WHAT WOULD I DO FOR MY QUEEN?

From "Esmeralda" (1883)

Edited by H. E. Krehbiel

ARTHUR GORING THOMAS
(1851-1892)

Moderato

Copyright MCMXI by Oliver Ditson Company

Scanned with CamScanner

Allegro
stake this day will lead her! Day! thou shalt not break!
Recit.
Moderato
Oh, mur-d'rous day, that slays a ten-der maid! But see,
'tis twi-light! and the last stars fade.
Andante non troppo
What would I do for my Queen?

Crown her with flow'rs, Float like a zeph - yr un-seen
cresc.
Round her for hours; Joy would I bring, and de-light,
cresc.
dim.
Love like a song at her ears. Sleep and sweet dream - ing at night, p poco rit.
All that en - thralls and en - dears.
poco rit.
a tempo
dolce

Scanned with CamScanner

rit.
Tempo I
lone - ly years.
pp
rit.
a tempo
What can I do for my Queen? Crown her with pit - i - less p thorn;
Weep - ing for what might have been,
Had one but nev - er been born.
All I can give her is woe, Sor-row and an-guish and tears;

I am so low-ly, so low-ly,
dolce
and so want-ing in all that enanimando
dears. All I can give to my più vivo

Queen is pray'r, Pray'r, un - to Heav - - en un - seen! Love - less! un - loved, and un - known, and a - p col canto Tempo I
rit.
lone Through the long, lone - ly years.
rit.
p rit.