BRUCE: And we sang it for the dean's wife!
JOAN: No!
BRUCE: Oh yes.
JOAN: What happened???
BRUCE: The crowd went wild!
JOAN: I can't believe you did that!
(Medium Alison enters.)
BRUCE: Listen, as far as we knew we were about to be expelled anyway, so we thought why not stick it to the man on our way out!
MEDIUM ALISON: Oh god, this story?
JOAN: You didn't tell me your dad was a troublemaker.
MEDIUM ALISON: Has he got you polishing silver??
JOAN: I don't know what to say. He made it sound like a great idea.
BRUCE: I charmed her into it.
JOAN: He charmed me into it. (GO ON)

BRUCE: (Playing the bottom part of "Heart and Soul.") Hey Al, come play this one with your old dad.
(Medium Alison is also now having a good time.)
MEDIUM ALISON: No. Dad!
BRUCE: (To Joan.) Have you heard her play?
JOAN: I have not.
BRUCE: Aha! Well, she learned everything she knows from me. Keep that in mind. Come on!
MEDIUM ALISON: Dad!
BRUCE: Come on.

Swung eighths

After Telephone Wire

Con rubato

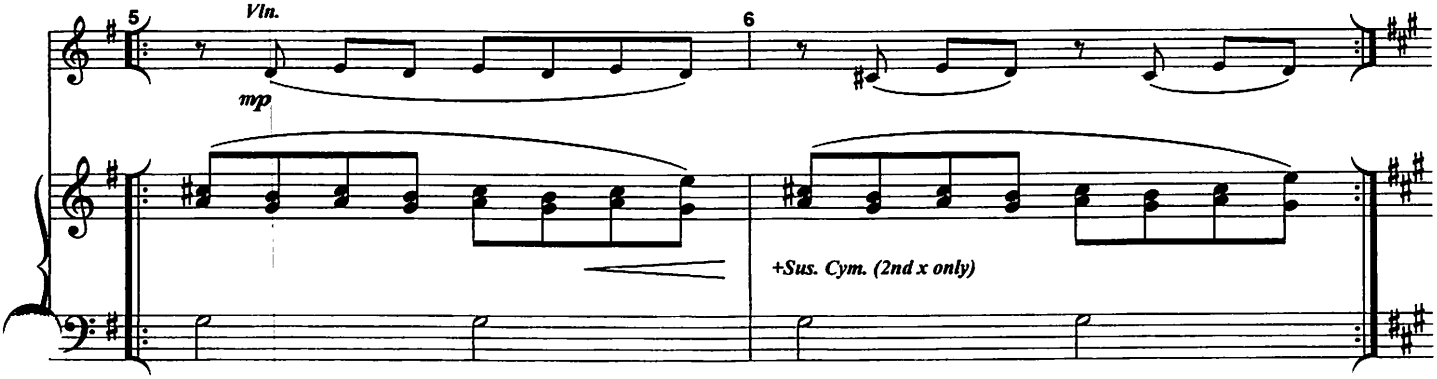

Orchestrations by JOHN CLANCY

ALISON: This, um… What is this? Table in the living room with– jack in the pulpit. Oh. Oh. That's, uh, I was going to draw that // in this panel. (The table goes away. Bruce enters.)
BRUCE: Dear Al, It was great to have you home. (GO ON)

ALISON: What was I…? (She looks for something else to draw.) What's this?
BRUCE: I've been flying high ever since you were here.
ALISON: This. I can draw this draw this in the…(The object disappears.) Oh. (She looks for something else to draw.)
BRUCE: Dear Al
ALISON: This is good. This is good. I could… I could… (GO ON)

BRUCE: I'll admit I'm somewhat envious of the 'new' freedom that appears on campuses today.
(Simultaneous) Dear Al, Did you receive that Winogrand article I was telling you about? (GO ON)

ALISON: (simultaneous) What did it feel like to step in front of a truck, Dad? (GO ON)

BRUCE: (simultaneous) Do you know I was never even in New York until I was about twenty? Dear Al, I just re-read Araby. That could have been me– (GO ON)

ALISON: (simultaneous) What did it feel like to see it coming right at you and not move? And just let it hit you? (GO ON)

BRUCE: (Simultaneous) Dear Al, I've been working like mad on that house I told you about. Can't think about much else. Can't sleep–(GO ON)

ALISON: (Simultaneous) Why? Was it because of me? Did it have nothing to do with me? What Happened? (GO ON)
