ny'll find a rich hus - band. Oh,
p please, Mis - ter Fior - en - ti - no!
Olsen
Ev - 'ry pay— day he'll bring home a Brass

SOP. f
ALTO
All
Wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a bow.
TEN. f
BASS
mil - lion.
Mrs. O.
In a Good for p year you will hear
Vl.
She is knit - ting lit - tle pink
Mrs. F:
boots. And one hap - py day your grand - daugh - ter will say: "Oh—please, grand - ma - ma, let's go ride the chute-the-chutes." And— then you have Ma - ry and Mrs. M.
p

Charlie and Mary

Char - lie, Just think of how far they can go. We'll buy

Vl.

Brass

ma - ma a car and a gas - stove, Wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a

All

Cl.

bow.

Mrs. F. f

Mrs. M. Good for you! Good for you! And for

Mrs. O. f

Mrs. J. Good for you! Good for you! And for

Lippo f

Henry Good for you! Good for you, and for

Jones f

Good for you! Good for you, and for

Olsen f

Good for you! Good for you, and for

f

l.h.

you, and for you, and you too.
Mrs. J.
mf
you, and for you, and you too. A gas - stove is just what I
you, and for you, and you too.
you, and for you, and you too.
you, and for you, and you too.
p wished for___ With an ov - en that's not so damn slow.
Henry Sure the l.h.

All land - lord will send one for Christ-mas, Wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a Grace
p
Jones
bow. Oh see, it's a wish - ing star fall - ing, I'm W.W.
r. h.
p
Str.
wish - ing a wish full of dough.
Three Graduation Girls Wait! (They make a silent wish)
f
All Wrapped in a Bells
8
l.h.
pp Celesta
f mf
Girls
rib - bon and tied in a bow. School is done. Let's have
l.h.
mf

All fun, Let's kick out that old Mis - ter Blues. Come Cello grab Dolcband then let go cresc. molto
CARE FREE AND YOUNG on, take my hand, It is grand, it is grand to be young and be gay and be
l.h. cresc. molto
Buchanan (appears at door)
p
Oh
Mrs. F.
Mrs. M.
f sing - ing out the news that to - night we are hav - ing a par - ty.
Mrs. O.
Mrs. J.
sing - ing out the news that to - night we are hav - ing a par - ty.
Lippo
Henry
sing - ing out the news that to - night we are hav - ing a par - ty.
Jones
Olsen
sing - ing out the news that to - night we are hav - ing a par - ty.
p sub.

Please, please, won't you sing low!
Mrs. F.
p
Mrs. M.
To our street has come good news and
Mrs. O. p
Mrs. J.
To our street has come good news and Lippo
p
Henry
To our street has come good news and Jones
p
Olsen
To our street has come good news and
glo - ry, wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a bow.
glo - ry, wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a bow.
glo - ry, wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a bow.
glo - ry, wrapped in a rib - bon and tied in a bow.
3 3 mf

Sankey:
Say, go right ahead. Don't let me stop you.

Mrs. M:
Oh, that's all right. I guess we've danced about enough.

Sankey:
It's a pretty hot night for dancing.

Mrs. M:
Yes, it is.

Sankey:
Well, I got to be going along. Good night, folks.

The Others:
Good night. (Sankey exits right)

Mrs. H:
Up to bed, children.
(They enter into house)

Maurrant:
Who's that bird?

Mrs. M:
Why, that's Mr. Sankey. He's the milk collector.

Maurrant:
What's he hangin' around here for?

Mrs. M:
Well, he lives down the block somewhere.

Mrs. J:
He's just out gettin' his wife some ginger-ale.

Maurrant:
Yeah? Well, what I want to know is, why ain't Rose home yet?

Mrs. M:
I told you, Frank - -

Maurrant:
Well, what I'm tellin' you is, you oughta be lookin' after your kids, 'stead of doin' so much dancin'.
(Willie cries off stage)

Mrs. M:
Why, it's the first time I've danced in I don't know when. (Willie enters, sobbing, accompanied by Sam.) Why, Willie, what's the matter?

Sam:
He was having a fight, so I thought I'd better –

Mrs. M:
Oh, Willie, have you been fighting again?

Willie:
Well, dat big bum ain't gonna say dat to me.

Maurrant:
Who's been sayin' things to you?

Willie:
Dat big bum, Joe Connolly, dat's who! I'll knock his goddam eye out, next time.

Mrs. M:
Willie!

Maurrant:
Shut up your swearin', do you hear? . . or I'll give you somethin' to bawl for. What did he say to you, huh? What did he say to you?

Willie:
Ow! Leggo my arm!

Mrs. M:
What difference does it make what a little street loafer says?

Maurrant:
Nobody's askin' you! (To Willie) G'wan up to bed now! G'wan, beat it!

Mrs. M:
Wait, Willie, I'll go with you. Are you coming up, Frank?

Maurrant:
No, I ain't. I'm goin' around to Callahan's for a drink. An' if Rose ain't home when I get back, there's gonna be trouble.
(He exits at right)

Mrs. M:
Well, good night, all.

The Others:
Good night. (Mrs. Maurrant and Willie enter the house. Mrs. Fiorentino reappears at the window.)

Mrs. F:
Lippo!

Mrs. J
Say you missed it all!

Mrs. F:
Vat?

Mrs. J:
Well, they was dancin', see? An' who should come along but Sankey!

Mrs. F:
Tt!

Mrs. J:
Well, there was the three o' them . . . Mr. Maurrant lookin' at Sankey, as if he was ready to kill him; an' Mrs. Maurrant as white as a sheet; an' Sankey as innocent as the babe unborn.

Mrs. F:
Did he say something?

Mrs. J:
No, not till after Sankey was gone. Then he wanted to know who he was an' what he was doin' there. "He's the milk collector", she said.

Mrs. F:
It's just awful!

Mrs. J:
Oh, an' then Willie comes home.

Lippo:
Da boy tella 'eem 'is mamma ees a whore, and Weelie leek 'im!

Mrs. J:
Well, an' what else is she?

Sam:
Stop it! Stop it! Can't you let her alone? Have you no hearts? Why do you tear her to pieces like a pack of wolves? It's cruel.
(He rushes off right)

Lippo:
Wotsa matter you?

Mrs. J:
Well, listen to him, will you? He must be goin' off his nut, too.

Lippo:
'Esa reads too mucha book. Ees bad for you.

Mrs. F:
I think he is loving the girl.

Mrs. J:
Yeah? Well, that's all the Maurrants need is to have their daughter get hooked up wit' him. It's a fine house to be livin' in, ain't it, between the Maurrants upstairs an' that screwy bunch down here. (She looks at Jones) Well, come on up stairs.

Jones:
No, I think I'll go around to Callahan's and shoot a little pool. (He exits right)

Mrs. J:
Him and his pool! Tomorrow he won't be fit to work again. Well, good night. (She goes into the house)

Mrs. F:
Lippo:
Good night, Mrs. Jones.

Lippo:
Margherita, eef I ever ketcha you sleepin' wit' da meelkman, ahm gonna breaka your neck.
(Laughs and goes into house)

Mrs. F:
Stop your foolishness, Lippo, and come to bed.
(She leaves the window. Sam comes on slowly at right, looks at the house despairingly)

Arioso

No. 10

Moderato assai (♩= 69)
Solo Vl.
(dolce)
Cl., Cel., Hrp.
(secco)
2. Vl.
Vla.
p Vc.
Cb.
Cor.
Sam:
p
At night when ev-'ry-thing is qui-et
This old house seems to breathe a sigh.
Some-times I hear a neigh-bor cresc. poco
cresc. poco

a poco
snor - ing,
Some-times I hear a ba - by cry.
W. W.
Trp.
mf
Trb.
a poco
f
Some-times I hear a stair-case creak - ing,
Some-times a dis-tant tel - e - ff
phone.
p
Then the qui - et set - tles Str., W. W., Cel.
Trp.
Trb.
Cor.
ff
dim.
p down a-gain ...
pp
The house and I are all a - lone.
rit.
pp Vls.
Vla.
Vc.

L'istesso tempo
with soft expression

p

Lone - - ly house, lone - - ly me!

Cl.

p

p

Fun-ny - - with so man-y neigh - bors, How lone - ly it can

Ob. col canto

p

Cor.
Vc.

mf

be! Oh lone - ly street! Lone - - ly

Cl. 1. Vl.

mf

Vc.

p pp poco rall.

a tempo

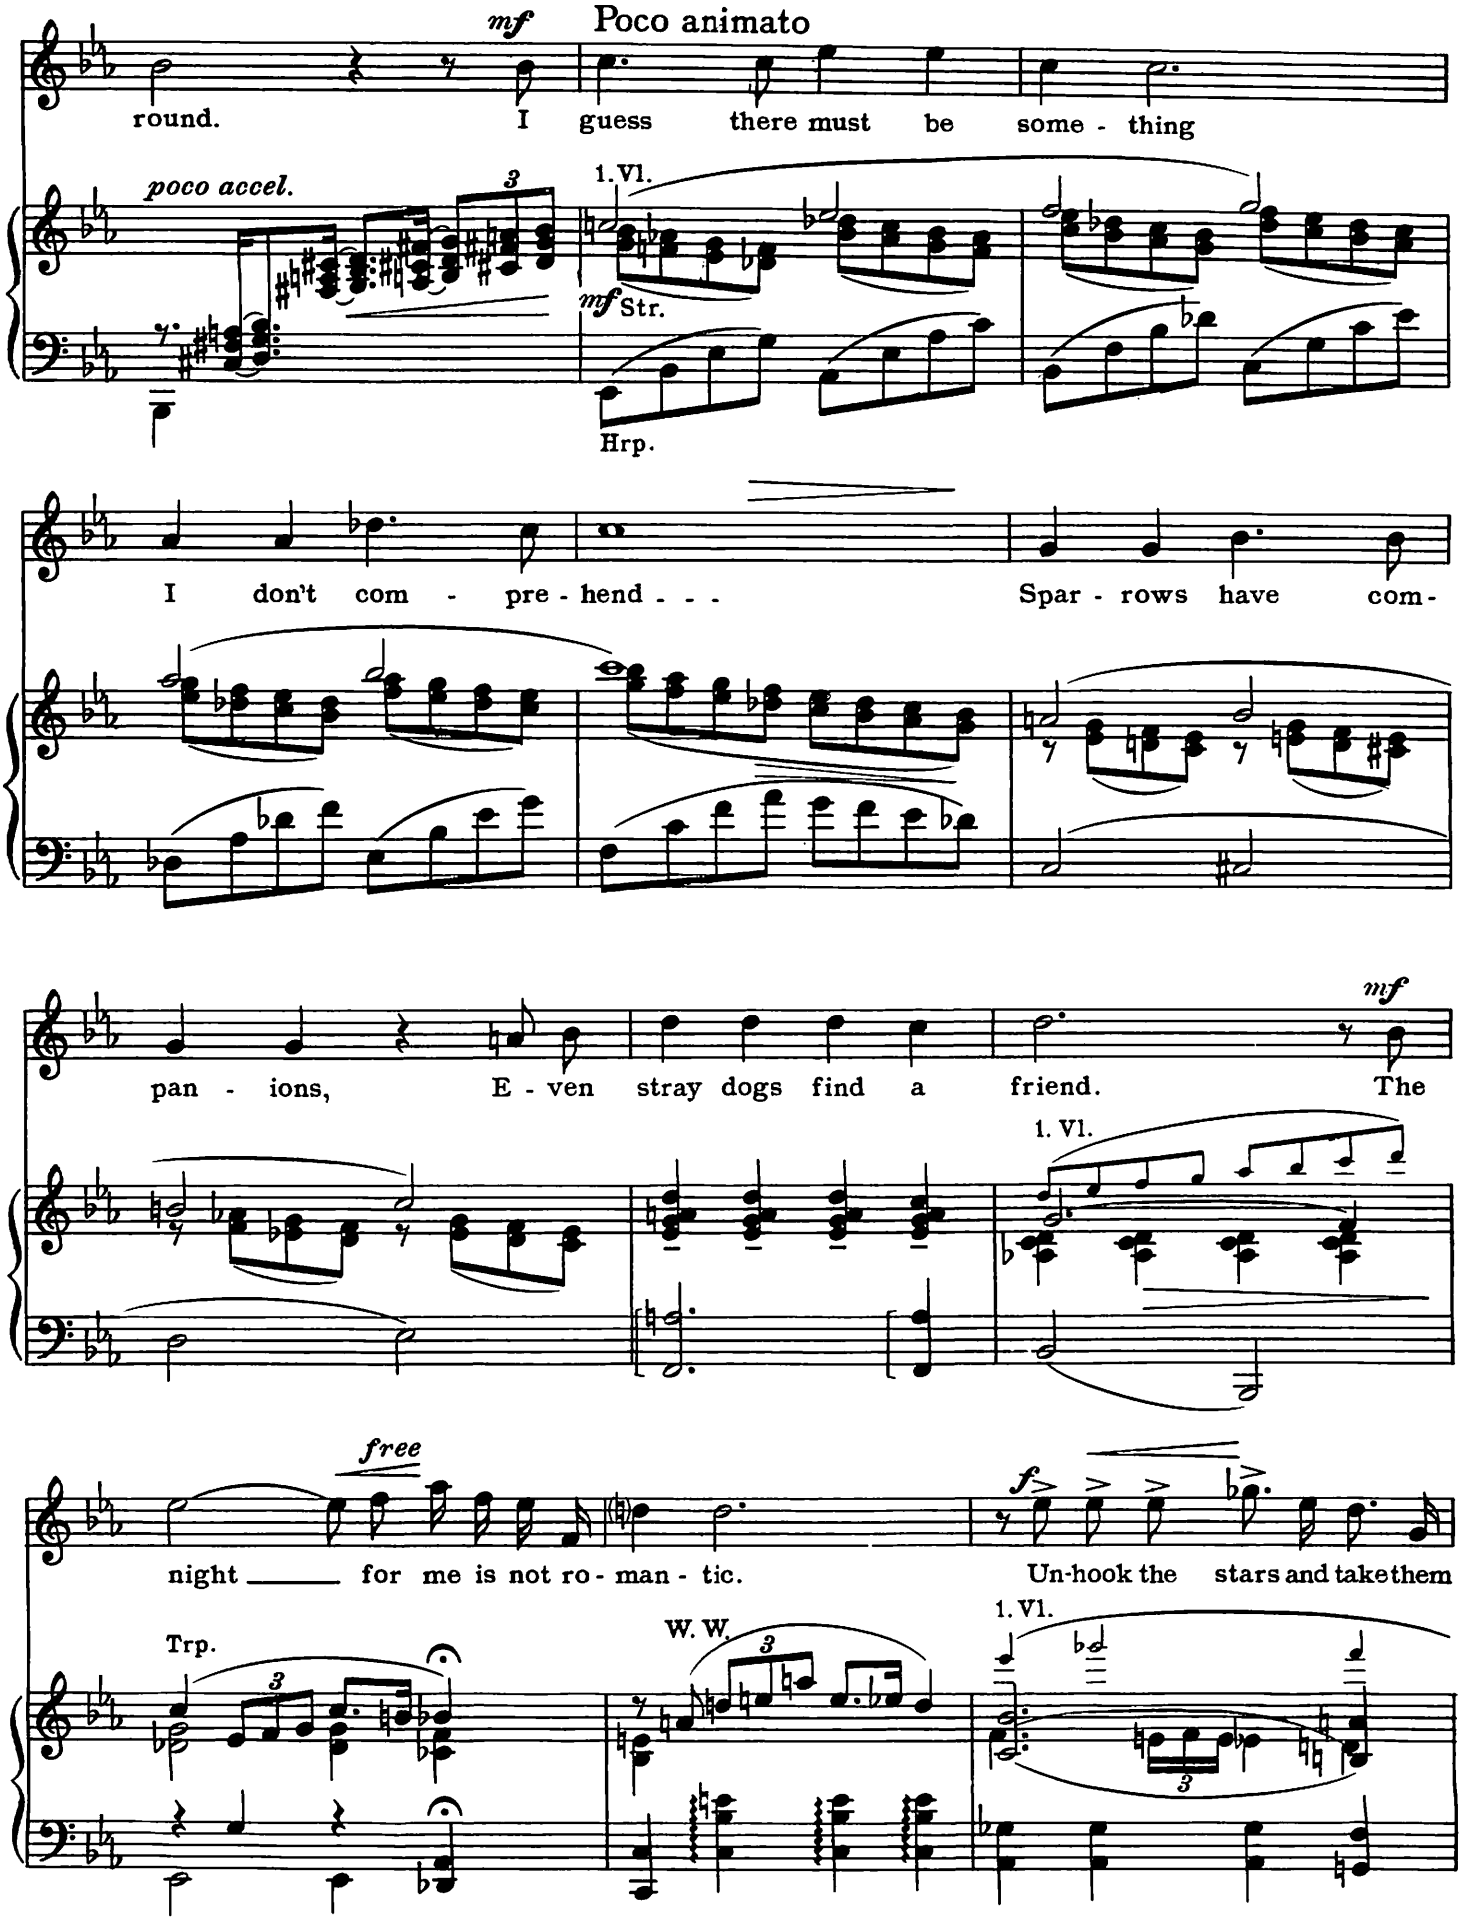

town! Fun-ny - - you can be so lone - ly with all these folks a -

Fl. col canto

p

pp poco rall.

a tempo

mf Poco animato round. I guess there must be some - thing poco accel.
1. Vl.
mf Str.
Hrp.
I don't com - pre - hend - - - Spar - rows have com - pan - ions, E - ven stray dogs find a friend. The mf
1. Vl.
free night ___ for me is not ro - man - tic. Un-hook the stars and take them
f Trp.
W. W.
1. Vl.

Sam goes into the house. A girl appears at the left, glancing apprehensively over her shoulder at a man who is walking down the street behind her. They cross the stage and exit at right. Mrs. Fiorentino reappears at her window. Rose and Easter enter from the left.

Rose:
This is where I live, Mr. Easter.

Mrs. F: (At window)
Good evening, Miss Maurrant.

Rose:
Oh, good evening, Mrs. Fiorentino.

(Mrs. Fiorentino looks at them for a moment, then pulls down the shade and turns out the lights)

Rose:
Well, good night, Mr. Easter. I've had a lovely time.

Easter:
Why, wait a minute! I've hardly had a chance to talk to you.

Rose:
We've been doing nothing but talking since six o'clock.

Easter:
No, we haven't. We've been eating and dancing. (Putting his arm around her) Rose - - -!

Rose:
Please don't, Mr. Easter. There's somebody coming.

(She frees herself as Mrs. Olsen comes up the cellar steps, with a pail filled with wastepaper.)

Mrs. O:
Goot evening, Miss Maurrant.

Rose:
Good evening, Mrs. Olsen. How's the baby?

Mrs. O: (Putting the pail on the sidewalk)
She vas cryin' all the time.

Rose:
Oh, the poor little thing! What a shame! (As Mrs. Olsen goes down the steps again) Good night, Mrs. Olsen.

Mrs. O:
Goot night, Miss Maurrant.

Rose:
She's got the cutest little baby you ever saw.

Easter:
Yeah? That's great. Rose - - I'm crazy about you.

Rose:
Please let me go now, it's awfully late and my father doesn't like it when I - -

Easter:
Kiss me good night.

Rose:
No.

Easter:
Why not, hm? Just one kiss.

Rose:
No.

Easter:
Yes.

(He takes her in his arms and kisses her)

Rose:
It wasn't nice of you to do that.

Easter:
I'm clean off my nut about you.

Rose:
You shouldn't keep looking at me, at the office. The other girls are beginning to pass hints about it.

Easter:
Is that a fact? I guess I just can't keep my eyes off you. Well, we've got to do something about it.

Rose:
I guess the only thing for me to do is look for another job.

Easter:
That's just what I've been thinking, too. A girl like you has got no business to be working all day in a real estate office. Why, you ought to be on the stage.

Scene and Song

No. 11

Easter

with an insinuating, tempting rhythm.

Would - n't you like to be on Broad - way And go

Cl.

p

pizz.

Brass

danc - ing at the Zan - zi - bar? And have your-self an up-and-com-ing boy friend Who can make an - y course in par? Hey, kid?

Vl. Vla.

poco rit.

Bcl.

pp

a tempo

Would - n't you like to be on Broad - way And wear some Bergdorf Good-man clothes?

Red al - li - ga - tor shoes, a bright gold an - klet, and sev - en - teen doz - en ny - lon hose?
poco rit.
Hey kid?
Cl.
Str.
a tempo
Would - n't you like to see your name Up in the
p
bright lights, In the white lights that gleam and glow?
Would-n't you like to be the lead-ing
Cl.

la - dy In my heart, But al - so in some Broad-way show? — Cl.
f ffz
Brass
Would - n't you like some per - son - al pro - mo - tion To a niche on the Great White Way? Would-n't you? Hey kid?
cresc.
spoken (softly)
How a - bout it? Hey kid? Would - n't you like to be on Broad - (smoothly) (almost whispered) way? It's just a few blocks o - ver, I know the way. Hey kid? It's Trp.

p Cl.
(free)
3 Rose: Look out!
ea - sy. I'll show you the way.
pp
(Mrs. Jones enters with dog)
Più mosso
Mrs. Jones:
Oh, good evenin'.
Rose: Good evening, Mrs. Jones. It's been a terrible Str. l.h.
fp
day, hasn't it?
Cl.
Fg.
Mrs. Jones: Yeah, awful. I think your father's been kinda worried about you.
pp Str. pizz.
Rose: Oh, has he?
Mrs. J. Yeah. Well, I gotta give Queenie her exercise. Good night. (goes off)
Rose: Good night, Mrs. Jones. I'll soon have all the neighbors talking about me.
Easter: What can they say, huh?

Tempo I°

Easter: That they saw you saying good night to somebody on the front doorstep?

Rose: They can say worse than that--

Cl.

pp

Fg.
Vc.

--and what's more, they will too!

Easter: Well, if you'll just listen to what I'm telling you, you won't have to worry about any of them.

Trp.
Trb.

Wouldn't you like to get away from this crummy old street?

Wouldn't you like to have a smart little place of your own?

a tempo

Would-n't you like to have two

rit. - - - - - -

Cor.

a tempo

Str. col canto

mf

maids

Scrubbing your shoulder blades in a bubble bath's sweet per-fume?

Can't you hear the door-man at the stage door: "Here's your Cl. Str.
car!" When we leave your dress - ing room?
sfz
Vl.
f
Would - n't you like to have the crowds ap - plaud you At your Vl.
W.W. p
Fg.
first night on the Great White Way? Would-n't you? Hey, kid?
W.W.
Corni
Trb.

Easter: But I want you to be. Why think of all the good times we could have, you with a little apartment and all. And maybe we could get us a little car.

Rose: And what about your wife?

Easter: The way I figure it, she doesn't have to know anything about it.

Rose: I don't think it's the way I'd want things to be.

Cavatina and Scene

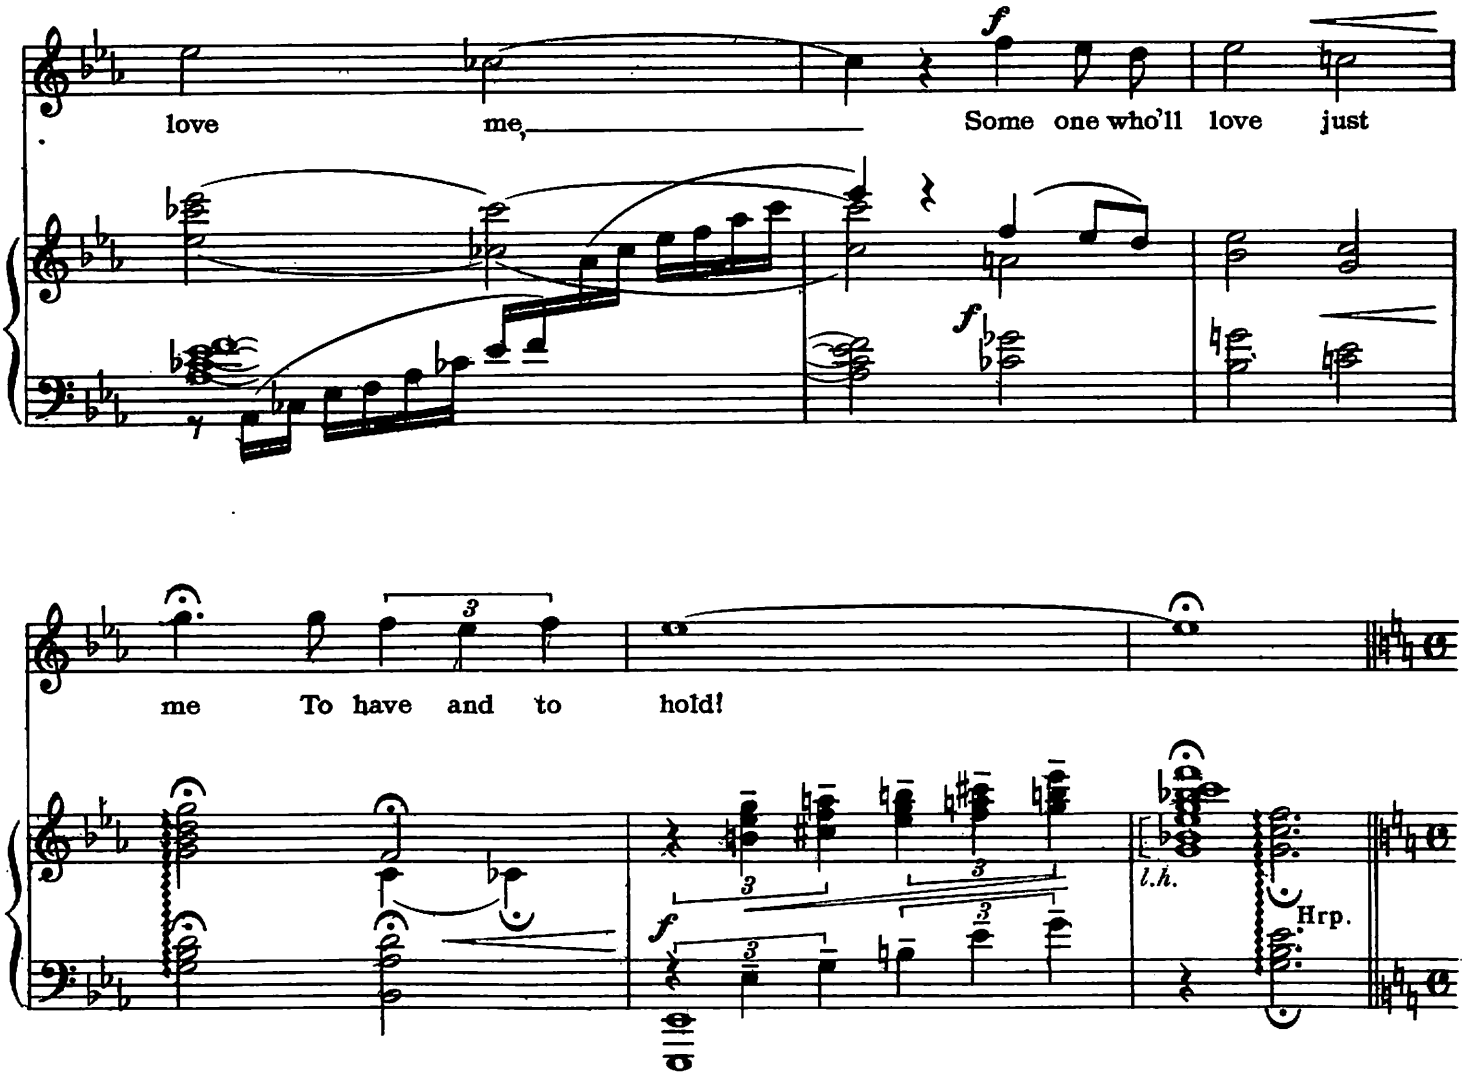

No. 12

sa-bles might add to my charms, But if some-one I don't care for would buy them I'd rit.
Moderato
with warm expression rath-er have two lov-ing arms! What good would the Vl.
Vla.
espr.
Trb.
Trp.
Str.
molto espr.
moon be Un-less the right one shared its beams? What good would dreams-come-true be If love was-n't 3 Cl.
Fl.

in those dreams? And a prim - rose path
Cl. col canto
What would be the fun Of walk - ing down a path like that with - out the right one?
What good would the night be Un - less the p
Vc.

right lips whis - per low: Kiss me, oh. dar - ling, kiss me, 3
While ev' - ning stars still glow? No, it won't be a Fl.
molto espr.
prim - rose path for me, No, it won't be dia - monds or Cor.
mf
gold, But may be there will be Some-one who'll
mf

(As the song finishes, a sudden yell of pain is heard from upstairs.)

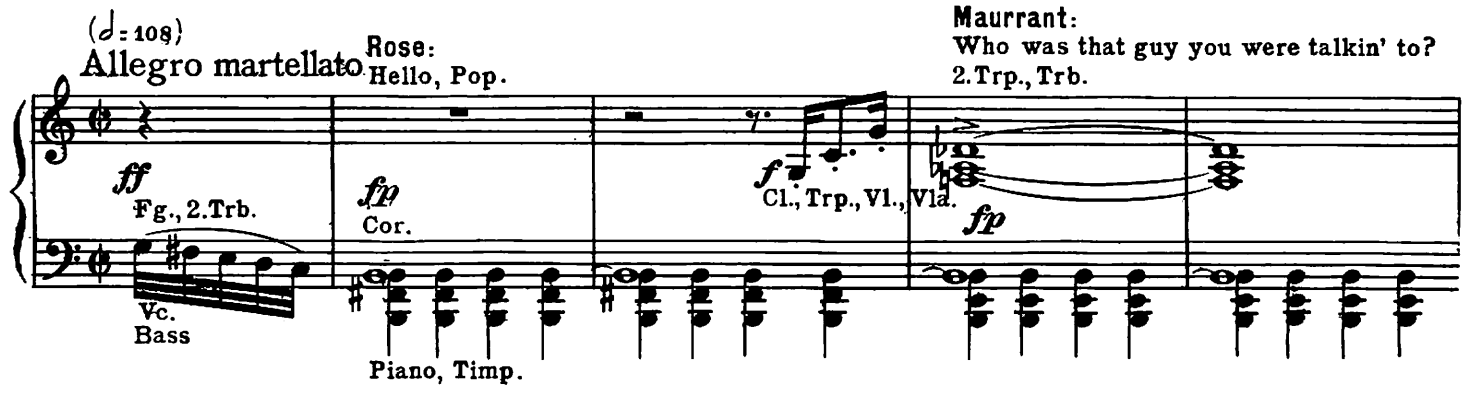

Easter:
My God, what's that . . . a murder?

Rose:
It must be poor Mrs. Buchanan. She's expecting a baby. Good night, Mr. Easter.

Easter:
But, Rose . . .

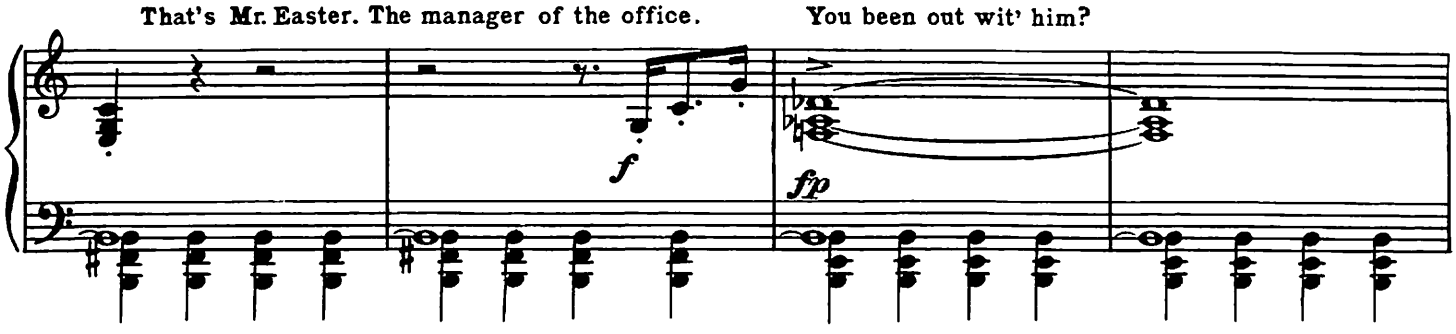

Rose:
Look, here's my father. There'll only be an argument if he sees you.

Easter: (Shakes hands)
All right, I'll go. Good night. See you tomorrow.
(Easter exits at left, as Maurrant enters at right)

Rose:
That's Mr. Easter. The manager of the office.

Maurrant:
You been out wit' him?

Rose:
Well, you see, Pop, the office is closed tomorrow, on account of Mr. Gordon's funeral. So I had to stay late to get out some letters and after that we went to dinner.

Maurrant:
This is a hell of a time to be gettin' home from dinner.

Meno mosso
Trp., Trb.

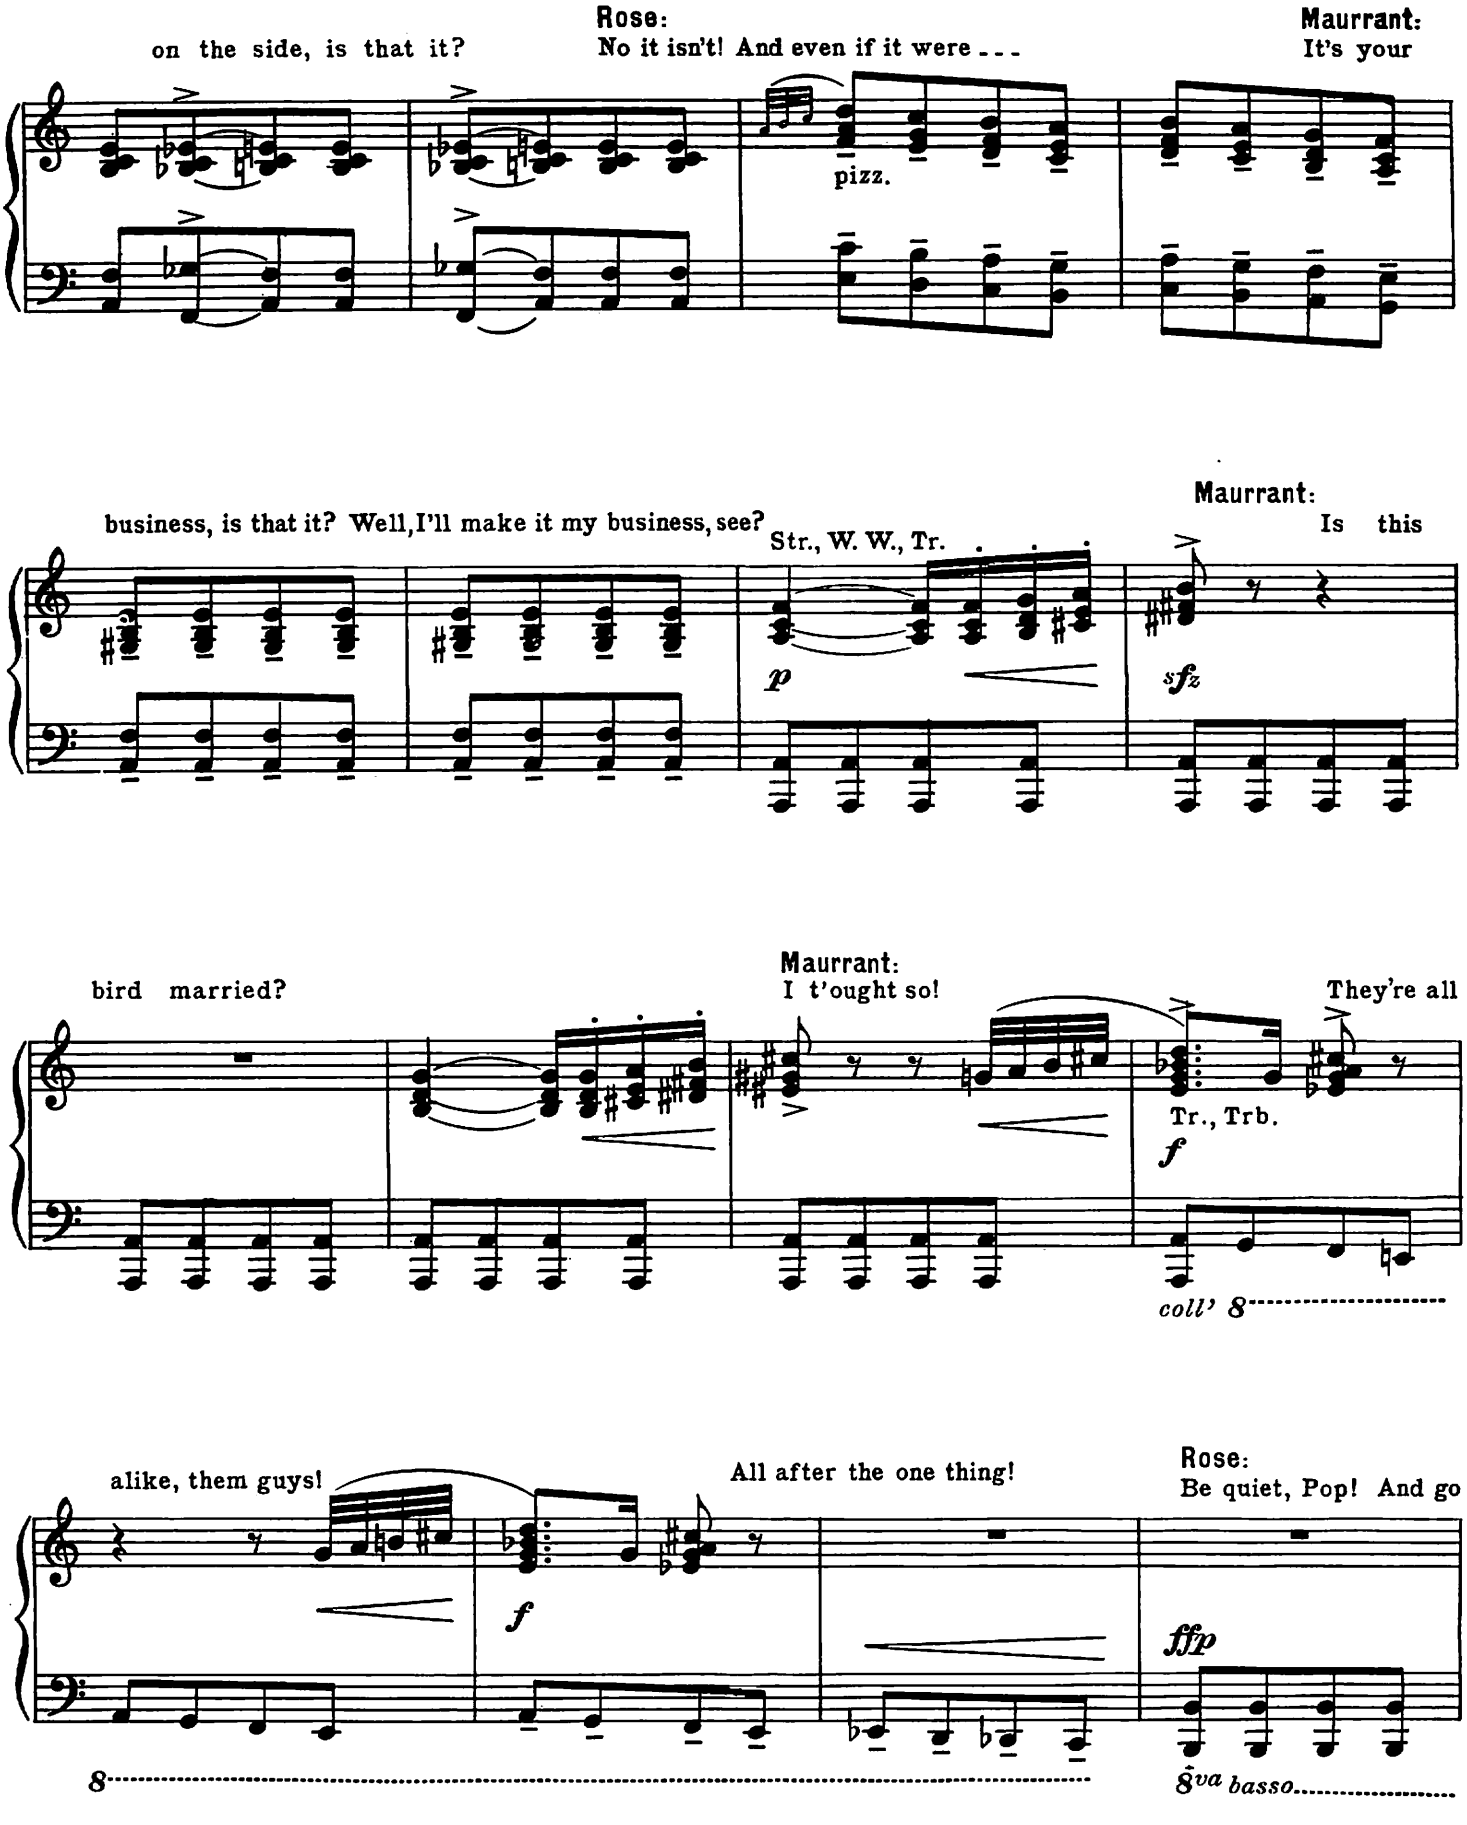

Rose: Well, we danced afterwards.

Maurrant: Oh you danced, huh? With a little neckin'

Allegro molto marcato (♩ = 108)

on the side, is that it?
Rose:
No it isn't! And even if it were . . .
Maurrant:
It's your
pizz.
business, is that it? Well, I'll make it my business, see?
Str., W. W., Tr.
Maurrant: Is this p
sfz
bird married?
Maurrant:
I t'ought so!
They're all
Tr., Trb.
f coll' 8
alike, them guys!
All after the one thing!
Rose:
Be quiet, Pop! And go
f ffp
8 8va basso

upstairs before you wake everybody up!

Maurrant:
Aren't you coming up?

Cl.
Tr.
1.Vl. f

fp

8va basso

Rose:
Not for a while. I want to get a breath of air before I go up to that hot room.

f

8va basso

Maurrant: Well, just get this straight. No married man ain't gonna

p

8va basso

Rose: (looks after him) You just wait and see, some day I will run off with some one.

Andante non troppo

come nosin' around my family, get me? (He enters the house.)

2 Solo Violins

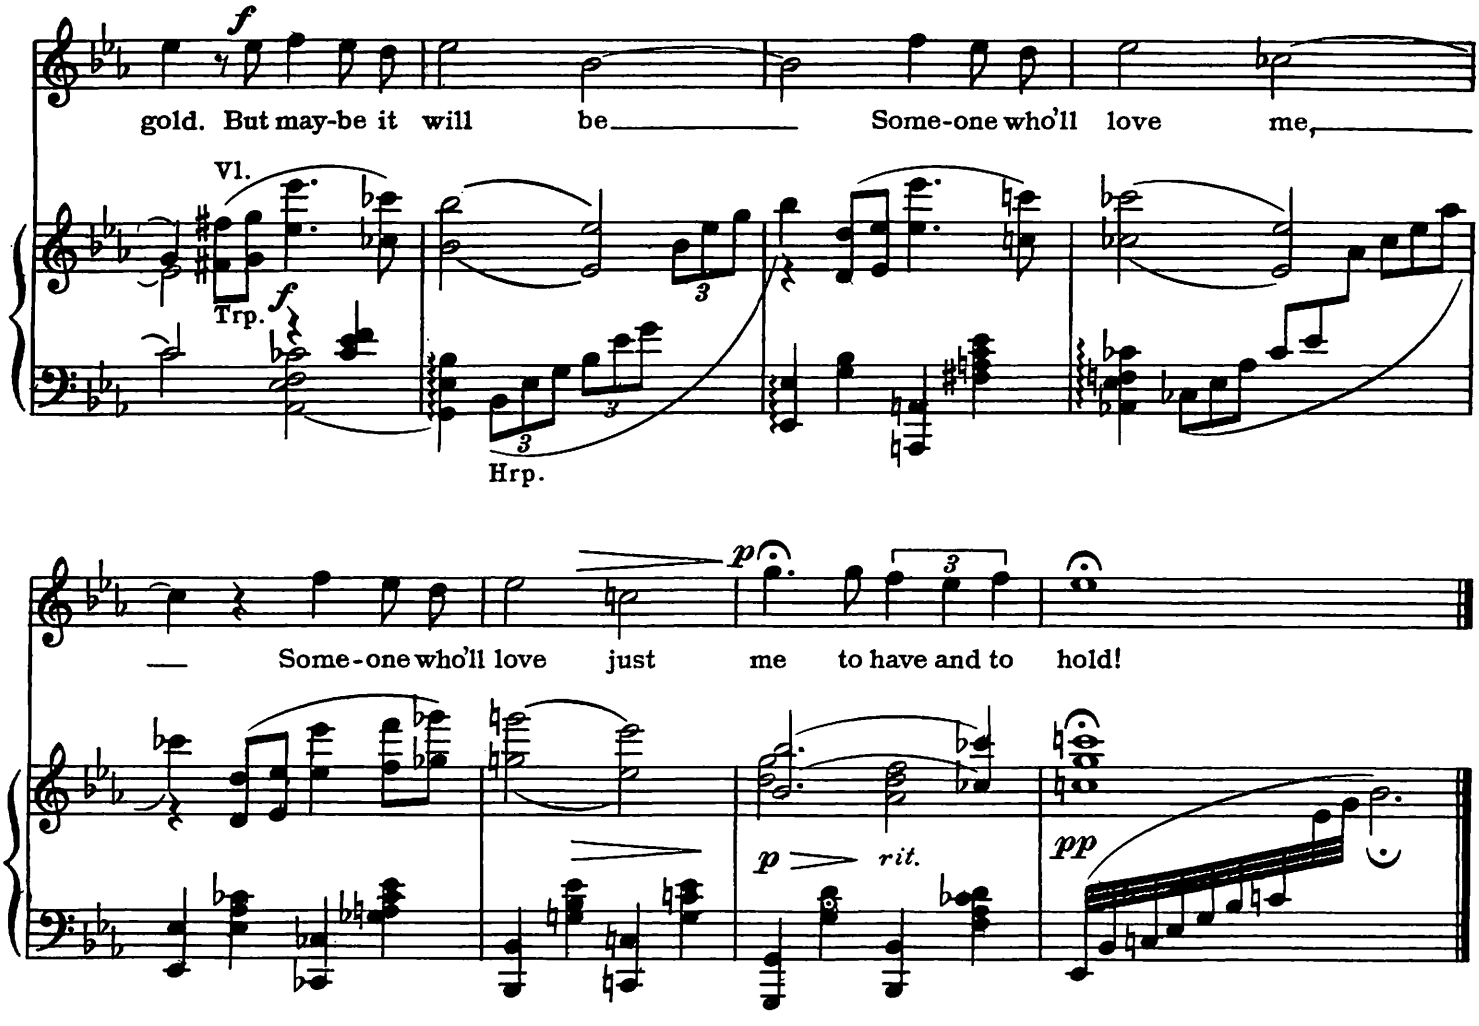

p espr.

8va basso

Rose:
Oh, what's the use. Maybe I should say yes to Mr. Easter, and get out of this. Still, I don't know . . .

Of walk-ing down a path like that with-out the right one?
p
What good would the night be Un-less the right lips whis-per Vl.
Trp.
p low: Kiss me, oh dar-ling, kiss me, While ev'-ning stars still glow?
Fl.
pp
mf
No, it won't be a prim-rose path for me, No, it won't be dia-monds or Vc.
Vla.
Vc.
espr.
mf

(Buchanan rushes out of the house)

Buchanan:
I think the baby's coming.

Rose:
Can I do anything, Mr. Buchanan?

Buchanan:
Well, if you wouldn't mind phoning the doctor. Here's his number, and the other number is her sister. And here's two nickels. (A scream from upstairs) Just listen to her!

Rose:
You go right on back! And stop on the way and ask my mother to go up with you.

Buchanan:
All right, I will!
(He dashes into the house. Mae and Dick appear)

Mae:
Hello, Rose. What's your hurry?

Rose: (As she hurries off)
It's Mrs. Buchanan. I've got to phone to the doctor.

Dick:
Say, who's your little friend?

Mae:
Oh, that's Rose Maurrant. She lives in the house.

Dick:
She's kinda cute, ain't she?

Mae:
Say, accordin' to you, anythin' in a skirt is kinda cute . . . providin' the skirt is short enough.

Dick:
Yeah, but they ain't any of 'em as cute as you, Mae.

Mae:
Yeah? Go on, tell me some more.

Dick:
Honest, I mean it. How 'bout a little kiss? (He puts his arms around her and plants a long kiss upon her lips. She submits in a bored way.) You might show a little en-thoo-siasm.

Mae:
Say, you seem to think I oughta hang out a flag every time some jerk decides to wipe off his mouth on me.

Dick:
Aw, don't be that way, sugar. I can't take it!

Mae:
No kiddin'!

Dick:
No, this is on the square. Nobody ever had me jumpin' t'roo hoops, like you do.

Song, Scene and Dance

No. 13

faced, star - ry - eyed, I'm gon - na bust my vest with pride. I nev - er lived, Ba - by, not at all 'til I met
mf
you. At six o - clock I ex -
W.W.
Tutti
Cor.
f Brass
mf
pect your call, At sev - en o - clock I am in the hall, At eight o - clock_ if you don't come by,__ By nine o - clock, Ba -

- by, I die! Moon - faced,__ star - ry - eyed,__ Str.
8
Cl.
Cor.
Cook - ing with gas when I'm by your side.__ I swear__ my heart's no - where with-out you.

Dick
Come on, I feel like steppin'!

Mae:
Yeah? Well, not me! I been hippety hoppin' on my dogs all night.

pp (Piano Solo)

Dick: (forcing her into a dance)
Well, what the hell? You only live once.

Mae:
The way I feel, that's twice too often.

Dick:
Why, you're losin' your control! Come on, get it over the plate!

pp

Mae:
Say, leggo, will you? I'm pooped, I'm telling you! (She breaks away from him.)

8

p

Dick:
I guess the trouble wit you is you need another little shot.

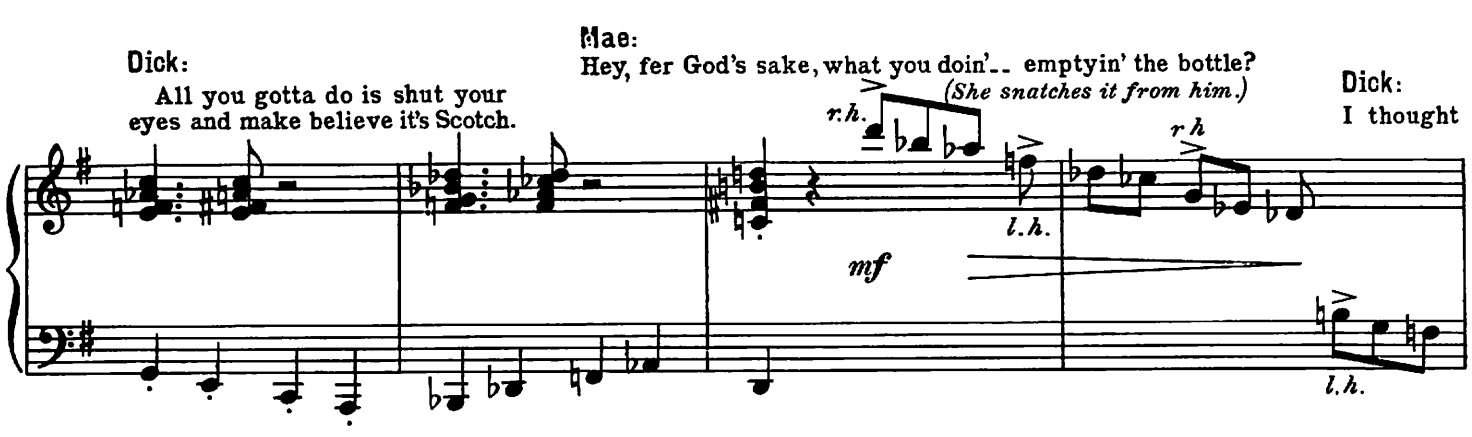

Mae: Nope! I can't swaller any more o' that rotten gin.

Dick:
All you gotta do is shut your eyes and make believe it's Scotch.

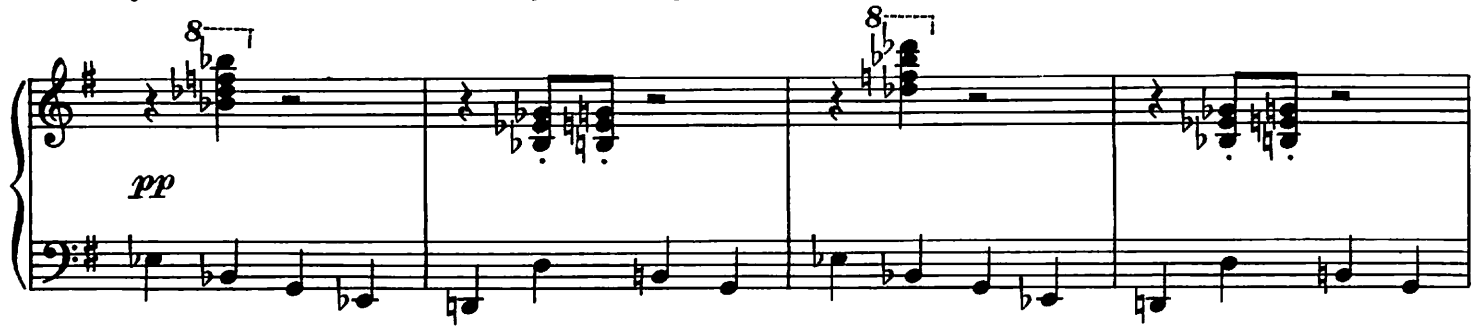

Mae:
Hey, fer God's sake, what you doin'-- emptyin' the bottle? (She snatches it from him.)

Dick:
I thought you didn't want none.

Mae:
Can't you take a joke? (She drains the bottle.)

Dick:
Watch your step, baby, or you're li'ble to go right up in a puff o' smoke.

Mae:
Phew! Boy! I feel like a t'ree alarm fire! Say, what de hell do dey make dat stuff out of?
Dick: T'ree parts high octane, one part atom bomb.
Mae:
Hiya, he-man? Where you been all my life?
Mae:
Moon - faced,_ star - ry - eyed,_ You're whis - ky straight with Cl.
Fg.
p
pizz.
beer on the side._ Can it be true that I'm loved by a Tar-zan like
W. W.
Str.

you?
Moon - faced,
Tr.
Trb.
f Cl.
p star - ry - eyed
You took my heart on a bug - gy ride.
I don't know how I got ev - er a - long with-out you.
Tutti
3
f
At six o - clock I'm get - tin' up steam, At Str.
p
Cor.

sev-en o'-clock, I'm on the beam, At eight o'-clock, if the knob don't turn, By nine o'-clock, Ba - by, I burn. Moon - faced, star-ry-eyed, Brass
W.W. mf
Cl.
p Float - ing on clouds when I'm by your side I swear my Mae: Come on, step it up! Dick: Well, why didn't you say so?
heart's no-where with-out you.
Piano, Hrp.
Tutti
f
l.h.
Brass
l.h. r.h.

Dance

Molto agitato

W.W.

f

Brass

Piano

ff

f

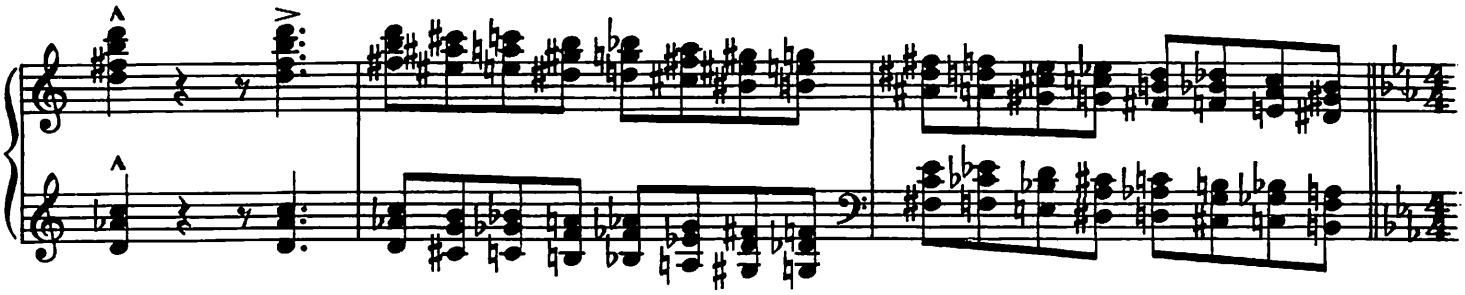

8

W.W.

f

cresc.

8 ff
f
f
cresc.
8 8 8 molto marc.
ff

(Blues)

Tempo Io
mf
Vc., Cb. pizz.
Piano
Cor. 2.Vl., Vla.
r.h.
1. Vl., Trb.
Trp., Cl.
f 5
cresc.

ff Tutti
ff
l.h.
Mae: Kiss me, kid!
ff
gliss.
fff

Dick:
I'll say. (He kisses her, then takes her arm) Come on!

Mae:
Wait a minute! Where y' goin'?

Dick:
Come on, I'm tellin' ya! Fred Hennessy gimme de key to his apartment. Dere won't be nobody dere.

Mae:
I oughta go home. Oh, baby, nail down dat sidewalk, will ya?

Dick:
Come on!

Mae:
Sweet papa! (She kisses him noisily, as Rose appears at the left) Hello Rose. How's de milkman?

Dick: (To Rose)
Goo' night, sweetheart!
(He and Mae exit.)

Buchanan's Voice:
Miss Maurrant, did you get them?

Rose:
Yes, the doctor will be here right away. And Mrs. Thomas said it would take her about an hour.

Buchanan's Voice:
She's got terrible pains. Your mother's up here with her. I think she's calling me.
(Meanwhile, Vincent Jones has entered.)

Vincent:
Hello, Rosie.

Rose:
Good evening.

Vincent: (Blocking the way.)
What's your hurry?

Rose:
It's late.

Vincent:
You don' wanna go to bed yet. Come on, I'll take you for a ride in me hack.
(He puts his arm around her. Sam appears at the window.)

Rose: (Struggling to escape)
Please let me pass.

Vincent:
You got a lot o' stren'th, ain't you? Say, do you know you're gettin' fat?
(He passes his hand over her body.)

Rose:
Let me go, you big tough!

Sam:
Take your hands off her!
(He climbs out of the window, Vincent turns, in surprise, one arm still around Rose.)

Vincent:
Well, look who's here! What de hell do you want?

Sam:
I said take your hands off her.
(He wrenches Vincent's arm away from Rose.)

Vincent:
Oh, so that's the way you feel about it, is it?
(He hauls off and strikes Sam a vicious blow that sends him sprawling on the sidewalk.)

Rose: (Coming between them, with clenched fists.)
You let him alone or I'll call a policeman.

Vincent:
Gee, don't frighten me like dat, I got a weak heart! (As Mrs. Jones enters.) Hello, Ma!

Mrs. J:
Hello, Vincent. What's goin' on here?
(Sam picks himself up and dusts off his clothes.)

Vincent:
Oh, jus' a little frien'ly argument. Tarzan don't like me to say good evenin' to his girl frien'.

Mrs. J:
Come on upstairs, Vincent. I saved some stew for you.

Vincent:
All right, I'm comin'. (To Rose) Good night, dearie. Some sheik you picked out for yourself.
(He enters the house)

Mrs. J:
You seem to have plenty of admirers, Miss Maurrant. But I guess you come by it natural.
(She enters house.)

Sam:
That dirty bum! I'd like to kill him!

Rose:
It's all right, Sam. Why should you pay any attention to a big tough like that? He's nothing but a loafer, you know that.

Sam:
I guess you think I'm just a coward.

Rose:
Why, because he happens to be bigger and stronger than you are? You know he's not worth your little finger. Ten years from now, he'll still be driving a taxi and you— why, you'll be so far above him, you won't even remember he's alive.

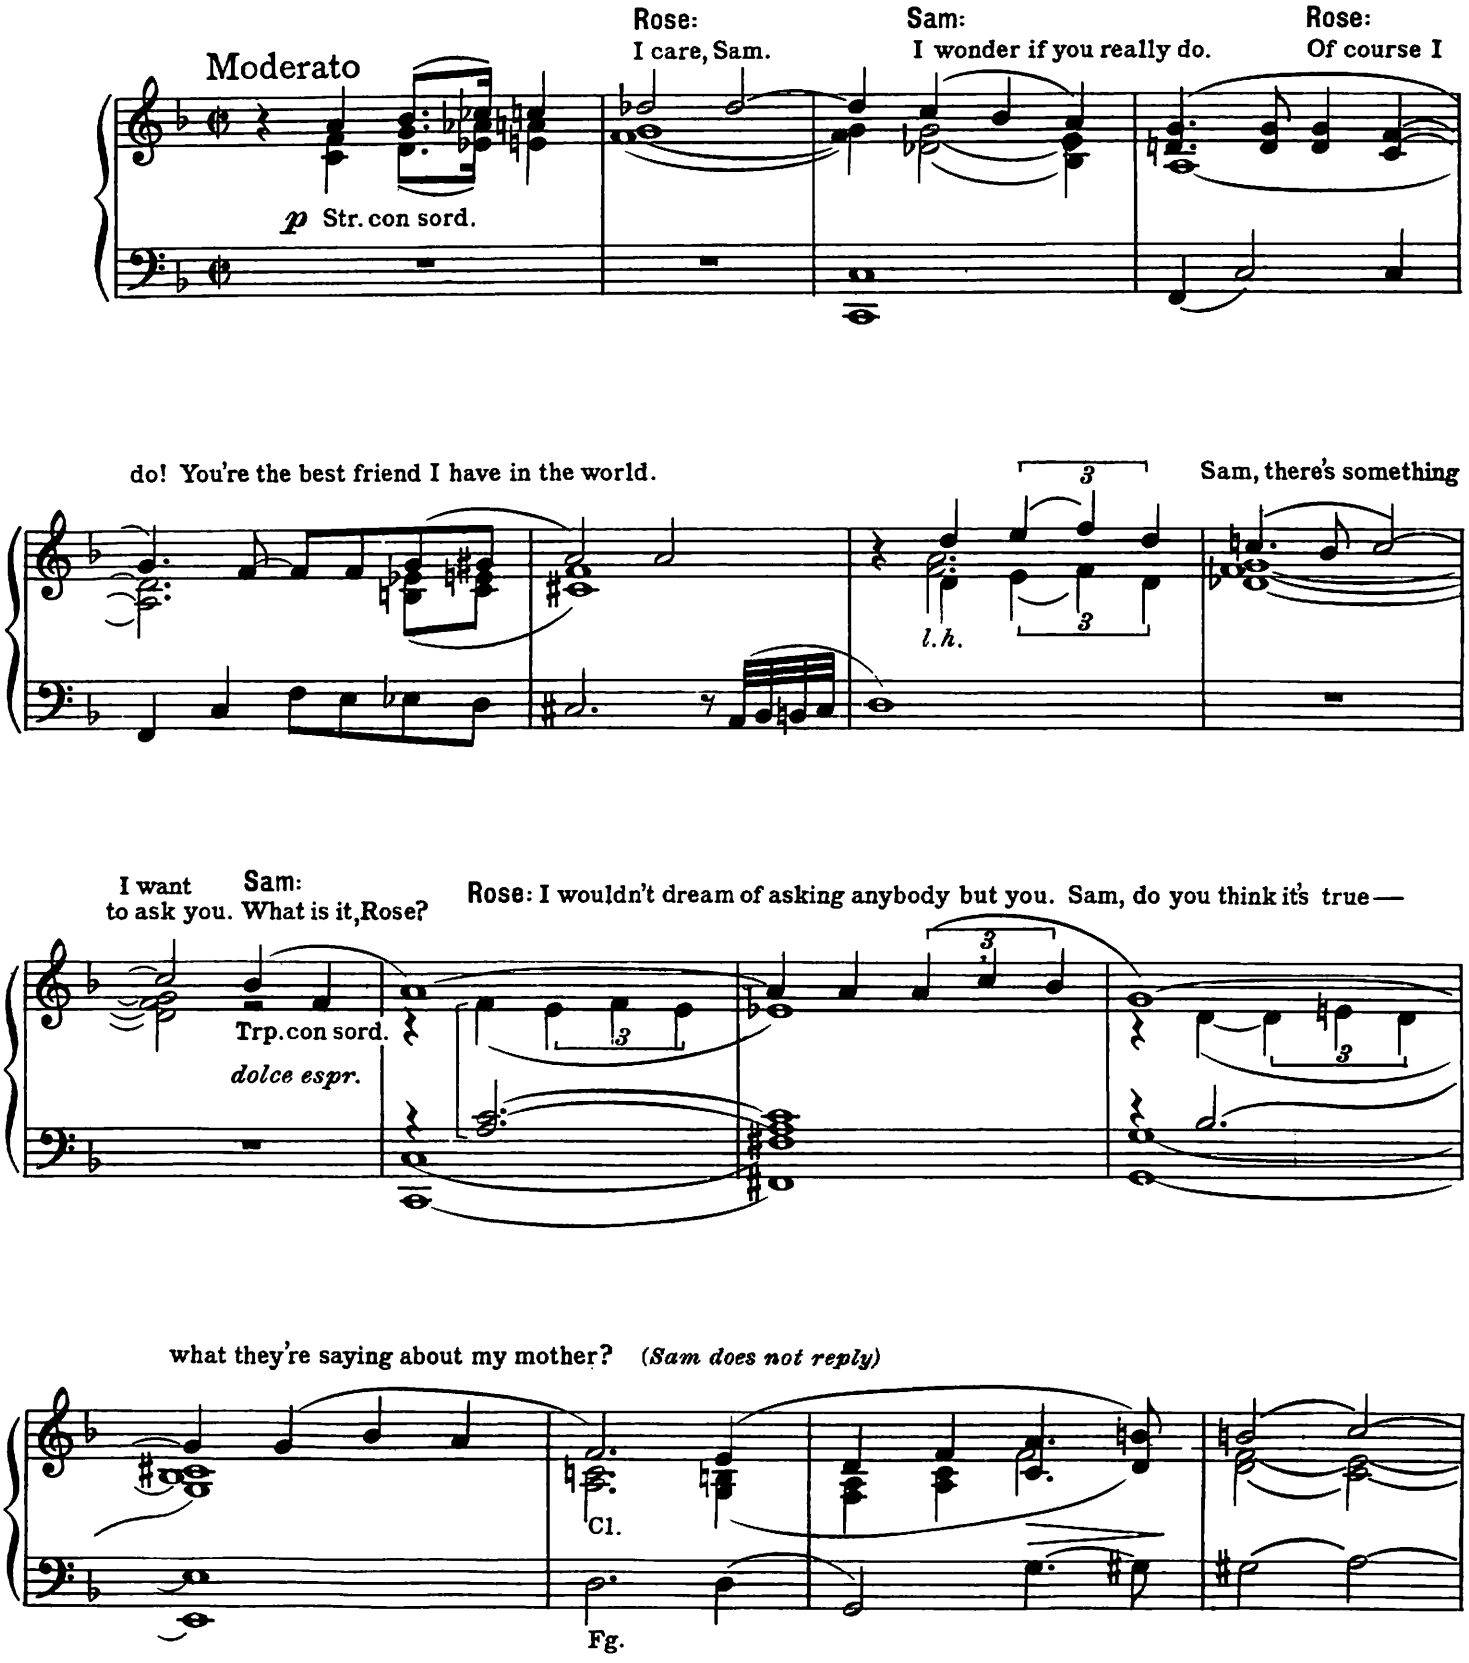

Sam:
I'll never get anywhere.

Rose:
Why, of course you will! A boy with your brains. Graduating from college with honors and all that!

Sam:
What good does it do you when nobody ever looks at you—when nobody cares whether you exist or not?

Duet and Finaletto

No. 14

Rose: I guess it is, isn't it?

Sam: They were talking here, before . . . . I couldn't stand it any more. Oh God, why do we go on living in this sewer?

Rose: What can I do, Sam? You see, my father's always been sort of strict — sort of making you freeze up, when you really wanted to be nice and loving. That's the whole trouble, I guess; my mother never had anybody to really love her. Only . . the way things are now— everybody spying and whispering and making remarks! Oh, if I only knew what to do!

Sam:
I wish I could help you, Rose.

Rose:
You do help me, Sam, just by being nice and sympathetic and talking things over with me.

pp

1.Vl.

Str.

You keep me from getting that feeling that I'm all alone in the world and that —

(A scream from Mrs. Buchanan)

Rose:
Oh, just listen to the poor thing!
She must be having terrible pains!

sfz

Cor.
Trp.

Trb.

f

Molto agitato

Sam

f

Pain! Noth-ing but

Brass fp 3 Cl.

l.h.

pain! That's all there is to life! Be-fore we're fp

Cl.

mf

Fg.

born un - til we die Noth-ing but Ob.
1.Vl.
Fg.
pain! Bru - tal - i - ty!
Brass Strife!
Too high a price to pay for life! Not worth it, not worth it to Ob.
Bcl.
Vla.
Vc.
Fg.

ff
live!
The scream of
cresc.
f fp
p birth,
f
The moan of death
Ob.
f fp
p p cresc.
p
What else has life got to give?
Corni
1.Trb.
Fg.
Vc.
Cb.
Meno mosso, quasi allegretto
Rose
p semplice
I don't know, Sam, some-times I feel dis-cour-aged, too. Last Vl.
Cel.
Fl.
p Cl.
Fl.

night I could hard - ly sleep and I woke up de-pressed and blue. I Cl.
Fl.
p thought I'd walk to the of - fice, So I cut through the park by the mall.
1.Vl.
Cl.
p
(p) Ev-'ry thing looked so fresh and green.
poco allargando
3
Life seemed not so bad af - ter
Fl.
dolce espr.
Meno mosso
all! What do you think I saw, Sam? A Vl.
p Vc.
3

(p) li - lac bush flow'r - ing bright. It made me think of that Cel.
Str.

poem you said, Re - mem - ber? When we sat in the 1.Cl.

Park one night.
pp
It was just like to - night, we were both feel-ing sort of allargando
Sam
p
Yes, I re - mem - - ber.
2.Cl.
pp Corni
Fg.
1.Vl.
allargando

Andante cantabile(♩= 60)
low, And all of a sud - den, you be - gan that poem.
p espr.
*In the Fl.
Ob.
p Hrp.Str.

*The portion of the poem quoted is from "When Lilacs Last In The Dooryard Bloomed" by Walt Whitman.

door - yard front-ing an old farm - house near the white-wash'd pal - ings, — Stands the li - lac - bush — tall - grow - ing
1.Vl.
Cor.
espr.
p with heart-shaped leaves of green, — With man - y point - ed espr.
Cor.
Vc.
Cl.
p blos - soms ris - ing del - i-cate, with the per-fume strong I love, p
3 3

poco rit.
a tempo
Rose
p
In the door - yard front-ing an old farm - house near the white-wash'd
Sam
With ev-'ry leaf a mir - a-cle.
Vl.
Fl.
pp dolce pal - ings, Stands the li - lac - bush
p
With the per - fume strong I love, With ev - 'ry leaf a Fl.
Ob.
mf
l.h.
pp tall - grow - - ing.
mf
mir - a - cle. And from this bush in the door - yard, 1.Vl.
Cl.
p Vc. Bcl.

With del - i - cate-col-ored blos - soms and heart-shaped leaves of green, A sprig with its flower I mf 2.Vl.Vla.
espr
Vc.Cb. Fg.
Rose
break. A sprig with its flower I break. Yes,
molto cresc.
Un poco più animato
that's what I thought in the Park to - day, When I Hrp.
Str.
pp sub.
l.h.
Corni

saw that bush, fresh and green.
I want - ed to break off a Vc. flower
But I was a-fraid I might be seen.
W.W.
Fl.
grazioso
May - be a park po - lice - man Might come and take me a - Ob.
p Fg.
Cl.
way.
"Do not pick the flow - ers"
The
pp

Sam
signs for - ev - er say.
Don't!
agitado
Don't! They al-ways say Stand back! Keep off the Cl.
grass! Don't pick the flowers! Don't pick the flowers! Don't Fl.
Meno mosso
Rose
But in our dreams, Sam! Yes in our dreams, A take!
Yes in our dreams, Rose! A Meno mosso
Fl.
cresc.
allargando

Poco più mosso
sprig with its flower we break, A sprig with its flower we sprig with its flower we break, A sprig with its flower we
mf
Cor.
Hrp.
Vc.
break. And the li - lac - bush is ours,
f stringendo
break.
The li - lac - bush is p stringendo Noth - ing can take it a - way. The li - - lac-bush is ours,
Noth - ing can take it a - way.

f lento
ours,
For - ev - er and a day.
The li - lac - bush is ours, For - ev- er and a day.
lento
Str. Hrp.
Cel.
Tranquillo
And when you see the li - lac - bush Bright in the morn - ing
And when you see the li - lac - bush Bright in the morn - ing
fp
air, Re-mem-ber, al - ways re - mem - - - - - air, Re-mem-ber, al - ways re - mem - - - - - Tutti

- - - ber,
- - - ber,
Cor. Vc.
molto cresc.
ff
Re - mem - ber that I
Re - mem - ber that I care!
Re - mem - ber that I
Hrp.
W. W.
Str.
Str. care!
care!
Hrp.
attacca Finaletto

(Finaletto)

Molto agitato
Buchanan's Voice:
Miss Maurrant! Miss Maurrant!
Rose:
Yes!
Buchanan:
Do you mind phoning the doctor again? She's getting worse.
Cl.
ff
p Corni
Fg.
Rose:
Yes, sure I will. Wait! Maybe this is the doctor now.
Buchanan:
Yes, that's him. Doctor, I guess you're none too soon.
(Wilson enters)
Dr. Wilson:
Plenty of time. Just don't
Vc.
get excited.
Rose:
I hope she won't have to suffer much longer.
Cl.
Maurrant: (at window)
Rose!
Rose:
Yes, Pop. I'll be right up.
Maurrant:
Well, don't make me call you again, d'ya hear?
tenuto
dolce
1. Vl.
Timp.
Cb.

Rose:
I'd better go up now, Sam. There was something I wanted to talk to you about, but it will have to be another time.

Sam:
Rose, will you kiss me?

Andantino

Str. Cl. Vl. Fl. Ob. poco rit.

Rose:
Why of course I will Sam. (She kisses him)

mf a tempo Vc. 1.Cor. W.W. Trp. Vc. molto cresc. Cor. Trb. Hrp.

Rose: Don't be discouraged about things. You're going to do big things some day. I've got lots of confidence in you.

Piu mosso

f Fl. Cl. pp subito Hrp.

Sam:
Have you really, Rose?

Fl. Corni Fg.

Rose:
Of course I have.
Tranquillo
Rose:
And don't for - get the li - lac - bush
rit. - - -
p Bright in the morn - ing air. Re - mem - ber, al - ways re - mf
f mem - - - - - - - ber
Vc.
Cor.
p Re - mem - ber that I f
r. h. p rall.

p (Henry comes up from cellar)
care.
Re - mem - ber that I care.
Sam:
p
Re - mem - ber that I care.
Blues tempo
Henry
p
I got a mar - ble and a Vl.
Cl.
p
Rose:
Good night, Sam. I hope it won't be too hot to sleep.
Sam:
Good night, Rose.
star,
And the star is in my pock - et,
(She enters the house)
too.
Got a mar - ble and a

p star, The star is in my pock - et,
p
(He disappears in the house.)
rit.
Rose: (at window) Yoo-hoo, Sam!
too. If you'll be real good I'll show that star to Ob.
(morendo)
1.Vl.
Fl.
dolce espr.
Andante (♩ = 60)
Rose: Good night Sam.
Sam: Good night, Rose dear.
you.
1.Trp.Ob.
2.Vl.Trp.
p
f Trb.
Bcl.
(Slow curtain)
Fl.
pp Chime
Vl.
p Hrp.Vc.Bcl.
Ob.
Cl. Cel.
p
pp End of Act 1

Act II

Introduction and Children's Game

No. 15

Trp.
p p Vl.
8
p mf
Curtain
8 (Daybreak, the next morning)
p

Più animato (♩ = 84)

(Jones appears. He reels slightly but manages to negotiate the stoop, fumbingly inserts his key in the lock - - -

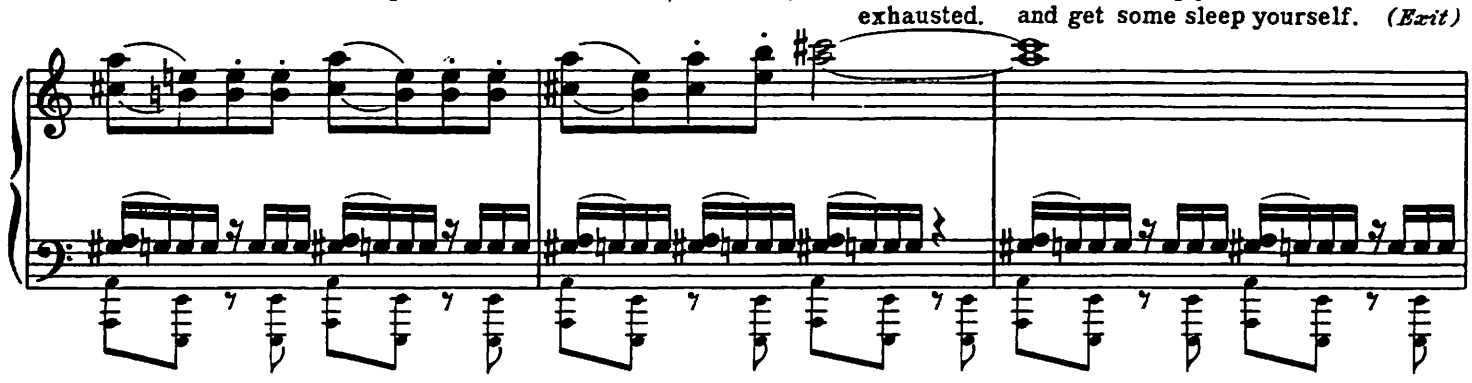

Fg. Solo

p

*- - - -

B's. Voice:
What if she does wake up?

Dr. Wilson:
She won't, I've told you. She's too exhausted. The best thing you can do is lie down and get some sleep yourself. (Exit)

(Enter Mae and Dick)

Dick:
Well, goo' night.

Mae:
So long!

Trp.
Trb.
p
pizz.
Piano

Dick:
How 'bout kissing me good-night?

Mae:
For God's sake, ain't you had enough kissin' for one night?

Vl., Vla.
3 Cl.
p

Dick:
Well, say, if that's the way you feel about it!

Mae: Aw, go to hell! (Enters the house.)

Dick:
You dirty little tart! (Goes off)

1. Cl.
Fl.
Bcl.

(A milkman appears, whistling.)

Allegro giocoso

Ob. Cl.

mf

pizz.

Fg.

Policeman: (crossing) Hello, Louis.

Milkman: Hello, Harry. Goin' to be another scorcher.

Policeman: You said it.

(Milkman goes to the cellar steps. Mae appears at window, removes her dress. Milkman sees her and stops to watch. Mae throws him an angry look and pulls down the shade.)

(Charlie Hildebrand comes out of the house, jumps down the steps, goes off.)

f

Cor.

Fl.

(A tramp shuffles across, picks up a cigar butt.)

Fl. Ob.

mf

Cl.

Fg.

(Rose appears at her window, yawns slightly, disappears. Henry comes out of cellar, goes into the

Vl.
Vla.

Trp.
Trb.

f

Vc.
Cb.

Vl.

house. It is daylight now. Two little girls, Joan and Myrtle, cross the stage.)

Fl., Cl.

Fg., Vc.

Joan: Myrtle:

Ooh, golly! Rats? Uh-huh. And he says, what's more, if he ever ketches her again using my mother's lipstick, he's 3 Clar.

pizz.

p

going to take her pants down and lambaste the hell out of her. (Exit) (Milkman comes up

1. Cl.

p

2. Cl.

the cellar steps, goes off, whistling. Sam appears at the window, looks out.)

Vl., Vla.

p Hrp.

Fg.

Hrp.

3

3

3

L'istesso tempo
(Willie comes out of the house.)
Willie:
Fat, Fat the wa - ter rat, fif - ty bul - lets in his nat.
Cl.
mf
Fg.
Sam:
Hello, Willie! Is Rose up yet?
Willie:
Yeah. I don't know. I guess so. (Turns a somersault and goes off.)
Fl.
Ob.
p
(Mrs. Jones and her dog come out of the house.)
Mrs. J:
Mornin'.
Sam:
Good morning.
(Mrs. J. goes off. Lippo comes out, goes off, humming. He passes a workman.)
1.Vl.
pp
Str.
Cl.
Cor. p
pizz.
Workman:
You up there, Eddie?
A Voice:
Yeah!
Workman:
All right!
CUT TO 191
morendo

Allegro vivace (♩ = 104)
(Charlie, with loaf of bread, runs to the stoop as Willie, Myrtle and Joan come on) W.W. Str.
Trp.
Trgl.
Charlie:
+ Glsp.
One, two, three, for sup - er - man, come and catch me
W.W. mf
Fg. pizz.
Others:
if you can. If we catch you, you must do just what - ev - er we Charlie:
Others:
tell you to. May - be I will, may - be I won't. We'll sham-poo your head with a Str.
p
+W.W.

(Charlie runs, pursued by others. Grace, a little colored girl, comes at right and catches Charlie.) brick if you don't.

Str., W. W. Piano

f

Charlie:
+ Ob., Glsp.

Grace:

Now you've got me what'll I do? Make

mf
Str.

Fg.

Others:

f Trp.

out you live on Park Av - en - ue. Ros - es are red and

Cl.

f Fg.

vi' - lets are blue, make out you live on Park Av - en - ue.

(Charlie struts about like a Park Avenue resident)

(They dance an impersonation of Park Avenue people.)
Brass
1. Trp.
2. Trp.
Trb.
Picc.
f Vc.
Bss.
Cym.
(Joan gets into position)
Joan:
One, two, three, for Har - old Teen,
W.W.
Trp
f Str.
W.W. p Trgl.

Others:
If you catch me, you are mean. If we catch you, you must do Joan:
just what-ev-er we tell you to. May-be I will, may-be I won't,
Others:
(They chase her. Willie catches her)
We'll sham-poo your head with a rock, if you don't.
Joan:
Grace:
Now you've got me, What'll I do? Give Ob.

All:

out like a deb on Park Av - en - ue. Ros - es are red and vi' - lets are blue. Give out like a deb on Park Av - en - ue.

(She acts a debutante)

Moderato (lazily) ♩ = ♪

Joan:

I am a deb named

3 Cl., Fg.

Str.
pizz.

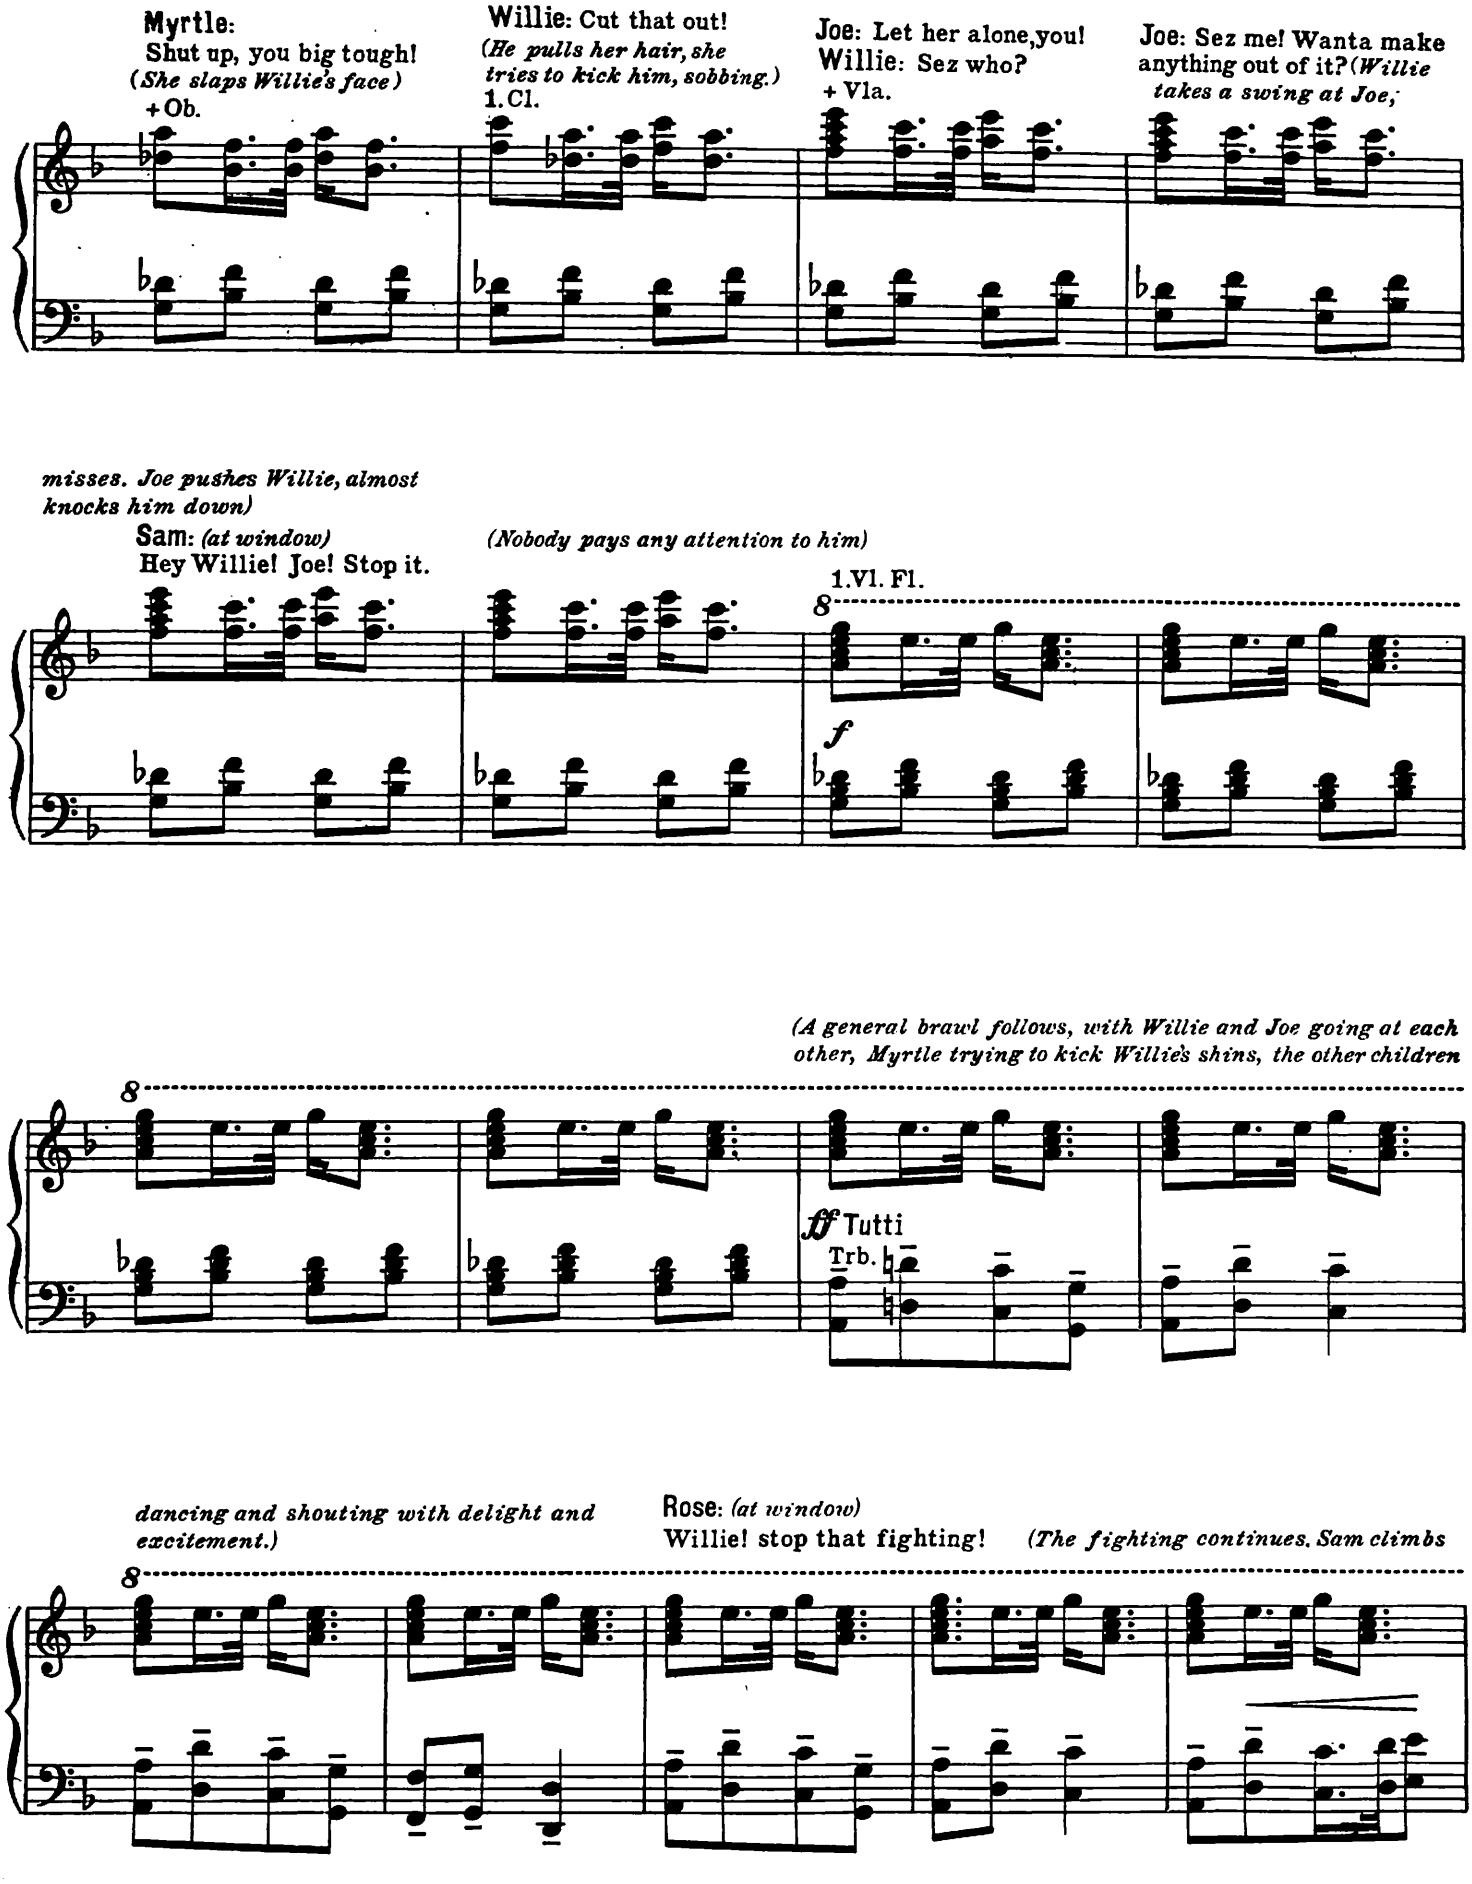

Glo - ria Jinx, my hair is bleached, my per - fume stinks. I

Tempo Iº
Moderato
drink cham-pagne with rich old clucks. And get my face in the ads for Lux.
1.Cl.
Hrp.
p Str.
f
(They all continue acting like debutantes)
Brass
Str.
Tempo Iº
Fl.
Viol.
Hn.
All
Hey! Did-dle Dee! Hey Did-dle Dash! Hey! Bar-ba-re-bop! Hey! Bar-ba-re-bop!
Fl., Cl.
W.W.
Trp.
Str.
Trb.
l. h.
Brass

(Willie goes to base)
Hey! Bar-ba - re - bop, my fa - ther's mus - tache!
W.W. Str.
f
2/4 Trgl.
Willie:
+ Piano, Hrp.
One, two, three, for Don - ald Duck, If you catch me I'm out - ta luck.
Str.
pizz.
W.W. p Others:
If we catch you, you must do Just what - ev - er we tell you to!
(They chase him. He runs into cellar, reappears on the other side as Joe comes on and catches him.)
f

Willie:
Now you got me, what I'll do?
Cl., Vl.
Fl.
p Joe:
Willie:
O kay.
Do like a gent on Park Av - en - ue.
Vl.
(He reels about, drunkenly)
Cl., Piano
Fg., Vc., Cb. pizz

Willie:
+ Trp.
I've spent the night in a gam - bling house I'm known a - round as Joe the souse.
Piano Solo
mf
(They all play drunkards)
Str.
(Willie suddenly confronts Joe in a menacing manner. Then he seizes the arm of Myrtle and tries to drag her away) Myrtle: Ow! You hurt.
Willie: Yah! Yah! Cry-baby!
+ 2.Cl.
Trp., Cor.
p cresc. poco a poco

Myrtle:
Shut up, you big tough!
(She slaps Willie's face)
+ Ob.
Willie: Cut that out!
(He pulls her hair, she tries to kick him, sobbing.)
1. Cl.
Joe: Let her alone, you!
Willie: Sez who?
+ Vla.
Joe: Sez me! Wanta make anything out of it? (Willie takes a swing at Joe, misses. Joe pushes Willie, almost knocks him down)
Sam: (at window)
Hey Willie! Joe! Stop it.
(Nobody pays any attention to him)
1. Vl. Fl.
8
f
(A general brawl follows, with Willie and Joe going at each other, Myrtle trying to kick Willie's shins, the other children 8 ff Tutti
Trb.
dancing and shouting with delight and excitement.)
Rose: (at window)
Willie! stop that fighting!
(The fighting continues. Sam climbs out of window and seperates Willie and Joe.)
8

W.W. Str.

ff

Sam:
All right, Break it up!
That's enough now!

Rose:
Willie, come right upstairs. We're waiting for the bread.

Str.

mf Cl.

Willie:
All right! Cancha see I got it?

(He finds the bag on the sidewalk, but as he picks it up the loaf falls out. He recovers the loaf, dusts it with his hand and puts it back in the bag. Then he enters the house followed by Charlie. Meanwhile, Joan, Myrtle and Sally have gone off right, Grace and Joe at left. Sam stands on the sidewalk looking up at Rose, who remains at window.)

p Str.

Vla.

Vc., Cb. (Fading out)

pp

Sam:

Hello, Rose

Rose:

Hello, Sam

Sam:

Come down.

Rose:

I have to go to Mr. Gordon's funeral this morning. (Calling to the room) Yes, I'm coming. (To Sam) I'll be down as soon as the dishes are done.

(She leaves the window. Sam sits on the stoop. Mrs. Fiorentino deposits a double-armful of bedding on the window-sill and then disappears.)

Shirley: (Appearing at the window)

Sam, come in, Papa is half through breakfast already.

Sam:

I don't want any breakfast.

Shirley:

You've got your head so full of that Rose Maurrant upstairs that you don't want to eat or sleep or anything, any more.

Kaplan's Voice:

Shoi-ley!

Shirley: (Calling into the room)

All right, Papa! (To Sam) Come in, Sam, or Papa will be making long speeches again.

Sam: (Impatiently)

All right! All right! I'll come.

(A young shopgirl, smiling to herself, appears at the right and walks across the stage. Sam rises and goes into the house. Shirley leaves the window. Buchanan, emerging from the house, collarless and unshaven, encounters Sam in the vestibule. Sam enters the house. Mrs. Fiorentino appears at the window.)

Mrs. F.:

Good morning, Mr. Buchanan.

Buchanan:

Oh, good morning, Mrs. Fiorentino. I guess you know that the baby came last night, don't you?

Mrs. F.:

No! I did not hear a verd about it!

Buchanan:

I been up the whole night, Mrs. Maurrant too. I don't know what we'd have done without her.

Mrs. F:

A boy, is it?

Buchanan:

No, it's a little girl. I guess we'll call her Mary, after my mother. (As Lippo enters with groceries) I was just telling your wife . . .

Mrs. F:

Lippo, vot do you t'ink? Mr. Buchanan has a little girl!

Lippo:

Ah, dotsa fine! Margharita, why don't you hava da baby, ha?

Mrs. F:

I must go and make the coffee.

(She leaves the window.)

Lippo:

Ees funny t'ing. You gotta leetla, skeeny wife an' she's hava da baby. My Margharita, she's beeg an' fat, an' she no hava da baby.

Buchanan:

Well, that's the way of the world, I guess.

(He exits at left, as Lippo goes up the steps and Mrs. Maurrant comes out of the house.)

Lippo:

Good morning, Meeses Maurrant.

Mrs. M:

Oh, good morning, Mr. Fiorentino.

A Voice: (Off left)

Oh, corn! Sweet corn!

(Lippo enters the house. Mrs. Jones comes on, at right.)

Mrs. J:

Good mornin'

Mrs. M:

Good morning, Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. J:

How's little Mrs. Buchanan gettin' on?

(Rose comes out of the house.)

Mrs. M:

Well, she's sleeping now, poor thing. I really didn't think, last night, she'd have the strength to pull through it.

(Maurrant appears at the window. Rose comes out of the house and down the steps.)

Mrs. J:

Well, it's somethin' we all got to go through. I been through enough with mine, I hope to tell you. Not that they didn't turn out all right.

Mrs. M:

I wouldn't give up having mine, for anything in the world.

Mrs. J:

Well, after all, what more does any woman want, than watchin' her kids grow up, an' a husband to look out for her?

Mrs. M:

That's true.

Mrs. J:

Yes, an' the world would be a whole lot better off, if there was more that lived up to it. Come on, Queenie.

(She enters the house. Mrs. Maurrant turns away.)

Rose:

Ma!

Mrs. M:

I'm going down to Kraus's to get a little chicken for Mrs. Buchanan.

Rose:

Wait a minute, Ma!

Mrs. M:

I'll be right back.

(She exits at left. Maurrant leaves window. Charlie and Mary Hildebrand come out of the house carrying their schoolbooks.)

Mary:

Hello.

Rose:

~~Hello, Mary. Hello, Charlie.~~

Charlie:

Hello.

Mary:

We're going to be dispossessed today.

Rose:

What a shame.

Mary:

Yes, ma'am. My father ran away with a lady and so we couldn't pay the rent.

Charlie:

Aw, come on ~~Mary~~!

Mary:

I'm going to school now. Good-bye.

Rose:

Good-bye.

Charlie:

I'll beat you to the avenoo.

(He runs off)

Mary: (Running after him)

No fair, head-start!

(As they disappear at the left, Maurrant, carrying a satchel, comes out of the house. Olsen goes down cellar.)

Maurrant:

Where's your ma gone to again?

Rose:

She'll be right back. She just went down to Kraus's. (Impulsively) Pop, there's something I've been wanting to talk to you about.

Maurrant: (Puts bag and hat on base.)

Well, what is it?

Rose:

It's about Ma.

Maurrant:

What about her?

Rose:

It's only that if you were a little nicer to her, maybe everything would be different.

Maurrant:

Yeah? Where's she got any kick comin'? Ain't I always been a good husband? Ain't I always looked after her?

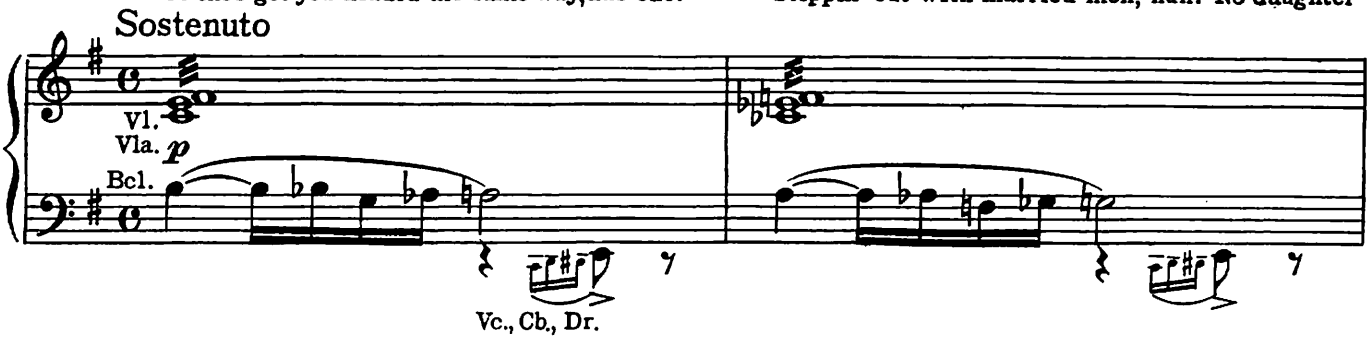

Rose:

It's not that, Pop. It's somebody to be sort of nice to her that she wants—sort of nice and gentle, the way she is to you. That's all it is.

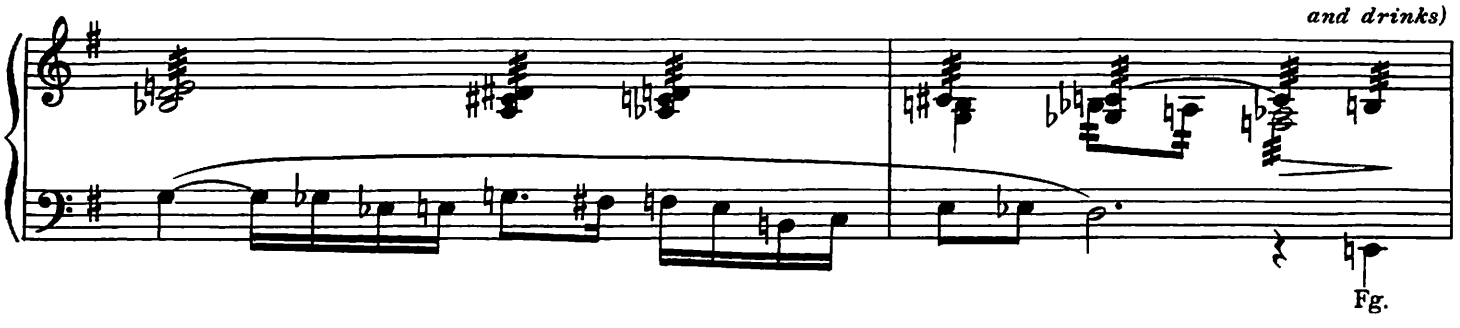

Scene and Trio

No. 16

Maurrant:
So she's got you headed the same way, has she? Steppin' out with married men, huh? No daughter o' mine ain't gonna go that way. I seen too many o' those kind around the theayter. (Takes a bottle from his satchel and drinks)

Rose: I guess I've got a right to think about those things for myself.
Maurrant:
Yeah? Well, jus' remember what I told you, hear?

Rose: Maybe if you did a little less drinking and - - Maurrant: Shut up with that! I'm not asking you!

Mrs. Maurrant: (entering)
Are you leaving already, Frank?

Maurrant:
Looks like it, don't it? Where you been all night?

Rose:
She's been up at the Buchanans'

Maurrant:
You keep out of this!

Moderato assai (♩= 66)
Mrs. M.
p (semplice)
I was up all night with a poor young
p moth-er. I tried to calm her troub-led mind and ease her pain.
p Vc.
Maurrant:
mf
Why don't you look af-ter your own home and let oth-er peo-ple look af-ter + Trp. Trb.
mf
Cl. Vc. Cb.
Mrs. M.
I was just try-ing to help a neigh-bor; That is the Maurrant:
theirs?
Vl.
3 dolce espr.
3
Cor. col canto
+ Cl.
Fg.

least a wo - man can do.
Rose:
The poor wo - man had a
That is the least a wo - man can ba - by and no-bod-y to help her
do.
mf
Più mosso
I don't care a-bout that!
You look af-ter your + Trp.
Trb.
p

Mrs. M.

own house, af-ter your hus-band and chil - dren! What

Trp.
Trb.

Vc., Bcl., Fg.

else have I been do - ing all these years, Tell me, but look - ing af - ter my chil - dren and you,

Più mosso (Agitato) (♩ = 132)

Maurrant:

Frank! Then see that you don't for -

Trp.
Trb.

Rose: f
Why do you talk to her like that?
get it.
3 Cl.
Maurrant:
I'll talk an - y way I want!
f Timp.
p
(to Mrs. M.)
You stay out o' this!
And you just see that you don't for - string - - - -
get it!
That's all.
Or there'll be troub - le!
ff (Wildly)

ff
Mrs. M.
Moderato assai
All right, Frank. Please don't say an - y more now dolce
molto rit.
Ob.
Vl.,Hrp.
Fl.
p dolce
Vla.,Vc.
pp
When will you be back?
To - Cor.
pp
Cl.
p Vl. trem.
Fg.
Cym.
Maurrant:
p mor - row?
I don't know when I'll be back.
When I'm 3
p
Cor.
Fg.
Trb.

through with me work, that's when.
Why do you want to know?
Mrs. M.
Maurrant:
Just asking,
I was just ask - ing, that's all.
Why are you so anx - ious to know?
string. poco
huh? In case somebody came calling, huh?
Mrs. M.
No! It is- n't! It's a poco
p molto cresc.
Più mosso (♩ = 80)
noth-ing of the kind!
f You've got no right to Rose: f
You've got no right to talk to her like Maurrant: f
Stay out of this! I say, stay Vl., Fl.
f molto espr.
Vc.
Cor.

talk to me like that.
I've al - ways tried to
that!
All she wants is some - one to be out of this!
A wo - man's got a right to stay in her own
Trb.
make a home for you.
I've al - ways tried to do my nice to her,
nice and gen - tle, the way she is to home
and mind her fam - i - ly.
best.
You know I have,
you know I
you.
That's all she needs, that's all she Watch out I say,
watch out I say.

accel.
(free)
ff have!
You've got no right to needs, that's all she wants from you.
That's all I've got to say.
8 accel. sffz
sffz
Allegro agitato
talk to me like that In front of my own daught - - - - - W. W., Str.
8 sffz
ff
Brass
Maurrant:
f er! I've heard e - nough, I've said what I've 8
Brass
p mf
Str.
B. Dr.

got to say. Just see that you don't for - p
get it!
ff martellato Largo
p
Or there'll be troub - le!
Mrs. J. (at window)
Good mornin', Mr. Maurrant.
You off on a little trip?
Maurrant: Yeah. (Exits)
Cor.
Str.
fff
f Molto tranquillo
p
pp
3 Cl.
Hrp.
Timp
Vc. C.B.
Rose:
Oh, Ma!
Mrs. M.
p
I tried to be a good wife to him; But he nev - er seemed to

Rose:
I know, Ma.
care. I tried to be a good moth - er, too, Rose,
But he nev - er seemed to care.
Fl., Str.
p
Rose:
I know just the way you feel about it.
Mrs. M:
Do you, Rose?
Rose:
Of course I do. But if I try to say something,
Fl.
Cl.
Bcl.
Fg.
Mrs. M:
will you listen to me?
Yes, sure I will Rose.
Rose:
Well, what I was thinking was, if he didn't come around here so much, maybe. Do you see what I mean, Ma?
Cl.
3
p
Cor.
Vc. solo

Mrs. M:
Are you going to start too, just like all the others?

Rose: It's only on account of all the talk that's going around. And Pop, too. He's started drinking, and I'm afraid of what he's likely to do.

Bcl.
Fg.

Andante sostenuto

Mrs. M. p
Some-times I think it would be bet-ter if I was dead. If you have p Str.

Fg. Brass., Cl.
Hrp.
B. Dr.

mf
no - - bod - y who un - der - stands.

mf Rose:
If there was some-thing I could

mf

You might just as well be dead, Rose, You might just as well be do! Oh Ma, oh Ma, don't say that to me, Ma.

Ob.
p Hrp.
Cb.

Rose:
Look out, Ma. Somebody's coming.

(A smartly dressed girl crosses from left to right. At same time Jones enters from house.)

Jones:
Well, is it hot enough for you today?

Rose:
It's awful, isn't it?

Jones:
Like the feller says, you wouldn't mind the heat so much if it wasn't only for the humidity.

(Jones exits)

Rose:
I'll run up and put the chicken in the ice-box.

Mrs. M:
Thanks, Rose.

(As Rose goes up the steps, Willie comes out of the house, on his way to school.)

Rose:
Why, Willie, the way you look. Your collar's open again.

Willie:
I know it, the button came off.

Rose:
Well, wait till I see if I have a pin.

Willie:
Aw, it's allright the way it is.

Rose:
No, it isn't. You can't go to school like that.

Willie:
Say, lemme alone, can'tcha?

Rose: (angrily)
All right, then go to school looking like a little street-loafer, if you want to!

(Rose goes quickly into the house.)

Willie:
Aw, you gimme a pain in de - -

Mrs. M:
Why, Willie? Is that any way to act to your sister?

Willie:
Then why don't she stop picking on me?

Mrs. M:
She's not picking on you. She's just trying to be nice to you and to help you to act right. You don't want peo - ple to think you don't know how to behave, do you?

Willie:
Aw - - -

Mrs. M:
Of course you don't.

Song

No. 17

Mrs. M.
You want to grow up to be a fine good man that everybody likes and has respect for.
Allegretto moderato(♩=69)
Mrs. M.
Some - bod - y's going to be so dolce
Fl.
Cl.
Cor. p Vl.
con Ped.
hand some,
Some-bod-y's going to make me proud.
Ob.
espr.
Some-bod-y's going to be so won - der-ful, He'll stand out from the 1. Vl
sempre p

mf
crowd.
Such a man - ly arm I'll have to lean on,
Fl.
Trp.
espr.
Vc
When I walk down the av - en - ue.
Fg. Vc.
Hrp.
p
Some-bod - y will al-ways be my stand by. Who do you think it is? Guess
Vl.
Vlc.
Vc.
pp
Ob.
Cl.
Vl.
Willie:
Is it me, Ma?
Mrs. M.
Of course it is Willie. Now give me a nice kiss, and run along to school, or you'll be late.
who?
8 p molto espr.
Trp.

(She embraces him, as Rose comes out on the stoop.)
Mrs. M. (warmly)
mf
Some-bod-y will nev-er,
Ob.
mf
p
No, not ev-er, for-get to care and un-der-stand.
f
Yes, that is the grand-est feel-ing That an-y wo-man ev-er
W.W.
Str.
mf knew
mf
To know I have some-bod-y won-der-ful, To Cl.
Vc.
Cor.
Ob.
Bcl.
mf

Rose:
I put some water on to boil. And the chicken's in the ice-box.

Mrs. M:
Thanks, Rose. Well, I'd better go and start the soup. Are you coming home for lunch, Rose?

Rose:
Yes, I'll be back, as soon as the funeral's over.

Mrs. M:
Oh, all right. (As she sees Shirley) Good morning.

Shirley:
Good morning.

Rose:
Good morning. Miss Kaplan.
(Mrs. Maurrant goes into the house. The shade of Mae's window flies up and she is seen, for an instant, half dressed.)
It's another awful day, isn't it?

Shirley:
Yes, and when you have to keep forty children quiet...
(She comes down the steps)
Miss Maurrant, there's something I'd like to ask you. A girl like you can get plenty of fellows. Why must you pick out my brother Sam?

Rose:
Why, we're just good friends, that's all.

Shirley:
It'll be three years yet before he's a full-fledged lawyer. And maybe ten years before he can support a family. Anyhow, it's better to marry with your own kind. You can't mix oil and water.

Rose:

I'm not trying to take Sam's mind off his work. We just happen to . . .

Shirley:

I could of had my chances too. Only I wanted to give Sam an education. But he sees a pretty face and right away, he forgets everything else.

Rose:

I know I haven't as much brains as Sam,or as you either, if that's what you mean.

Shirley:

I haven't got anything against you. Only he's all I've got in the world.What else have I got to live for?

Sam: (Appearing at the window)

Hello, Rose.

Rose:

Hello, Sam.

(Sam leaves window)

Shirley: (In a low tone)

Please don't tell him what I said.

Rose:

Oh no, I won't.

(As Shirley exits, Vincent comes out of the house)

Vincent:

Hello, Rosie! You been here all night, neckin' with Joe Louis? (She does not answer)
Got a date for tonight,kid?

Rose:

Yes, I have.

Vincent:

Gee, ain't that too bad? I'll give you two bucks if you let me snap your garter.

(Exit left)

Rose:

Shut up, you!

Sam: (Comes out of the house.)

Has he been starting with you again?

Rose:

Oh, never mind about him! Oh, if there was only some way of getting out of here. I sometimes think I'd just like to run away!

Sam:

Yes, I feel the same way.

Rose:

Anywhere, just to get out of this. And I have a chance, too.

Sam:

What do you mean, Rose?

Rose:

We'll, it's what I started to tell you about last night. A man I know wants to put me on the stage.

Sam:

What man?

Rose:

A man who works in the office. You see, what I thought was, if I could make a lot of money, maybe everything would be different . . not only for me, but for Ma and Pop and Willie.

Sam:

But don't you know what this man wants?

Rose:

Nobody gives you anything for nothing, Sam. If you don't pay for things in one way, you do in another.

Sam:

Rose, for God's sake, you mustn't!

Rose:

Nothing could be much worse than things are around here.

Sam:

Then why don't we both get out of it . why don't we go away together, you and I?

Rose:

But, Sam, how could we do that? How could we manage? You wouldn't want to give up your law work and everything.

Sam:

I'd give up anything if I could be with you.

Rose:

Oh, it would be so wonderful to get away somewhere. When we were young, we had to be tied down. But it's different now.

Duet and Scene

No. 18

are in love their souls grow wings and say:
+Vc.
The nest is too small now Come a -
cresc.
way, love, come a - way, come a - way!
Brass
cresc.
We'll
Fl.
Cl.
poco rit.
l.h.

Allegro moderato (♩ = 63)

with warm and tender expression

Sam:

go a - way to - geth - er, just we two, just you and I, we'll

1.Vl. etc.

p p Rose:

build a house to shel - ter us be - neath a hap - pier sky. We'll Trps.

Trb.

go a - way to - geth - er out of shad - ows in - to p

pizz.

light, we'll leave be-hind our yes - ter - days and make to mor - row

Ob.

mf Sam:
bright. Life is a sky-tall moun-tain Where clouds play hide and Vl.
W.W. mf Fl.(col canto)
seek, But love will blaze a trail for us up Vc.
p marc.
to the high-est peak. May-be we'll find a Trp.
Trb.
Vl.
Cl.
rain-bow, May-be there's storm-y weath-er-- But (etc.)

Rose:
prit.
When we go a - way to - you'll be in my arms, my love, When we go a - way to - rit.
p molto espr.
rit.
p geth - er.
geth - er, when we go a - way to -
cresc.
ff
Cor.
Trb.
cresc.
mf
f
a tempo
geth - er.
ff
l.h.
Cl.
Rose: I've heard that people are much nicer and friendlier, when you get away from New York. Oh, if we could do it,
p
Cor.
Fg.
Trp. sord.
pp Trb.

Sam!
Sam: We can, if we just make up our minds that we will.
Rose: We wouldn't need
B.Cl.
Fg.
much to live on - - - just the two of us.
p Rose:
Home need not be a pal-ace or a
l. h.
Vl. Ob. Cl.
Str.
Vl.
p (Ob. col canto)
gold - en cas-tle in Spain.
mf
I'd be con-tent with just a roof to 1Vl. Fl.
mf
keep out snow and rain.
f
Just so we find a shel-ter from Sam:
f
Just so we find a shel-ter from Str.
Trp.
f Cl.
Trb.

Meno mosso
cold and wind and wea - ther.
When we
p cold and wind and wea - ther. I'll warm you in my arms, my love, When we Meno mosso
Ob.
Fl.Cl.
p molto espr.
lento
cresc.
go a-way to-geth-er. When we go, we two, a -
cresc.
go a-way to-geth-er. When we go, my love, a - Vl.
Trp. lento
Cor.
Vc.
cresc.
Hrp.
Allegro con brio
ff
way!
ff
way!
ff
attacca

Meno mosso (quasi Andantino)

Sam:
Then promise me that you will, Rose_ and the sooner the better.

Vl.(sord.)

pp Vla.(sord.)

Vc.(sord.)

Rose:
I just want to be sure that we'd be doing the right thing. Just give me a little time to think, Sam_

(Enter Easter)

Easter:
Good morning, Miss Maurrant.

Rose: (surprised)
Oh, good morning, Mr. Easter.

Easter:
I just happened to have a little business, right around the corner, so I thought we might just as well go to the funeral together.

pp

Rose:
Well, I hardly expected to see you around here. (An awkward pause) Oh, I'd like you to meet my friend, Mr. Kaplan.

Easter:
How do you do, Mr. Kaplan? Glad to know you. (An awkward silence.)

Rose:
Mr. Easter is the manager of the office.

allargando

Solo Vl.

pp

2. Vl.

(Another silence) It's awful hot again, isn't it?

Easter:
I was thinking that after the funeral, we might take a run down to the beach, somewhere.

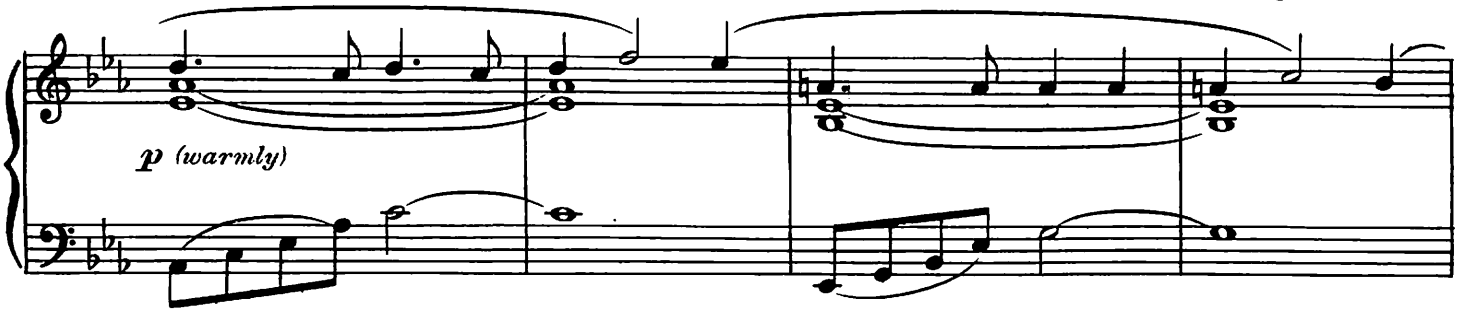

Moderato assai

p

Rose:
I can't today. I've got a lot of things I want to do. Well, I guess it's time we got started.

p (warmly)

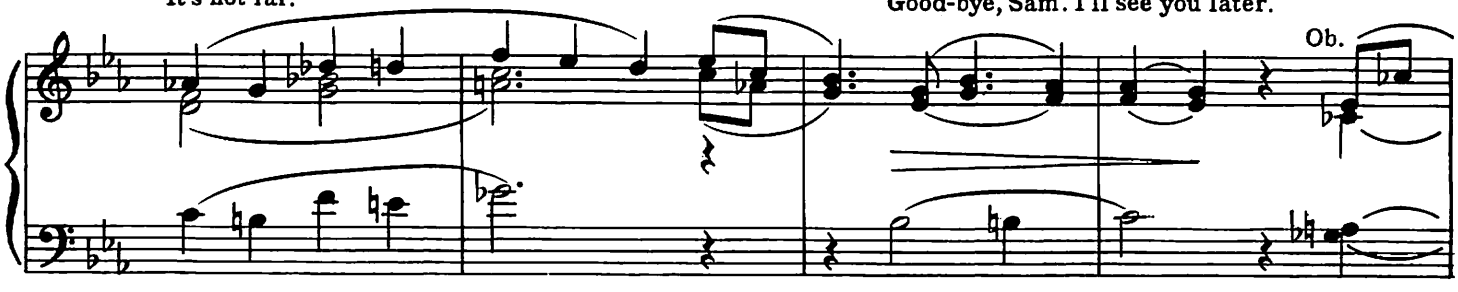

Easter: Yes, it is. We'll pick up a cab at the corner.
Rose: Why, I thought I'd walk. It's not far.

Easter: Much more comfortable taking a cab.
Rose: I'd rather walk.

Easter:
Well, whatever you say.
Rose:
Good-bye, Sam. I'll see you later.

(slowly)

Ob.

Easter:
Good morning, Mr. Kaplan.
Glad to have met you.

Rose:
It's a lucky thing my father wasn't around. (They go off)

(Sam turns, and goes into the house)

A distant Voice

Straw - ber - ries! Straw-ber - ries!

Lento (♩ = 69)

pp

Bcl. Vc.

(A girl with a violin case appears, enters the house.)

(Buchanan enters, with a medicine bottle.)

Buchanan:
I just had her medicine made up.

Mrs. M. (at window)
I'm making some soup for her.

Fl.

p

Cl. Hrp.

Solo Vl.

The Voice (a little nearer)

Straw - ber - ries! Straw-ber - ries!

Buchanan:
I'll be up later with it.

Thanks, Mrs. Maurrant. You sure have been a mighty good neighbor.

(He enters house)

Vla. Hrp.

pp

Vc.

Cym. roll

(Sankey appears. He and Mrs. Maurrant see each other and both become tense with excitement.)

(this bar repeat ad lib. under dialogue)

Mrs. M.: (In a low tense voice)
Come up.

Sankey: (Looking about nervously)
Now?

Mrs. M.:
Yes, I got to talk to you.

Sankey:
Is it all right?

Mrs. M.:
Yes, he's gone to New Haven.

Sankey:
How about later?

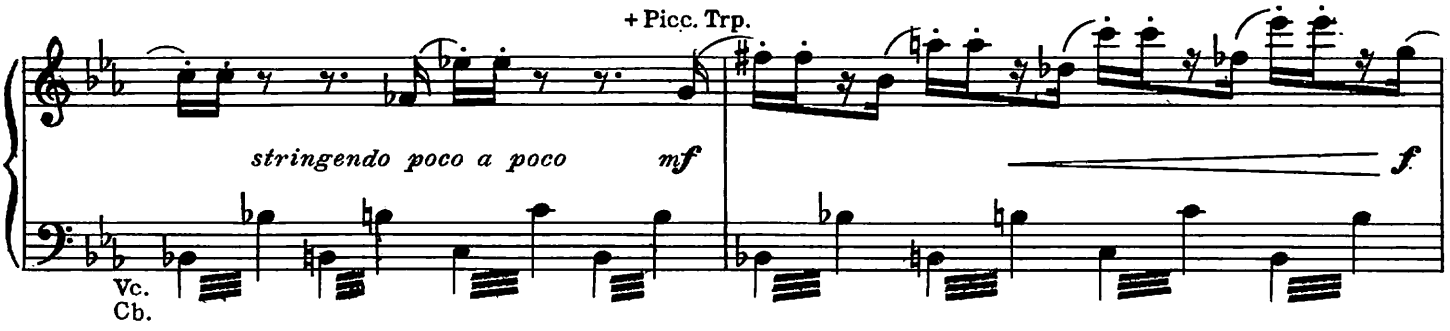

Mrs. M.:
No. Rose'll be home in an hour. She's not working today.

Sankey:

All right. (He goes quickly towards the steps. Sam appears at the door. Sankey hesitates a moment, then goes quickly into the house. Mrs. Maurrant has pulled down shades. Sam comes down the steps.

He looks up at the Maurrant windows, sees the drawn shades,..... deeply disturbed, he sits down on the steps and begins to read.)

(The girl in Lippo's apartment starts playing Dvořák's "Humoresque" This continues throughout the scene.)

(Two men appear, James Henry, a city-marshal, and Fred Cullen, his assistant.)

Marshal:
Dis is it. (to Sam) Hildebrand live here?

Sam:
What?

Marshal:
I'm askin' you if Hildebrand lives here.

Sam:
Yes. Fourth floor.

Marshal:
Better give de janitor a buzz, Fred.
(Fred rings the janitor's bell)

Fred:
Hey, janitor.

Henry:
Right down here.

Fred:
Come on out a minute, We got a warrant for Hildebrand.

Henry:
Fourth floor — Hildebrand.

Fred:
Yeah, I know. We got a warrant for her.

Marshal:
I'm City-Marshal Henry. We got a dispossess warrant.

Henry:
You gonna put 'em out?

Marshal:
Yeah, dat's it. Has she got anybody to take de foinicher away?

Henry:
Not as I heard tell of.

Marshal:
Well, we'll have t' dump it on de side-walk, den. Go ahead, Fred.
(They enter the house. Henry goes back to the cellar. Sam sits on the steps. A grocery boy, with a full basket, goes down the cellar-steps. Mae Jones comes out of the house. She yawns noisily, and goes off at left.)

A Voice: (as before, a little nearer) Strawberries! Strawberries!
(Henry comes up the cellar-steps, starts to scrub. Mrs. Jones appears at the window.)

An Old-Clothes Man: (appearing at left)
I kesh ko. I kesh ko! (Fred comes out of the house.)
Kesh ko? (To Sam) Any old klose, mister?
(Sam pays no attention to him.)

Old-Clothes Man: (To Mrs. Jones.)
Any ol' klose, leddy?

Mrs. J:
Naw, nawthin'!

Old-Clothes Man:
Hets? Shoes? Ol' stockin's?

Mrs. J:
Nawthin', I tell you.
(As the Old-Clothes Man goes off, Maurrant appears.)

Mrs. J:
Why, hello, Mr. Maurrant. I thought you was off to New Haven.

Maurrant:
I changed me . . .
(He stops, and looks up at the drawn shades of his apartment. Sam rises, slowly and rigidly. Maurrant, slowly and deliberately, goes towards the steps.)

Sam: (Suddenly blocking the steps)
No! No! For God's sake . . . .!

Maurrant:
Out o' me way, you goddam little rat!
(He flings Sam violently aside. Henry, terrified, rises and shrinks into a corner, as Maurrant with swift stealthiness, enters the house. Sam rushes down the steps and stands under the Maurrant windows. The Marshal comes out of the house, carrying a wash-boiler filled with pots.)

Sam:
Mrs. Maurrant! Mrs. Maurrant!

Mrs. J:
What's the matter?

Sam: (To Mrs. Jones)
Quick! Run and tell her! Quick!

Mrs. J:
What is it?
(She leaves the window hastily)

Sam:
Mrs. Maurrant! Mrs. Maurrant!
(A scream of terror is heard from the Maurrant apartment)

Mrs. Mr's. Voice: (Scream) (Violin stops)
Frank! Frank!
(Two shots are heard in quick succession, and then a heavy fall. Henry runs out of the vestibule and down into the cellar. Sankey's voice is heard, inarticulate with fear. Then, one of the shades shoots up, and Sankey appears at the window, coatless, his face deformed by terror. He tries to open the window, but succeeds only in shattering the pane with his elbow. Maurrant appears behind him and pulls him away from the window. Then another shot is heard)

Marshal:
For Chris' sake, what's happenin'? Get an ambulance, you!

(He pushes Sam towards the left, then hurries off, at the right. As Sam runs off, a crowd begins to form.)

A Workman:
What's happening?

A Man:
What is it? A murder?

(Still others join the crowd. Lippo's pupil appears at the window, badly frightened. Fred, the Marshal's assistant, appears at the broken window.)

Fred:
Grab dat boid! He's comin' down!

A Workman:
What boid?

A Man:
Here he is, now!

(The crowd murmurs with excitement as the house-door opens and Maurrant appears. His face, hands and clothing are covered with blood. He stands in the door-way.)

Fred:
Grab him! Don't let him get away!

(As the crowd makes a concerted movement towards Maurrant, he whips out an automatic revolver and levels it. The crowd shrinks back. Some of the women scream.)

Maurrant:
Git back! Git back, all o' you!

(The crowd falls back. With his back to the balustrade, he comes quickly down the steps, and still leveling his revolver at the crowd, retreats backwards to the cellar steps.)

Mrs. J: (at window)
Hurry up! Get an ambulance!

(As Maurrant runs down the cellar steps, the crowd surges forward to the railing.)

Mrs. J:
Get an ambulance, somebody!

Olsen:
Olga!

(He hurries down the cellar steps)

A Man:
Here's a cop! Hey! Hurry up!

(A Policeman runs on from the right)

Policeman:
Where is he?

Voices in the Crowd:
He's down the cellar! He ran down the cellar! He went down the steps!

Policeman:
Get out of the way!

(The Policeman and two men in the crowd go down the cellar steps.)

Voices in the Crowd:
Watch yourself! Look out, he's got a gun. He's a big guy with his shirt torn

Mrs. J:
Hey, don't you hear me? Get an ambulance!

Another Man:
What's de matter? You want de ambulance?

Mrs. J:
Yes! Right away!

Another Man: (To the Grocery Boy)
Run aroun' de corner to the horspital, ~~Johnny~~, an' tell 'em to send de ambulance!

Grocery Boy:
Sure!

Mrs. J:
Run! (The Grocery Boy runs off. Meanwhile, the Marshal has run on.)

Marshal:
Did they get 'm?

A Man:
He beat it down ~~de cellar~~.

A Workman:
~~De cop's gone after him.~~

Marshal:
Why de hell didn't you stop 'im?

Workman:
He had a gun.

Marshal:
What de hell happened, Fred?

Fred:
It's a moider. Jesus, you oughta see de blood.

(Officer Murphy runs on, followed by Sam)

Officer Murphy:
Look out o' de way, youse! Where's de guy dat did it?

Marshal:
He beat it down de steps!

Sam:
Are they dead?

Marshal:
I'm City Marshal Henry. Kin I do anythin'?

Officer Murphy:
Don't let anybody in or out! Hear?

Marshal:
Yeah, sure!

(The Policeman exits quickly, into the house)

Sam:
Are they dead?

Buchanan: (Appearing at the Maurrant window)
Where's the ambulance?

Marshal:
It'll be here, right away. Dere's a cop on his way up.

Sam:
Mr. Buchanan! Mr. Buchanan! Are they dead?

(But Buchanan has already disappeared. One man who followed the first Policeman into the cellar, now comes up the steps.)

Fred:
There's the guy that went after him.
(Siren)

Marshal:
Did they get him?

One of the Men:
He must be hidin' somewheres. De cop's lookin' for 'im.
(Sam runs up the steps and tries to enter the house)

Marshal: (Seizing him roughly)
You can't get in now! Get back dere! (He pushes Sam back. An ambulance bell is heard at the left.)

Voices in the Crowd:
Dere it is! Dere's de ambulance now! Here dey come!

A Man: JONES
Dey won't be able to git past.

Officer Murphy: (Reappearing at the window)
Is dat de ambulance?

Marshal:
Yeah.
(Buchanan and Mrs. Jones crowd to the window, behind the Policeman, and, at the other window, Lippo and Mrs. Hildebrand and Mrs. Fiorentino appear. A hospital interne comes on at the left.)

Officer Murphy:
Hurry up, doc! She's still breathin'.
(The Interne goes quickly into the house)

Marshal: (Pushing crowd back)
Keep back, now! Back off de stoop, everybody! (Looking at his watch) Better git busy wit' dat foinicher, Fred. We got two udder jobs today.

Fred:
Yeah, sure, Jimmy.
(He enters the house. The Ambulance-Driver appears at the left, carrying a canvas stretcher)

Ambulance-Driver:
Get out o' the way!

Marshal: (Pushes crowd off steps)
Git back, can't youse? What de hell's de matter wit' youse?
(The Ambulance-Driver enters the house)

Officer Murphy: (At the window)
Are dey bringin' dat stretcher?

Marshal:
On de way up! (To the crowd) Keep back!
(Lippo's pupil, her violin-case under her arm, appears timidly in the doorway)

Marshal: (Grabbing her arm roughly) Where you goin'?

Girl: (Nervously)
I'm going home.

Marshal:
Home? Where do you live?

Girl:
Ninety-first Street.

Marshal:
What are you doin' here?

Girl:
I just came for a music-lesson, that's all.

Marshal:
Yeah? Well, you can't go now. Nobody can't leave de house, now.

Officer Murphy: (Coming out of the house)
Who's dis kid?

Marshal:
Says she come here to take a music-lesson an' she wants to go home.

Officer Murphy: (To the girl)
Do you know anythin' about this killin'?

Girl:
No, I don't. I just heard some shooting, that's all. My mother will be worried if I don't come home.

Officer Murphy:
Well, you can't go now. Get inside dere, out o' de way. Dey'll be bringin' her down, in a minute.
(He pushes the girl inside the house and comes down the steps)

Officer Murphy:
Come on, git back from dem steps! Back now, all o' youse!
(He and the Marshal push the crowd back. Then he goes up the steps again.)

Marshal:
What did he do? Shoot two of 'em?

Officer Murphy:
I'll say he did! His wife an' her sweetie. A guy named Sankey. He was dead when I got up dere.

Interne: (From the Maurrant window)
Officer! Come on up!
(Policeman exits into the house. Suddenly Sam, pushing his way out of the crowd, hurries over to the left.)

Marshal:
Hey, you!
(The crowd murmurs, excitedly, as Rose comes on quickly)

Rose:
What's the matter, Sam? What's the ambulance for? Did anybody get hurt?

Sam:
Go away, Rose. Go away.

Rose:
Who is it, Sam? What's the matter? Is it my mother? It's not my mother, is it? Sam, is it?

Sam:
There's been an accident. Go away, Rose.

Rose:
Tell me what's happened! Tell me!

Mrs. J: (Appearing at the window)
They're bringing her down!

Rose:
It is my mother!

Choral Scene and Lament

No. 19

Left of Stairs & Last window

Andante con moto (not to slow) (♩ = 72)

Soprano

Alto

Tenor

Bass

pp Solo

Who's she?

People in the crowd whispering to each other

pp Solo

Her daugh-ter.

Mrs. J: Oh, my God, there's Rose!

Sam: Rose, go away!

Andante con moto (not to slow) (♩ = 72)

quasi pesante

Vl.

Cl.

pp Bcl.

Fg.

p Corni

pp Solo

Poor thing!

p Solo

Her moth-er's dead.

p Solo

Who killed her?

BOSTON

p Solo

Her hus - band!

mf Solo
A-bout a-noth-er man!
f
He killed them both.
Tutti
f
The man from down the
f
The man from down the
f
The man from down the Ob.
Cl.
cresc.
mf
Brass
street and the wo-man who lived up there!
street and the wo-man who lived up there!
street and the wo-man who lived up there!
street and the wo-man who lived up there!
Interne: Hold the door open, will you?
Marshal: Sure, doc.
f Tutti

Poco meno
p
The man from down the street and the wo - man who lived up
The man from down the street and the wo - man who lived up
The man from down the street and the wo - man who lived up
The man from down the street and the wo - man who lived up Poco meno
Cor. Trb.
fp marcato
Rose:
Doctor, is she dead?
Interne:
Who are you? Her daughter?
Rose:
Yes sir, I'm her daughter.
Sam:
con molto espr.
Now love and Solo
Poor thing!
there.
The wo - man who lived up
there.
morendo
pp Interne:
She's pretty badly hurt.
Cl.
Fg.
Rose:
Oh, Sam! Sam!
Dr.

Andante non troppo
death have linked their arms to - geth - er and gone a - 3 Cl.
p l.h.
Ob. Cor. col canto
Str. way in - to an - oth - er bourn; Be-yond the
Vl. Vla.
far off sky, be - yond for - ev - er, They have Cl.
l.h.
Hrp.

Più mosso
quasi agitato
Sam:
gone and left us here to mourn.
ALTO TENOR BASS Crowd
Solo
Who's gone?
I nev-er
I don't know.
Più mosso
quasi agitato
Brass
Trp.
Trb.
Timp. Hrp. Piano
Vc.
Cb.
Cl.
SOPRANO
ALTO TENOR
Tutti
They say it was the wo-man who lived up there.
saw her.
Solo
Poor thing!
Ob.
Cor. Bcl.

Solo
p Poor thing!
(excitedly) Solo
mf
3 They're bringing her down now.
Solo
Where is he?
Her lov-er?
Solo
3
Who?
They left him
Vl.
Vla.
mf
SOPRANO Tutti
pp Poor thing!
pp Poor thing!
ALTO Tutti
p
She loved him!
He loved her!
TENOR Tutti
p there!
She loved him!
He loved her!
BRASS
Solo
p Tutti
p He's dead!
She loved him!
He loved her!
3 Trb.
3
3

(The stretcher with Mrs. Maurrant appears in the door.)
SOPRANO
ALTO TENOR BASS
Her hus-band shot her!
May-be he loved her too, the Bcl. espr.
Vl.
wo-man who lived up there. The wo-man who lived up there.
pp (whispering)
poco rall.
Cor.
Tranquillo
Hrp. Vc.
p dolce

Policeman: (They carry the stretcher slowly down the steps) Easy now!

dolce espr.
Solo Vl.
2.Vl. Vla.

Rose: (Gripping the side of the stretcher)
Mother! Mother!

Mrs. M: (Feebly)
Rose.

Interne: (Softly)
You mustn't talk to her now.

A Voice (in the distance)
pp
Straw - - - ber - ries! Straw -

Fl. marcato
p
r.h.
1.Vl. Cel.
l.h.
pp
2.Vl. Vla. Vc.

Rose: (Sam takes her about the shoulder)
Sam!
ber - ries! Straw -

Sam:
p
The sum - mer's
ber - - - ries!
(Trp.)
bright in warm and gold - en
SOPRANO
(Ob.)
pp humming
ALTO
pp humming
Tutti TENOR
pp humming
BASS
pp humming

Sam: weath - er,
and all the SOPRANO
ALTO TENOR
BASS
chil - dren in the streets laugh as they

Sam: run.
(Trb.)
But love and SOPRANO
ALTO TENOR BASS
1.Vl.
Vla.
8
f death have gone a-way to-geth-er to find their morn-ing in the p
The sum-mer's
The sum-mer's
molto cresc.

Sam:

(The stretcher is slowly carried

ff

sun.

SOPRANO

bright in warm and gold - en weath - er and all the

ALTO

bright in warm and gold - en weath - er and all the

TENOR f

The sum - mer's bright the sum - mer's bright in

BASS f

The sum - mer's bright the f Vc. Bcl.

SOPRANO

out, Rose, crying in Sam's arms, follows)

ALTO chil - dren in the streets laugh as they run. But love and TENOR chil - dren in the streets laugh as they run, laugh as they run, But love and — warm and gold - en weath - er, But sum - mer's bright in warm and gold - en weath - er, But 8

BASS

Trp.

3 3 3 3 3

(Ambulance Siren)
SOPRANO
(Trp.)
death have gone a - way to - geth - er
To find their
ALTO
death have gone a - way to - geth - er.
TENOR
love and death have gone a - way to - geth - er
BASS
love and death have gone a - way to - geth - er
W. W.
To find their morn - - - - - - - - -
cresc.
To find their morn - - - - - - -
To find their morn - - - -
To find their morn-ing in the morn - ing in the sun, (Fred comes out of house carrying part of bed.)

- ing in the sun, in the

- ing in the sun, in the

- ing in the sun, in the sun, in the sun, in the

Trp.

(Slow curtain)

sun.

sun.

sun.

sun.

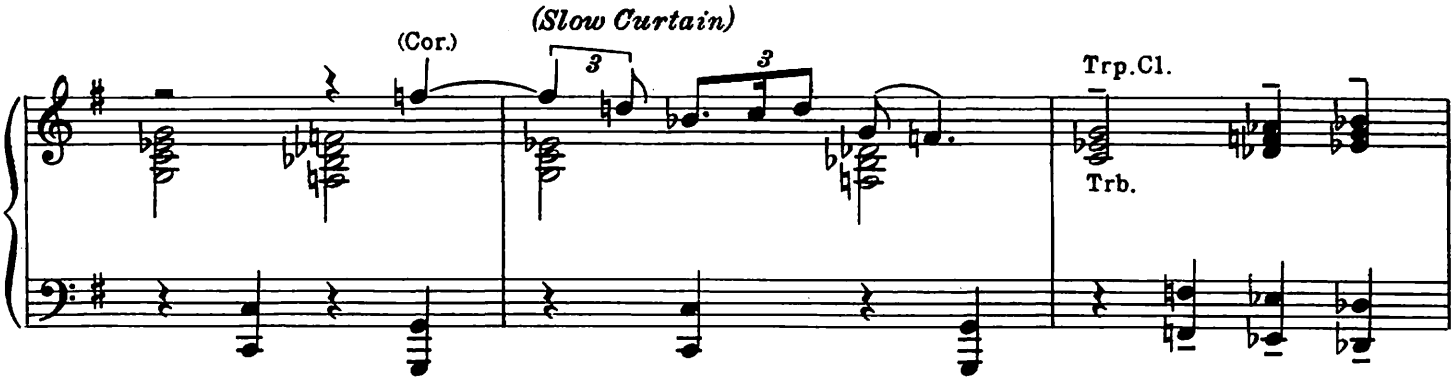

Trb.
Vc.

Interlude

Trp.
Ob.
p 8
p Cl.
2.Trp.
Ob.
W.W.

Cl.
p Cor.
Vc.
Ob.
Cl.
espr.
Cl.
Bcl.
Ob.
f
p Vl.
Vla.
sostenuto
Fl.
Trp.
Trb.
l.h.

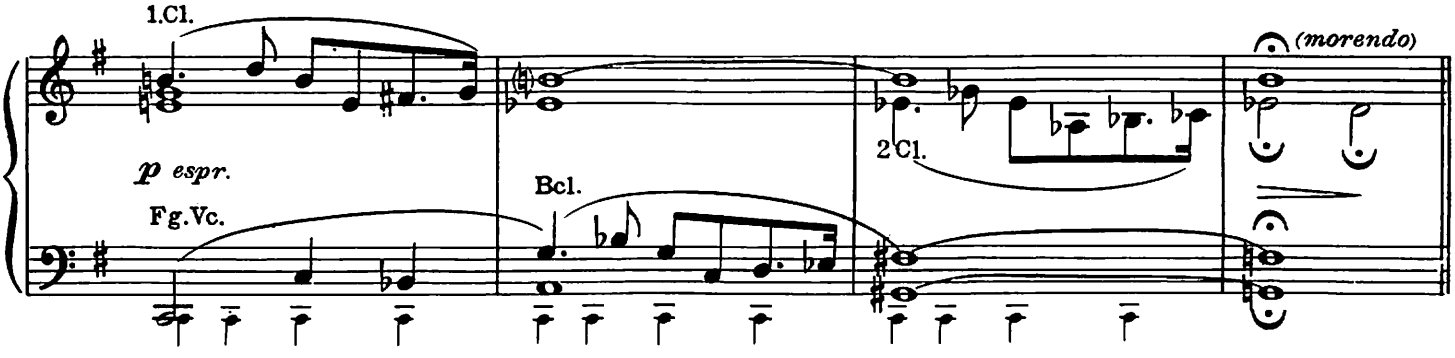

Scene II

(Mid-afternoon of the same day. At the left of the stoop is a large roll of bedding. Two furniture-movers appear.)

One of the Men: (picking up the bedding)
All right. That's all Charlie.

(Two young nurse-maids in smart uniforms appear, each wheeling a baby carriage.)

This dialogue starts on last bars of music.

First Nurse-Maid: (Seeing the house-number)
This must be the place, right here..346.
(They stop, under the Maurrant windows)

Second Nurse-Maid:
Yes, I guess it is.

First Nurse Maid: (Looking up)
Must be right up there, on the first floor, see?

Second Nurse-Maid:
Yes, sure. (Excitedly) You can see where the glass is out of the window. That's where this feller what's-his-name tried to climb out.

First Nurse-Maid:
Say, what doyou know about that! Wait: There's a picture of it, somewhere.

Lullaby

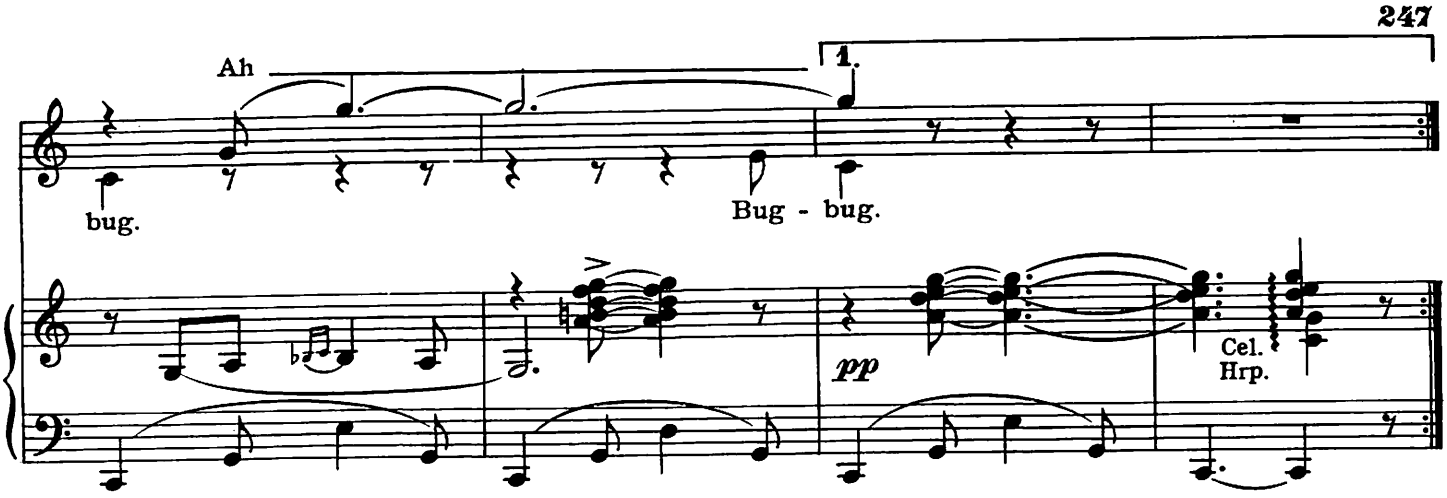

No. 20

(She reaches into the baby buggy for a tabloid. The baby begins to cry.) Oh, he's in again!

Doze, pus - sy cat! He got them with his gat. Oh Snooze, lit - tle man! 2nd. She cheats when-ev'r she can. Your Fl.
Cl.
Bcl.
1st.
boy, that guy Maur - rant looks mad! No won - der with that par - ents are a lov - ing pair; 1st. He smacks her face; 2nd. She p
pizz.
2nd.
wife he had! And here is San - key, scant - i - ly clad. pulls his hair; 1st. Their shrieks and curs - es fill the air. 2nd. She sempre p legato 1st.
Try - ing to climb through the win - dow frame; But he got bumped off smash - es plates, and he tears her clothes; 1st. She lands a left right Cor.
senza cresc.
Vl.
Vla.

1st. (exitedly)
mf
just the same! Look at the blood all o - ver his mug!
on his nose, 2nd. Un - til there's blood all o - ver his mug!
Vl.
pp Trp. (Sord.)
mf espr.
Cl.
1st.
Sleep, la - dy - bug;
Both
p Sleep sweet and
p
Ah.
snug; Sleep, my la - dy bug - bug.
Bug - Vla., Vl.
espr.
W.W.
pp
Vla.

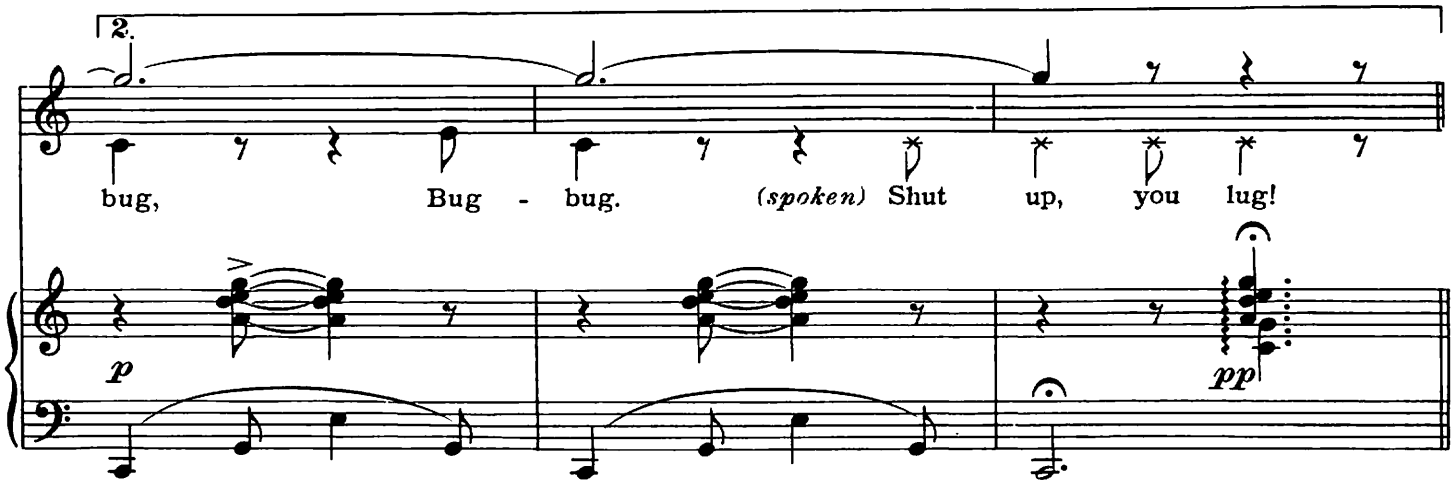

(This dialogue between First and Second Verse)

First Nurse-Maid:
It's worse than awful. Can you imagine what those two must have felt like, when he walked in on them like that?

Second Nurse-Maid:
Well, he just happened to be one of the ones that finds out. Believe me, there's lots and lots of husbands that don't know the half of what goes on, uptown, while they're down-town, making a living.

First Nurse-Maid:
Say, you're not telling me, are you? If I was to spill all I know, there'd be many a happy home busted up.

Introduction for Second Verse (p. 243) starts here.
Second Nurse Maid: (As her baby begins to cry.)
Shut up, a little while, can't you?

Officer Murphy: (Appearing at the Maurrant window)
Keep movin', ladies, No loiterin' aroun' here.

Second Nurse-Maid:
Say, have they caught him, yet?

Officer Murphy:
Why, ain't you hoid? He was last seen, flyin' over Nova Scotia, on his way to Paris.

First Nurse-Maid:
Who are you trying to string, anyhow?

Second Nurse-Maid:
Say, will you let us come up and look around?

Officer Murphy:
Why, sure, sure. Bring de babies, too. De commissioner is soivin' tea, up here, at four-thoity.

First Nurse-Maid:
You're awful smart, aren't you?

Officer Murphy:
Yeah, dat's why dey put me on de entertainment committee. I'm Handsome Harry Moiphy, de boy comedian o' Brooklyn.

Second Nurse-Maid: (Looking at her watch)
Oh, say, I ought to be getting back. Clarice darling would throw a duck-fit, if she knew I brought her precious Dumplings to a neighborhood like this.

First Nurse-Maid: (Turning her carriage)
There is not so much to see, anyhow. It's nothing but a cheap, common dump.

Officer Murphy:
Over de river, goils. See you in de funny paper.

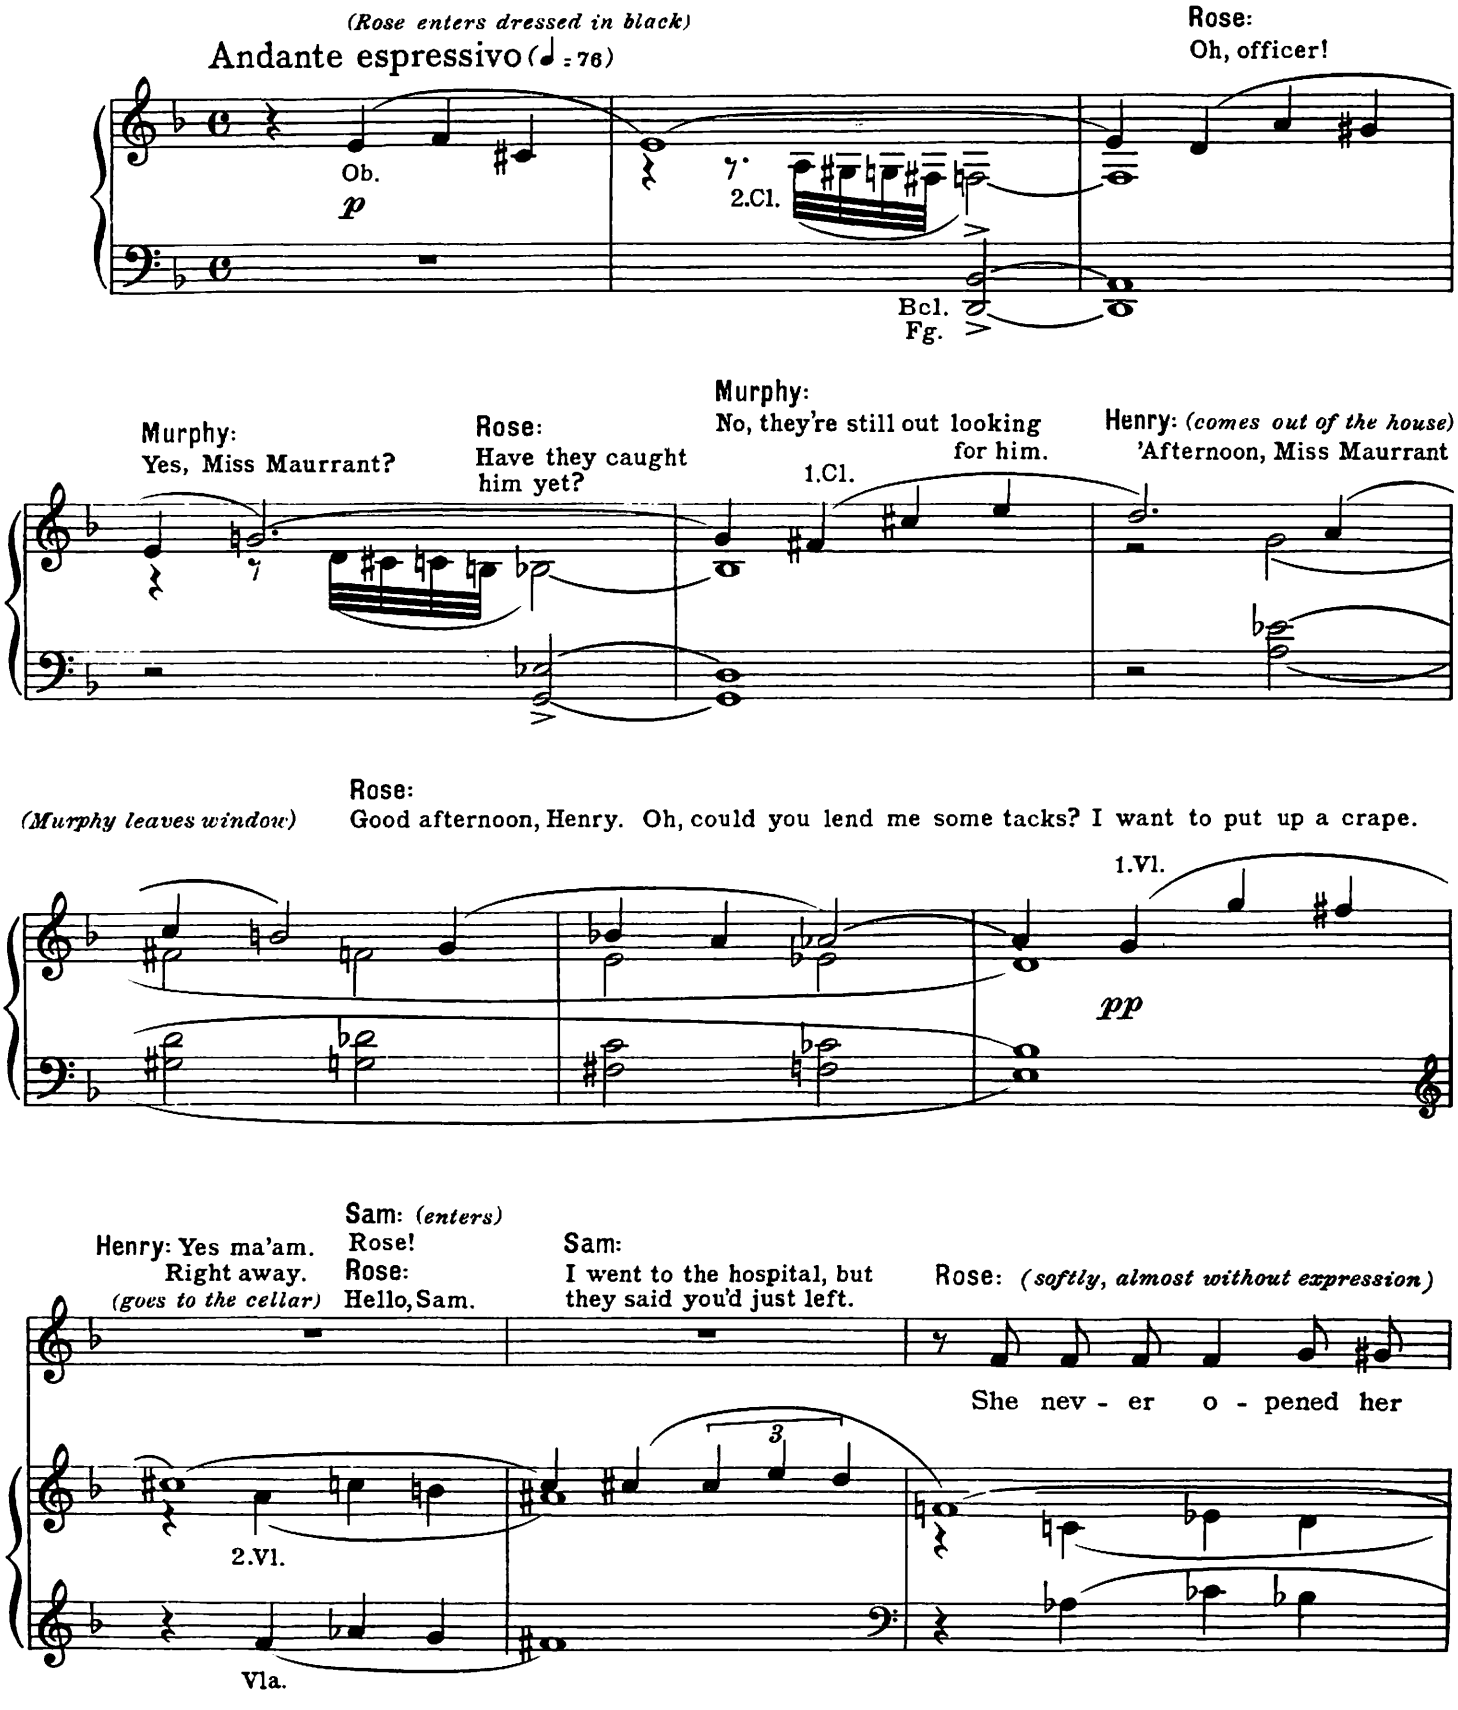

First Nurse-Maid:
Don't get so fresh.
(Both Nurse-Maids start to walk.)

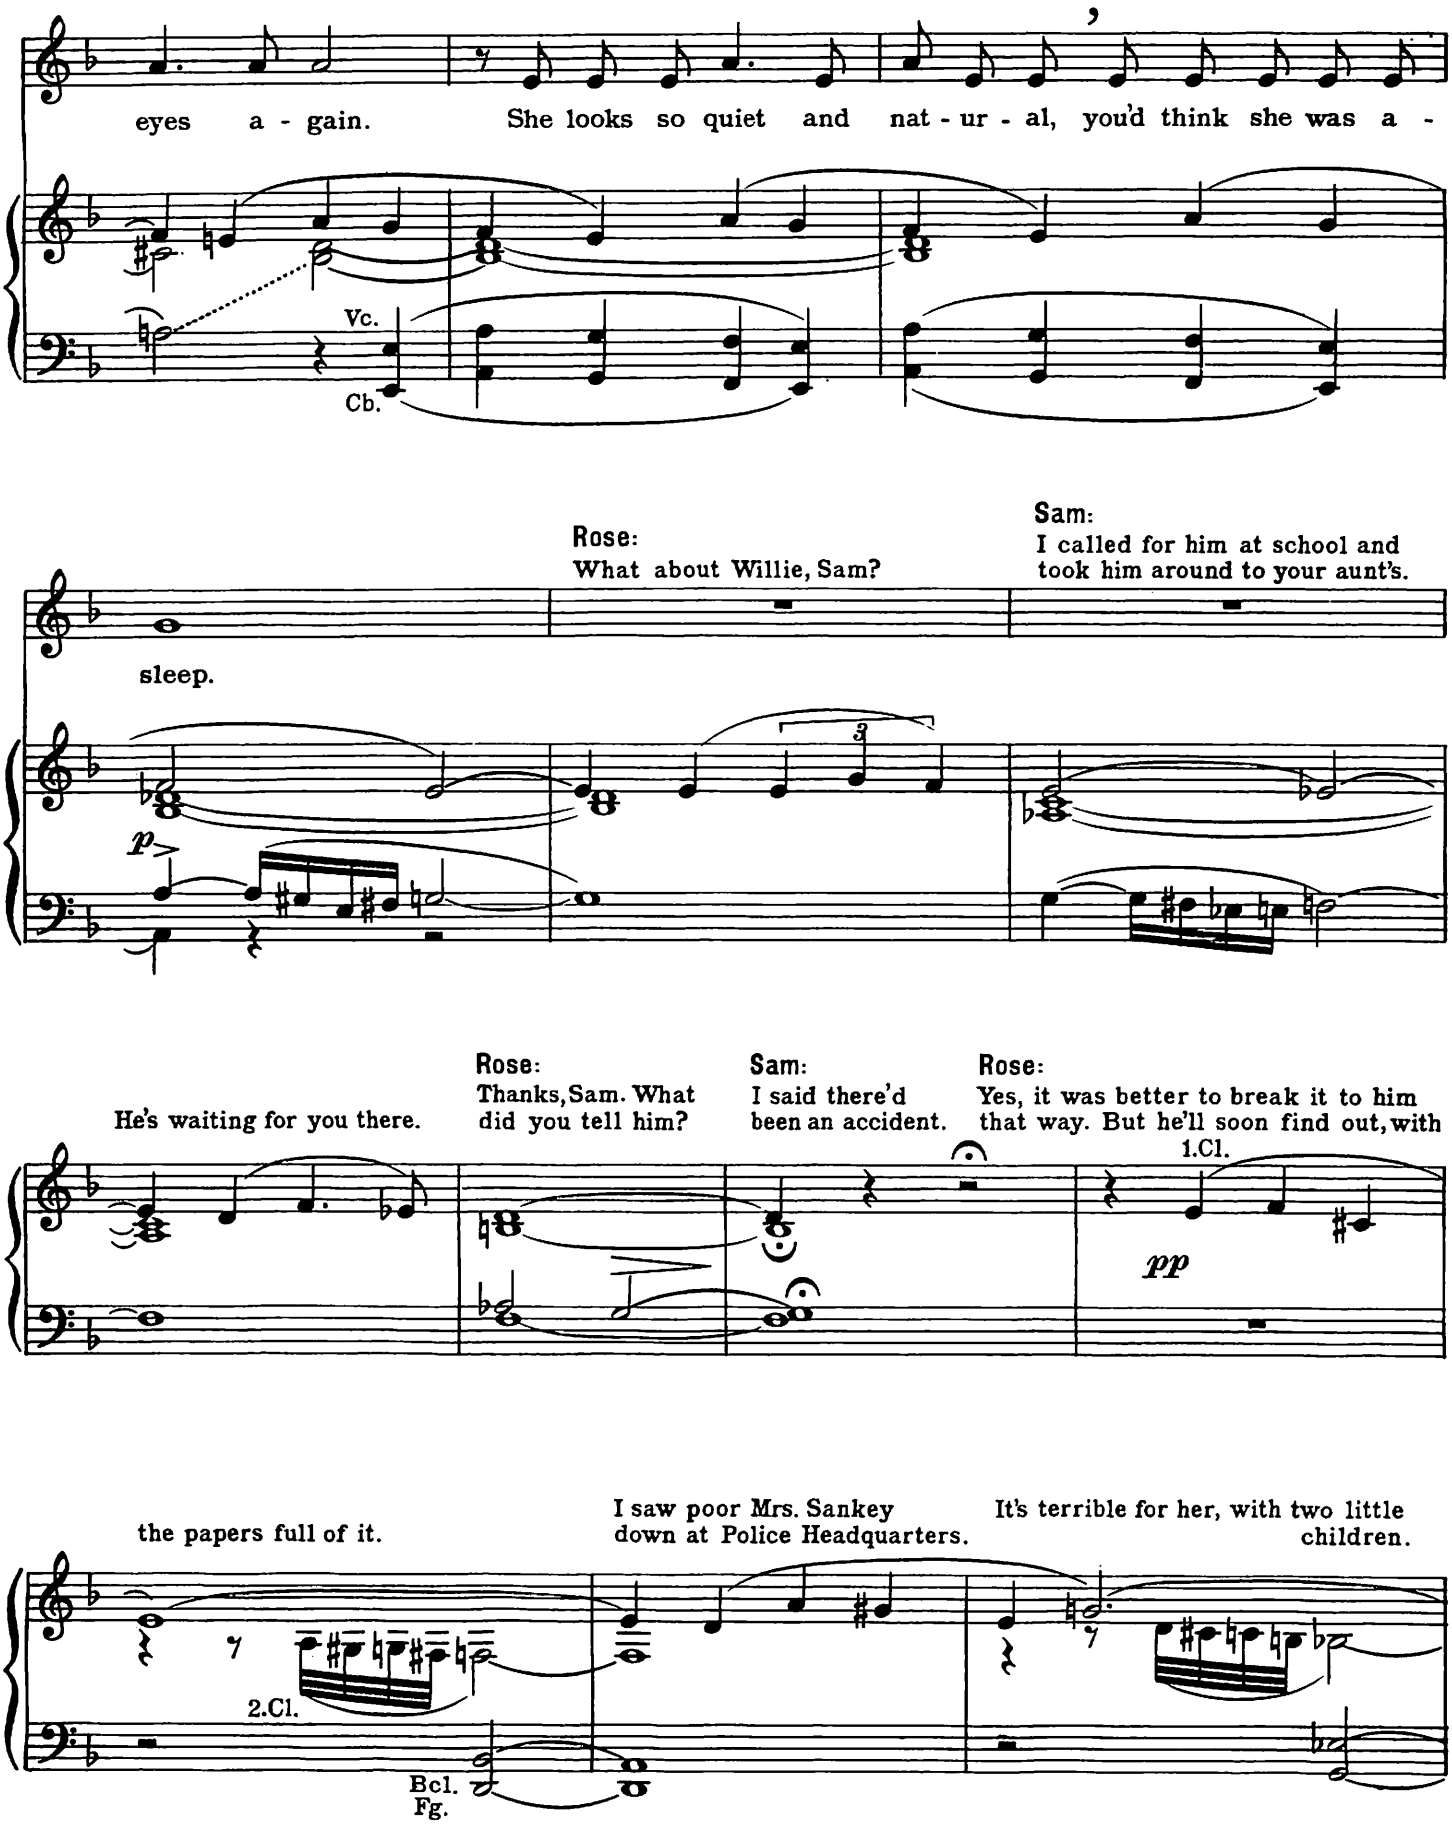

Officer Murphy:
Drop in again, when you're in de neighborhood. An' tell Mrs. Vanderbilt, Harry was askin' for her.

Scene

No. 21

(Rose enters dressed in black)
Andante espressivo (♩ = 76)
Rose:
Oh, officer!
Ob.
p
2.Cl.
Bcl.
Fg.
Murphy:
Yes, Miss Maurrant?
Rose:
Have they caught him yet?
Murphy:
No, they're still out looking for him.
1.Cl.
Henry: (comes out of the house)
'Afternoon, Miss Maurrant
(Murphy leaves window)
Rose:
Good afternoon, Henry. Oh, could you lend me some tacks? I want to put up a crape.
1.Vl.
pp
Henry: Yes ma'am. Right away.
(goes to the cellar)
Sam: (enters)
Rose!
Rose:
Hello, Sam.
Sam:
I went to the hospital, but they said you'd just left.
Rose: (softly, almost without expression)
She nev - er o - pened her
2.Vl.
Vla.

eyes a - gain.
She looks so quiet and nat - ur - al, you'd think she was a - Vc.
Cb.
Rose:
What about Willie, Sam?
Sam:
I called for him at school and took him around to your aunt's.
sleep.
p
He's waiting for you there.
Rose:
Thanks, Sam. What did you tell him?
Sam:
I said there'd been an accident.
Rose:
Yes, it was better to break it to him that way. But he'll soon find out, with 1.Cl.
pp
the papers full of it.
I saw poor Mrs. Sankey down at Police Headquarters.
It's terrible for her, with two little children.
2.Cl.
Bcl.
Fg.

Shirley: (running on)
Rose, you poor thing!
It's terrible! Terrible!
(Henry comes back)

Rose:
Yes, it is. But he never would have done it, if he had been in his right mind.

Oh, thanks, Henry.

Henry:
Lemme do that for you.

Rose:
Oh, would you, please?

dolcissimo

I bought a white dress for her and white

poco meno mosso
2.Vl.
pp

Solo Vl.

dolcissimo

2 II.Vls.

Solo Vla.

Solo Vc.

stock - ings. I want her to look pret - ty, the way she al - ways did.

Rose:
Well, I have to go up now.

a tempo

1.Vl.

Shirley:
Rose, you must n't go up
there.

2.Vl.

Vla.

Rose: I've got to. But I am kind of 3 afraid to go alone. Would you mind coming up with me?

Shirley:
Anything I can do for you, poor child. (They go up the steps.)

Rose:
Oh, thanks,

Henry; it's very nice of you. (They enter the house)

(As Henry goes to cellar, Kaplan appears at the window.)

Sam:
Papa, the police are going to make me testify against Maurrant. What can I do? How can I send a man to the electric chair? I tried to stop him. I tried to warn her- (2 shots are heard.) What's that?

(He runs down the steps and off. People run across. The Olsens come out of the cellar. Shirley appears in the Maurrant apartment, Mrs. Jones in hers and the Fiorentinos in theirs.)

Olsen:
Dey find him!

(He runs off, Kaplan leans out of the window. At the same moment Mrs. Jones leans out of her window, and the Fiorentinos out of theirs. In the Maurrant apartment, Officer Murphy leans out; and Rose and Shirley appear in the hall bedroom window.)

Shirley:
Is that him?

Officer Murphy:
Must be!

(Voices are heard shouting, in the distance, and then another shot. Officer Murphy leaves the window.)

Shirley:
Oh, God! They wouldn't shoot him, would they?

(Two or three more persons appear and run off. Officer Murphy runs out of the house, as Buchanan appears.)

Buchanan:
They got him!

(The Policeman runs off.)

Mrs. J:
Have they got him?

Buchanan:
Yes! He was hiding in the furnace, down at 322. (As Rose comes out of the house) They found him, Miss Maurrant.

Rose:
Oh! Is he hurt?

Buchanan:
I don't know. He fired at the cops and they fired back at him. I was just passing the house, when it happened.

Mrs. J:
Here they come!

(She leaves the window. The low murmur of the approaching crowd can be heard.)

Rose:
Where? (She comes down the stoop and looks.)
Oh! (She covers her eyes and turns away)

Mrs. F:
You better come inside.

Shirley:
Come up, Rose.

Buchanan:
Yes, you better.

Rose:
No, No. Please let me alone. I want to see him. (She leans against the railing. Meanwhile, the murmur and tramp of the approaching crowd has grown nearer and nearer.)

Mrs. F:
Look at him, vill you!

(Maurrant appears between two policemen. Behind him, Officer Murphy holds back a swarming crowd. Maurrant's clothes are torn, and his right arm is in a crude sling. Sweat, blood and grime have made him almost unrecognizable. The Policemen, too, show evidences of a struggle.)

Rose: (Running forward)
Pop! Are you hurt?

Maurrant: (Seeing her for the first time)
Rose!

First Policeman: (To whom Maurrant is manacled)
Keep back, Miss!

Maurrant:
It's me daughter! Fer Chris' sake, boys, lemme talk to me daughter! Maybe I'll never be seein' her again!

Officer Murphy:
Give 'im a woid wit' her!

Finale

No. 22

Second Policeman:
Well, all right! (Savagely to Maurrant) But don't try to pull nothin', hear?

Andante sostenuto

Maurrant: p

Rose: p

Rose! You're wear-ing a black dress! Why did you do it?

Cl. p

espr. Vla.

2.Vl.

1.Vl.

Vc.
Cb.

Maurrant:

Why did you?

I must o'been out of my head, Rose.

Rose:

She nev-er o-pened her

Moderato (like a Blues)

Maurrant: p

eyes a-gain.

It might not of looked like it to

W.W.

Brass p

mf espr.

Maurrant

you, but I loved her, too. I could - n't

SOPRANO

ALTO

pp (whispering) He loved her, too.

TENOR

pp (whispering) He loved her, too.

BASS

pp (whispering) He loved her, too.

r.h.

stand to see no-bod-y tak - in' her a - way from me, For I loved her,

Maurrant:

too.

SOPRANO pp He loved her, too.

ALTO pp He real - ly loved her.

TENOR pp He loved her, too.

BASS pp He loved her, too.

poco accel.

Rose: f con passione

Maurrant: mf

She was so gen - tle, al-ways so good and sweet. I'd been drink - in', Rose, see what I mean And all the talk that went a -

Str. mf

Trp. Trb.

poco rall. (vehemently) a tempo round. There al-ways was some - thing in-side of me right here like a Vl. Vla. Vc. col canto

Trp. Trb. p marc.

Cl. Cor. Fg. Bcl. Cor. Bcl.

wall Seems like I nev - er could break through, But I swear to allarg.

God, Rose, that I loved her, too. I loved her,
1.Vl.
too. Yes, I loved her,
W.W.
Str.
Cor.
Allegro molto agitato
ma un poco tenuto
Rose:
What will they do to you Pop?
Maurrant:
too. It's the chair for me,
r.h.
I guess, But I don't care Let 'em

(outbreak) give me the chair, I don't care.

molto cresc.

Fg. Trb. Vc.

The way she looked at me!

That look in her eyes!

Rose! I ought - n't have

Trp.
Trb.

Tempo I°, ma un poco più agitato
Rose:
mf
She al-ways was gen - tle, al - ways so sweet, And now she is Maurrant:
p done it! I ought - n't have done it!
SOPRANO
p
ALTO
No, he ought-n't have done it! He TENOR
p
BASS
Tempo I°, ma un poco più agitato
p
Brass
Fag.
Timp. dead. She al - ways was I must have been cra - zy, I just went loved her, he loved her, And yet he killed her, He

Rose:

cresc. poco a poco

gen - tle, and now she is dead.

Maurrant:

clean out of my head. But I loved her killed her, Now she is dead, now she is dead. The killed her, Now she is dead, now she is dead. She is killed her, Now she is dead, now she is dead. She is killed her. Now she is dead, now she is dead. She is

SOPRANO

ALTO

TENOR

BASS

f

You say you loved her

ff

too. There al-ways was some-thing in-side of wo - man he loved is dead. He loved her dead, where the win-dow is bro-ken, up there in that dead, where the win-dow is bro-ken, He loved her dead, ~~where the win-dow is bro-ken,~~ up there in that molto cresc.

Fl.

Trb. Vc.

too, But now she's dead.

me, right here like a wall I could-n't break through.

too, He loved her too.

room, Up there in that room.

too, and yet he killed her, and yet he room, Up there in that room.

Murphy: Come on, that's all.
Maurrant: Gimme a chance, can't you? What's gonna become of you, Rose?
Rose: I'll be all right, Pop. Don't worry about me.

rall.

She was my moth - er, why did you kill her?

But I loved her, too.

Look out for

Why did he do it? Why did he kill her?

Why did he do it? Why did he kill her?

killed her. Why did he kill the one he loved?

Why did he do it? Why did he kill her?

rall.

Moderato assai
p (Spoken)
(she is crying)
I'll do all I can.
Oh, Pop!
Wil-lie.
You're a good girl!
You al-ways was a good girl,
ppp Solo
He loved her,
too.
pppp
Fl.
Cl.
p
(They start to move off stage and exit. Rose stands down by the curb. Sam watches Rose.
The people leave the windows. Rose starts up the stoop)
Rose.
pp
He loved her, too.
morendo
Trp.
Trb.(sord)
pp

Moderato
Sam:
Rose!
Rose!
Fl.
Cl.
r.h.
l.h.
Rose: Yes, Sam?
Sam:
What are you going to do, Rose?
Vl. Vla. Vc.
Cl. Cor.
l.h.
Rose:
I think I'll go a - way.
Sam:
I'll go with you.
Rose:
But, Sam dear, that isn't possible!
Sam:
Don't you re - mem - ber only this Trp.
Trb.
Vc. espr.

morn - ing, we said you and I would
Vc.
go a - way to - geth - er.
E.H.
Rose:
p
Yes, but this morn - ing things were so Bcl.
Cor.
dif - f'rent; I nev - er dreamed

Sam:
mf (passionately)
it would be this way.
I'll go where you go
Str.
mf
Cor.
I don't care a - bout an - y - thing else!
Do you think I can stay here, in this slum, nev - er see - ing you,
Cl.
f nev - er hear-ing your voice, nev - er stand - ing by your side?
mf

ff
Oh Rose, I love you! My life is noth - ing Trp.
ff
f
Rose:
f un - less I'm with you. Oh, if it could be!
dim.
ff
Allegro non troppo
Rose:
But some things, I think, you
p Brass, Str.
r.h.

have to face a - lone.
In - side your - self
You have to face some things a - lone.
sfz
mf
cresc.
stringendo Agitato
f
Sam:
No!
Not a - lone!
We need each oth - er,
we must be to - geth - -
rit.
rit.
a tempo
Trp.
Trb.
Cor.
Trb.
molto rit.
- - - - - - er!
ff
molto espr.
pp

Allegro non troppo
Sam:
p Fl.
Solo Vl.
There's no hope for us un - less we love each oth - er, Un-less Str.
Hrp.
pizz.
Rose:
I be - long to you And you be-long to me. Oh
mf
3 Cl.
mf
espr.
pizz.
Sam, it's love that I want more than an - y-thing in the world.
Fl.
Cor.
Vl.
p poco meno mosso
But lov-ing and be - long-ing - - they're not the 1. Vl.
mf
f
p espr.
Bcl.
Fg.

Tranquillo (freely)
pp same. Look at my fa-ther, my poor moth-er, If she had belonged to her-self, If Cor.
pp Fg.
Timp. ppp
mf
f dolente he had belonged to him-self, It nev-er would have hap-pened. And that's why, e-ven though my molto
f Trb. Cor.
heart breaks, I can't be-long to you, Or have you be-long to me.
(molto pesante)
Trp.
ff
p Sam:
Oh Rose, this is the end of my Vl., Cl.
p Vla., Bcl.
Vc.
Fg.

Andantino

Rose:

Please, listen to me, Sam. If we say goodbye now, it world.

Fl.

mf dolce

pp

p

Vc. pizz.

doesn't mean that it has to be forever.

Trp. sord.

p espr.

Maybe someday when we're older and wiser,

Str.

Hrp.

things will be different.

I'm so fond of you, Sam. And no matter where I go or Cl.

Ob.

Fg.

what I do, I'll always be thinking of you.

p Rose:

And don't for-get the li-lac-bush bright in the morn-ing

p

Hrp.

Str.

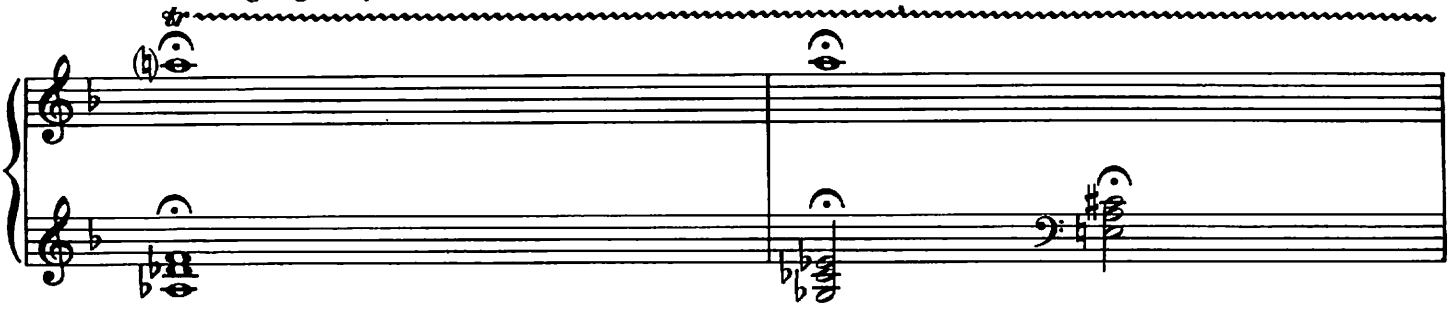

air. Re-mem-ber, al-ways re - mem - - - - - -
Str.
W.W. mf espr.
- - - ber,
p Re-mem-ber that I Cl.
Hrp.
Ob.
cresc.
+Br.
Vc.
f Cl.
Str.
Hrp
p
pp
care.
Re-mem-ber that I care.
(A middle-aged couple appear)
The Man:
This must be the flat Fred was talking about. 346. Yeah, this is it, all right.
W.W.
Hrp.
1.Vl.
2.Vla.
pp
Trp., Cor., Hrp.
The Woman:
Well, I hope nobody got here ahead of us. Better try to find the janitor. (sotto voce) Somebody must of just died.
The Man:
Yeah, maybe that's why they're movin' out. (Starts down the cellar steps.) Phoo! Seems to be gettin' hotter, every minute.

(Shirley, carrying a suitcase, comes out of the house.)

Rose: Miss Kaplan, I was just telling Sam I think I'll soon be going away from New York.

Shirley: I put your things in this suit-case.

Rose: Thank you, you've been awfully nice to me, Miss Kaplan.

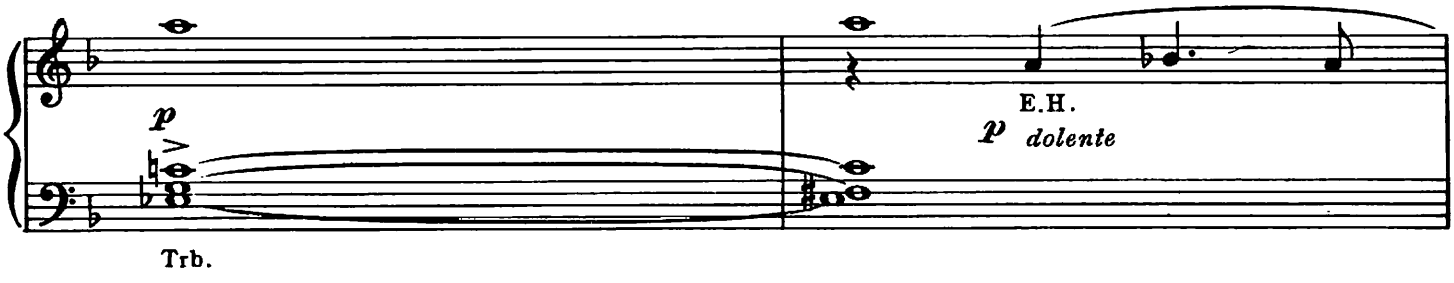

Rose: Well, good-bye.

Shirley: Good-bye, Rose. You're a sweet girl. (Kisses her)

Rose: I hope I'll see you again.

Shirley: I hope so, Rose.

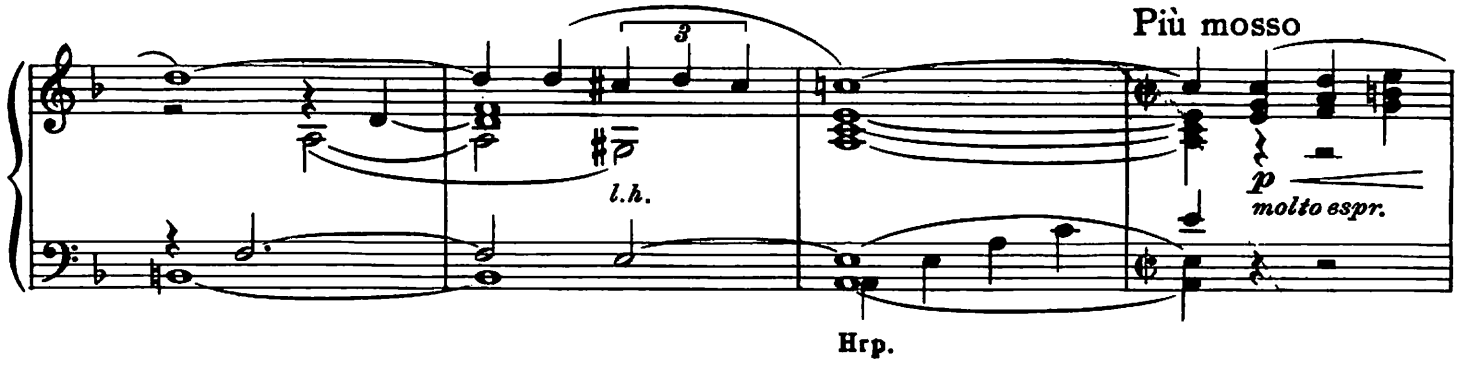

quasi Adagio

(Rose is about to turn away, but instead goes to Sam and kisses him swiftly. Sam breaks away and goes abruptly into the house. Rose stands looking after him, then slowly picks up her bag and starts to go off. Mrs. Fiorentino appears at her window. Rose disappears.)

Child's Voice (off stage) free

Come in, come in, wher-ev-er you are!

Kaplan: (at window)
Shoiley, what's the matter with Sam again? He's crying on the bed.

Shirley:
Leave him alone, Papa, can't you? (Exits into house. Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Jones appear.)

Mrs. O:
The poor little thing!

Mrs. J.
Wouldn't surprise me a bit if she turned out the same way as her mother. She's got a gentleman friend that was hanging around here late last night.

Moderato assai ♩= ♩

Mrs. F.

Ain't it

aw-ful, the heat, Ain't it aw - ful? Don't know what I'm gon - na

Mrs. O.

Don't know what I'm gon - na

Trp.

Trb.

2. Trb.

do.
Gosh, I'm bak - in'!
Mrs. J.
do.
Trp.
My head's ach - in'!
3 Cl. Str.
Mrs. F.
Don't know what I'm gon-na
Mrs. O.
Don't know what I'm gon-na
Kaplan:
I'm a soak-in' wet all through.
Don't know what I'm gon-na
Str., W. W.
(Henry and the Man come up the cellar steps, and he conducts the Couple into the house. A sailor appears with two girls. They stroll across, as the curtain begins to fall slowly.)
do,
Don't know what I'm gon-na do.
do,
Don't know what I'm gon-na do.
do,
Don't know what I'm gon-na do.
Largo