3 In serving writs I made such a name
That an articled clerk I soon became;
I wore clean collars and a bran new suit
For the pass examination at the Institute.
And that pass examination did so well for me,
That now I am the ruler of the Queen's Navee.
Cho :—And that pass examination, &c.

4 Of legal knowledge I acquired such a grip,
That they took me into the partnership,
And that junior partnership I ween
Was the only ship that I ever had seen.
But that kind of ship so suited me,
That now I am the ruler of the Queen's Navee.
Cho :—But that kind, &c.

5 I grew so rich, that I was sent
By a pocket borough into Parliament;
I always voted at my party's call,
And I never thought of thinking for myself at all.
I thought so little they rewarded me,
By making me the ruler of the Queen's Navee.
Cho :—He thought so little, &c.

6 Now landsmen all, whoever you may be,
If you want to rise to the top of the tree,
If your soul isn't fettered to an office stool,
Be careful to be guided by this golden rule,—
Stick close to your desks and never go to sea,
And you all may be rulers of the Queen's Navee.
Cho :—Stick close, &c,
